

INDEPENDENTS EXPECT HARD GAME WITH ROSEWOOD TOMORROW---BOWLING SCORES

LOCAL TEAMS IN ANNUAL BATTLE

Independents Meet Rosewood on Auditorium Floor Tomorrow Night

In the game to-morrow night between the Harrisburg Independents and Rosewood, it will be a battle between local stars. The game starts at 8.15 and promises to be one of the most interesting of the season. Both teams have been working hard and rivalry promises to be keen.

The Rosewood aggregation is a product of the Rosewood A. A. an organization that has done much to promote sports in Harrisburg, and have produced a number of championship baseball and basketball teams. Last season Rosewood took the Independents scalp, the score being 24 to 32.

Probable Lineups
The Rosewood lineup will include the Lingle boys, two of the fastest men seen in the cage game; "Bud" Lingle is a forward and tackle, a former Tech star, will jump center; Tim Devine, a Hassett product and former Central star, will play guard. Every man on the Independent team is a graduate of Central High with the exception of Sourbier, who is a graduate of Tech. Dave McConnell, the Independent guard, holds a diploma from both schools.

St. Joseph Team Wins Game From Garnet Five

St. Joseph team, of Lancaster, with Leo Houck, the heavyweight boxer in the lineup, walloped the Garnets last night, score 61 to 20. The game was played at Lancaster and the local five was outwitted and outclassed.

The Garnets lacked the usual "pep," and team work was woefully lacking. Beck was off in jumping center, his opponent pulling off fifteen field goals by better work. The lineup and summary:

St. Joseph's Garnets.
J. Hecker, f. Shoeman, f.
Reinhold, f. Colbeck, f.
Buckley, c. Beck, c.
H. Hocker, g. Morrett, g.
Houck, g. Bell, g.
(Kob) Field Goals—St. Joseph, J. Hecker, 10; Reinhold, 1; Buckley, 15; H. Hecker, 1; Houck, 1; Kolb, 1. Garnets, Pollock, 2; Beck, 2; Bell, 3.
Foul Goals—J. Hecker, 2; Kolb, 1; Garnets, Pollock, 3; Beck, 2; Morrett, 1. Referee—Lamer.

Hugh Jennings' List Will Total Twenty-five

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 28.—The squad of players the Detroit American League baseball club will send to the spring training camp at Wausau, Wis., will number twenty-five, according to announcement by President Frank Navin. Ten pitchers will be in the squad, including Foster, a recruit from the Three-Eye League, and Finnegan, purchased from the St. Paul American Association team. The outfielders and three catchers will make up the remainder.

President Barrow Is Anxious to Stage Return

Toronto, Ont., Dec. 28.—Edward C. Barrow, former president of the International League, in a statement made in the Boston clubs, announced that he was considering to merge stronger than ever from the crisis that now besets minor league baseball.

Ingram to Lead Navy; Was Star at Quarterback

Annapolis, Md., Dec. 28.—Announcement has just been made here of the election of William A. Ingram to captain next year's football team, who hails from Jeffersonville, Ind., is the third of his family to play at the academy and lead the eleven. He played a star game at quarter this year after having put in last season at half.

COLLEGES WERE ON WRONG TRACK; WAR CORRECTS

New York, Dec. 28.—Dr. Dudley A. Sargent, director of physical education at Harvard, in addressing the Athletic Research Society here said that Yale and Harvard had been on the wrong track in athletics and physical education for the last twenty-five years, but that now, as a result of the war they were coming around and were beginning to see that athletics should be for the many and not for the few specialized stars. "Get everybody into the game, is the slogan that the colleges should have now," said Dr. Sargent.

BEYOND THE MIST
We may not see beyond the Gate—
The mounded portal of the spirit
Nor know what phantom dreams await
Beyond the final fall of cloud.

No football comes—no given sign,
No reckoning—no backward glance—
Where love's red roses guard the line
Beyond which life may not advance.

We may not look into the sleep
Where hills lean across the day—
Joy broken there—how long or deep
Where life's lost winds kneel down to pray.

For knowing, we might find the sting
To take all heart from brave, true life,
Or Death to be too dear a thing
To give one another day of life.

Yes, the lure is strong. An Englishman now in this country, after service in the front line trenches, reports that he saw a pal one afternoon under shellfire deeply engrossed in a volume entitled, "How to Putt."

AS FOR 1918—
1917 managed to maintain a fair share of its sport under the red shadow of war.
How about 1918?
This is the year that will be the big test. Sport, through war's mighty preparation, could move along.
But how sport will hold up when the long casualty lists begin to arrive is another affair.

It will keep going, but at what speed is not to be estimated this far in advance of the spring drive.

KELLEY'S PICK
Some time ago at a baseball gathering a heated debate arose as to who might be the greatest outfielder—Ty Cobb or Tris Speaker.

"The greatest player I have ever known (and I've seen most of all of them) sits here." He slapped Willie Keeler on the shoulder.

