Tokyo Garden New Venture in Harrisburg

On Monday, December 17 the Tokyo Tea Garden at 225 Market street, was opened to the public, ofoffering to Harrisburgers something

The spacious and comfortable rooms that comprise the Tokyo Tea Garden are located on the second floor of 225 Market street, just between the Colonial and Victoria Theaters. Right in the heart of the downtown section it is easily accessible to every one. Oriental designs and decorations cover the walls and very beautiful ferns and cedars are distributed around in various places. An arbor effect is brought forth on the ceilings. On each side are booths to accommodate the private parties. These booths are very prettily decorated in white and various Oriental colors, with Japanese lights imported direct from Japan furnishing the illuminations. All the dishes used are imported cirect from Japan and are of the very latest designs of the best Chinaware. Last, but not least, comes the kitchen, where all the delicious and dainty dishes are prepared. All the modern appliances known to science for the preparing of foods are found in this wonderful kitchen. Everything is within easy reach, which naturally tends toward quick service. Everything is cooked under the most sanitary conditions.

The proprietors, Kaida Brothers, have a vast experience in Oriental restaurants and assure the public that they have established the right kind of restaurant for the right kind of restaurant f

Up-Town Grocer Uses Auto For Deliveries

These days when the snow is Every last one of us, of course. I have just run across a unique plan to earn some good money. Want to will receive prompt and efficient service.

With Christmas so near don't forget that you can buy your nuts and candies here as advantageously as you could down town and still save money. The prompt delivery scriet that you may have forgotten for that cake or pie that will play the part of desert for Xmas dinner. Don't forget the fresh meat and green goods that form a big part of Mr. Drum's stock. The quality of the goods and the low prices together with the delivery service makes this big grocery store one of the most desirable in the up-town section.

doubtedly can sen their wares to much less than the average merchant because of the discount they receive by buying things in carload lots.

Prices at this big store are so adjusted that a nominal profit is customer gets the advantage of the customer gets the advantage of the mother unique feature of buying and selling.

Out of High Rent District
Another unique feature of this big store is the fact that it is out of the high rent district and yet so near the heart of the city. This is also a big saving in overhead expenses which again demonstrates the fact that there naturally is a big saving to the public by taking advantage of the

New Coffee Roaster Installed by Gem Tea Co.

All lovers of good coffee know what a difference fresh roasted coffee makes over coffee that has been roasted for weeks. The Gem Tea Company has just installed a Royal Coffee Roaster which means that they can now serve you with fresh roasted coffee daily. This not only means better coffee, but cheaper coffee. A great saving is made in roasting their own coffee.

You can now secure the best

You can now secure the best grades of coffee from the Gem Tea Company, which is located at 1604 Derry street, at very reasonable prices, from 20 cents to 30 cents a pound. Besides coffee this store makes specialty of spices and jumbo peanuts. Charles L. Weir, the proprietor, takes great pains in pleasing his customers and respectfully solicits your patronage.

public by taking advantage of the opportunity of buying there.

Frank R. Downey, Manager

This big store has been continuously doing business in Harrisburg since 1882, thereby making it one of the oldest established businesses in this city. Frank R. Downey, the manager, has been identified with the company since he was a boy. Since 1903 he has had charge of the Harrisburg branch, therefore being well informed in his line of business and capable of conducting his matters in such a way that the customer is not only a very satisfied one but ready to come back and buy again.

Occupies New Building in Derry Street

H. G. Day, whose name is well known to the music loving public, has completed his new building in Derry street and has opened his music house at 1421 Derry street.

Mr. Day handles the finest line of pianos, player-planos and musical instruments. The main feature Mr. Day sells is the wonderful Lester Piano and the Columbia Graphophone. The two makes of musical instruments need no introduction ber him as an old reliable grocer.

Mr. Etter has again come forth in the grocery business opening a new store at 1515 Derry street. He announces that this new store will carry a complete line of staple and fancy groceries and will be conducted on the "cash and carry" plan.

This new movement which is cnothed by the U. S. Food Control Commission, is a great saving. Doining away with the heavy expense incident to delivery service it enables the merchant to price his goods on a much lower basis and still maintain the best standard of quality. Mr. Etter's personality and business compelence has won for him a host of friends in the past and he extends a most cordial invitation to everyone to call and inspect his new store as every ment of the "Florists" Telegraph Delivery" and can deliver "flowers" anywhere in the United States and street for the "Florists" Telegraph Delivery" and can deliver "flowers and pasteurized and botten of the maddes, and match the prices maintained with any prevailing anywhere in the city.
