How about the lowly road sign? Do you ever, Mr. Motorist, in your touring about the country-in your hurrying from town to town, and city to city, and in your jaunts to the seashore and to the mountains-consider what an im-portant part the silent sentinel of the highway plays in your life? COUNTY COURT HANDS DOWN TWO OPINIONS bown Two opinions were handed down opinions were handed down by President Judge George I disposing of minor cases in court. In the case of the re Trust Company against t Deepke and William A. the court discharged the mo-a rule to open judgment. Jerauld, plaintif in an action Alice M. Shopp and Clara M. was given ten days to file an it on disposing of a motion for the trust company against. the court discharged the mo-a rule to open judgment. Jerauld, plaintif in an action Alice M. Shopp and Clara M. was given ten days to file an is statement of damages. In the ton disposing of a motion for the trust company against that the trust of the court of the trust would spiel his little old cor is to mile epairs. Left to himself the motorist would guide his little old car into culde-sacs and bewildering lanes, chancing punctures and loss of much gasoline. With the mute Samaritan he keeps on the right path, he doesn't lose his temper and his money.

In planning an even more extensive construction of guide posts, the Good-rich Company believes that guide posts are consulted at least 4,000,000 times a day. There are approximately 4,000,000 automobiles in the country today, and the assistance of the road sign to them is, roughly speaking, 2,800,000,000 times a year. Who else in the world does 000.200 favors for mankind?

Special Holiday Program at the Regent Theater

On Christmas Day and the two suceeding days, Geraldine Farrar will appear at the Regent Theater in her latest Artcraft release, "The Devil Stone." This production will provide Harrisburg's theatergoers with one of the most brilliant attractions on the Yuletide program. As an added fea-ture of the Christmas Day perform-ances, a special musical program has been arranged 'of fitting selections. Miss Marion M. Merchant will be at the organ.

Miss Marion M. Merchant will be at the organ. As in "Joan the Woman." the prima donna's latest stellar appear ances on the screen, Miss Farrar is supported by an all-star cast in "The Devil Stone." It is a gripping play founded upon an entirely new theme, and one which has not been treated before in any motion picture play. The basis of this creation of Cecft DeMille's is Superstition, and forms a compelling influence in the moulding of an in-tense plot.

KEEP OFFICE OPEN County Recorder James E. Lentz and Marriage License Clerk Alvord, remained at the office this afternoon to accommodate the couples applying for marriage licenses. The annual Christmas wedding rush is on accord-ing to Mr. Lentz, and by noon fifteen licenses had been issued. A number of the prospective "hubbles" were soldiers home on furlough.