"You may have your Cobbs and your Wagners and your Lajoies. I grant them all wonderfully great. But Willie Keeler is his heyday for mine. There was a man who knew what to do with a bat. He could make a base runner out of a truck horse. He always protected the runner. And scientific? Say, there wasn't anything he couldn't do with the stick. He'd bluff the infield in, then tap the ball somewhere over their heads. He could hit to any field on any kind of ball pitched within reach. And when the outfield played back in their regular positions he could drop a bunt and beat it ninety-nine times in a hundred. He had the swinging bunt down to a science and could pull the ball past the pitcher toward the second baseman every clip.

"There has been only one Keeler. He was the greatest of them all." Not one other of the old Orioles, save Keeler himself, denied the bold statement. And the Orioles are nobody's "yes" men. If they had not agreed with Kelley the presence of Keeler would not have deterred them from expressing dissent.

MARYSVILLE TO HAVE CAGE GAME

Marysville, Pa., Dec. 28.—Extensive preparations are being made by the management of the recently organized Marysville basketball team for its opening game in the Municipal building cage on Thursday evening, January 2. Almost a score of candidates are working out hard every evening under the direction of Harry Heisley, a former Albright College player.

At the opening game next week the fast moving Enhaut quintet will be the attraction. This team has been moving at a fast clip this season and promises to provide some first-class sport.

Probable Lineup
Present indications are that when the whistle blows for the opening

TENTATIVE DATES FOR BIG LEAGUES

Phillies Start Season at Home; Athletics to Play First Game at Boston

Philadelphia, Dec. 28.—Although the schedule committees of the National and American Leagues probably will not meet until after the session of the National Commission January 7, the cities to be favored with opening games have been selected. The Phillies will start the ball rolling with the Boston Braves as opponents. The Giants, National League champions, will have the honor of opening the regular season in New York on April 16, having as opponents the Brooklyn club. Other pairings for this date in the National League will be Pittsburgh at Cincinnati and Chicago at St. Louis.

American League
In the American League the Yankees will help Clark Griffith's Senators pry off the lid in Washington, with the Athletics opening on the same day at the home park of the Boston Red Sox. The St. Louis Browns will draw a high price for opposing the White Sox at Comiskey Park in the first game of the Chicago club plays at home as world's champions. The Tigers will start the season with their old rival at Cleveland.

On April 25 the Yankees will make their first home appearance under Miller Huggins' management, with Washington furnishing the opposition. Brooklyn will entertain the champion Giants in the opening at Flatbush on the same day. The Giants will be at Pittsburgh on June 4, while the Yankees will have Memorial Day and Labor Day at the Polo Grounds.

Gettysburg Schedule Has Fifteen Games

Gettysburg, Pa., Dec. 28.—Coach Leathers had the candidates for the basketball team working hard for several weeks prior to the Christmas vacation. Captain George Baker and L. K. Scheffer are the only two letter men on the squad from last year's successful team.

"Wells, a letter man of two years ago, who was ineligible last year, is out for the team and will likely be found at his old guard position. Herman and Campbell, two substitutes of last year, are fighting for one of the forward positions. Zeigler, of the freshman class, is showing up well at guard. The serious problem is to get a satisfactory center. There are plenty of candidates, but no one so far has done consistent work.

Regular practice will be resumed at the opening of college January 3 to prepare for the opening game. The following is the complete schedule: January 9, Western Maryland, at home; 16, Mount St. Mary's, at home; 18, Bucknell, away; 19, Lebanon Valley, away; 25, Ursinus, home; 30, Albright, home; February 9, Franklin and Marshall, away; 16, Mount St. Mary's, away; 20, Indiana, away; 23, Franklin and Marshall, home; 28, Bucknell, home; March 7, Ursinus, away; 8, Temple University, away; 9, Albright, away; 13, Indiana, home.

Harrisburg Boy Reaches France With Engineers

tossup Lightner and E. Roberts will be found at forwards; Herman at center, and Sheaffer and J. Roberts at the guard positions.

Manager Chester S. Sheaffer still has some open dates on his schedule, which he is desirous of filling. Managers of amateur teams should get into communication with him at their earliest convenience.

PITTSBURGH TO PLAY AT CAMPS
Plans Under Way For Early Season Exhibition Games With Major Teams

Pittsburgh, Dec. 28.—If plans which Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club, is now working on mature, the officers and men stationed at various cantonments in the South will have an opportunity to witness a series of exhibition games between the Pirates and an American League club, yet to be selected. These games, which are almost certain to be arranged, will give the men in khaki the last glimpse of two major league teams in action that many of them will have for a long time, and in addition will, Dreyfuss believes, do a great deal to aid the movement to organize teams and leagues among the soldiers on a sound basis.

The tour was suggested by Army officials, who broached the subject to the Smoky City magnate recently. Anxious to do something in his power to help entertain the fighting men, Dreyfuss instantly acquiesced and began to lay his plans. He opened negotiations with one or two American League clubs, and it is expected that within a day or two an announcement will be made of the route which the teams will take.

