DR. C. T. GEORGE, DRUGGIST, DIES

From him and his signature adorns state certificates in drug stores all over this and other states. He was one of the first to recognize the business possibilities of what is now a center of thriving trade in the vicinity of Third and Verbeke streets, and his store there became one of the best equipped and most prominent in the state.

Dr. George was born in Humberge, Landgrate of Kuhn-Hessen, Germany, February 2, 1844. He came to America at the age of 6, and was under instruction in the public schools of Harrisburg. He opened a drugstore at Fourth and Walnut streets after working as an apprentice at the trade.

Dr. George, in addition to his other offices, was president of the Explorers' Association. He was married December 13, 1870, to Sara C. Pyfer, who died September 17, 1912. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Raymond E. Reed; two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

NEWS OF STEELTON

DISTRICT SHOWS WELL IN DRIVE

Canvassers Stopped Work; Campaign to Close Saturday

With more than 9,000 members to its credit, the Steelton Red Cross Chapter again did its "bit" by contributing more than its share of subscribers during the Christmas drive.

Expect More Subscribers The campaign has been closed as far as canvassing goes, but several hundred more subscribers are expected to come in voluntarily. Officers announced this morning that final reports to headquarters at Philadelphia would not be made until the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Spangler, of Palmyra, are visiting in town.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Boyd are visiting the latter's parents at Elwood City, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah McCreary are spending the week at Butler, as the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Barman.

Mrs. H. L. Quickel, who spent the past week in town as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Quickel, Nisley street, returned to her home at Royertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Heagy left today for Chester, where they will visit relatives for several days.

There is a tremendous and growing opposition to the Bolsheviki among all classes. Men who formerly supported them are turning against them and are willing to do a common term of denunciation.

There is much talk of meeting the present reign of terror with counter measures and bomb throwing is freely suggested as the only method of exerting pressure on the Bolsheviki. This is not merely idle talk as those who say it are those who already have thrown bombs.
