Public exercises will be held and the speaker will be the Rev. Harry Daniel, of Sinnamahoning, Cameron county, who is state chaplain of the P. O. S. of A.

Temperance People Fail in Running Hotel With Profit

Middleburg, Pa., Dec. 27.—Jerome Kerstetter, of Fremont, who recently bought the Middleburg inn, is circulating a petition for signers for a liquor license. The Middleburg inn was formerly known as the Washington House, and two years ago this well-known hostelry was purchased by the Temperance Workers of Middleburg, and was conducted as a dry house in a very satisfactory way to its patrons and the people of Middleburg. But the temperance people not making a large rate of interest on their investment, evidently they thought it would be better to offer the place for sale, and endanger it to the liquor traffic, and the building was sold at public sale in October. A remonstrance will be filed against granting the license.