A delay in the completion of the plans has been caused by the failure of the Pittsburgh club to secure a training camp for 1918. A number of towns in Florida have put in bids for the team, and "Cap" Neale, the Pittsburgh scout, now in the South looking over these camp sites which appear most promising. He will be joined by Manager Hugo Bezdek in the near future, and upon Bezdek will rest the choice of the town to be favored by the presence of the Corsairs. As soon as it is definitely decided, the team will train the proposed tour will be mapped out in all its details.

Incidentally it is reported from Pittsburgh that a number of deals for players are brewing there. Bezdek, who now is in California, is to start for Pittsburgh within a day or two for the purpose of closing the deals. No intimation is given as to what players are included in the calculations of the Pirate president and manager.

SCHOOL BOARD OFFICERS
Blain, Pa., Dec. 28.—The Jackson township school board was reorganized by electing the following officers: President, George Anderson; vice-president, Alton D. Neldigh; secretary, Harry O. Hench, and treasurer, David E. Book. The other member of the board is Harry W. Gutshall.

PLAN SHORTER GRID SEASON

Conferences Last Night and Today Are Important to College World

New York, College athletic conditions, in view of the war, will be considered at the twelfth annual meeting here to-day of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, which will face probably the most momentous situation of its history. Reports from all sections of the country will be presented, and the prospects for a continuation of intercollegiate sport discussed. The main items of considerable degree, it is expected, by advice from high government officials on the relation of college athletics to war service.

Among the addresses to be delivered are:

Timely Topics
"Athletics for the Service of the Nation," W. H. Faunce, president of Brown University; "Athletics and General Efficiency," G. E. Vincent, president of General Education Board; "Recreative Games and Competitive Athletics in Military Training Camps," Dr. J. E. Raycroft, member War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities.

These addresses will be followed by discussion on "What More Can the Colleges Do to Win the War?" As a forerunner of the annual convention of the National Collegiate Association, the Graduate Managers Association met last night to consider recommendations vital to intercollegiate sport during the war. One proposal given consideration was the curtailment of the football schedules for next summer, especially the pre-season games.

Peck Joins Artillery; All-American Center

Philadelphia, Dec. 28.—Albert D. "Fighting Bob" Peck, All-American center and captain of Pittsburgh's great football team in 1916, has enlisted in the Indiana Field Artillery, and expects to go to France in the near future.

"I always had a hankering for artillery work," he said recently, "and I welcome the chance to get into my favorite branch of the service. I hope we go to France shortly, and I believe we will, as there need inter-lymen over there, I am told."

Peck coached the Culver Military Academy eleven this fall, and turned out a team that won all its games with one exception. The Culver lads appreciated Peck's fine work, and when he left to join his battery presented him with a handsome Swiss watch.

Rosewood Wins Easy Victory at Carlisle

Rosewood had an easy time at Carlisle last night, winning over the Tocarso team, score 51 to 20. The game was played on the Carlisle Y. M. C. A. floor. Rosewood players outclassed their opponents. The line up and summary follows:

Rosewood: Lingle, f. Hart, f. G. Killinger, f. Todd, c. Devine, g. E. Killinger, g. Pittinger, g. Little, f. Field goals, E. Killinger, 2; Foreman, 1; Todd, 1; Pittinger, 1; Foul goals, Lingle, 5; Minich, 6; Devine, 1. Referee, Durant, Indian school.

WELLY'S CORNER

On Wednesday the Garnet five will take a trip to Marietta. This time they will meet an all-star five and it means another hard battle. The Lancaster team recently defeated the Reading Olivets by a score of 33 to 27. The Garnets will have to go some to win.

If Jess Willard fights and wins, his championship title will be his for a long time to come. Just now Fulton is the only available opponent in the field. If Fulton wins out he will also be alone in the teams down about like a strenuous dig up another white hope.

According to reports from Ohio and Maryland boxing bouts are loosely conducted in those states. It is said the violations are becoming so numerous that the sport is threatened to see an early elimination. Why fight promoters are unable to keep things going on the square is a question difficult to answer.

The coming week will find Central, Tech and Steelton scholastic teams doing a bit of work. At present writing it looks like a strenuous season for all teams. Indications are that the winner will not be picked until the final game is played.

That Rosewood is going to put up a hard fight against the Independents Saturday night is shown in the daily work by this all-star aggregation. Rosewood players put up an interesting exhibition in all games. Their work is clean cut.

Baseballs are going to cost more next season than they have in the past, according to dealers in sporting goods. One dealer said the regulation baseball used by the big leagues which has been selling for $1.25 will cost $1.50 next season. Other sporting goods, including golf clubs, footballs, gold balls and tennis rackets, also will be advanced in price from 15 to 25 per cent, it was said.

The British-Canadian recruiting mission in Chicago yesterday issued an official appeal to baseball players to enlist because of their natural adaptability to grenade throwing. "Baseball players can do better at grenade throwing than any other men," says a bulletin issued by the mission. Why fight promoters are unable to keep things going on the square is a question difficult to answer.
