Price Per Bushel For Coal Is Not Fixed

The Dauphin County Fuel Commission fixed no prices for coal to be sold in small quantities, at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon. It was found that a scale of prices for coal by the bushel or even smaller quantities, is not necessary at the present time. Only one dealer has been reported as gouging the public by fixing exorbitant prices for small quantities, and he has been warned. His case is still under investigation by the board.

The fuel commission yesterday found that the fuel situation in the city at the present time is fairly good. All the dealers have coal, although not all sizes. Where the dealers were found without coal yesterday, they reported that coal was on the way. Ross A. Hickok, fuel administrator, said that a close watch will be kept on fuel conditions, to see that the supply does not run so low as to cause suffering.

Husband 48, Wife 44, Have Family of 16

Fisher, Minn.—Feder Anderson, farmer of the township of Byland, in this county, owns a seven-passenger auto, which, even when loaded to normal capacity, only carries about one-third of his family. Another seven-passenger car and a four seater are needed by him if no one is to be left at home. Anderson is the father of sixteen living children. The youngest, a daughter, arrived last week and has been christened Marie. There have been eighteen children in all, but two are dead. The oldest, a son, was 21 on June 30 last. There are no twins or triplets in the family. The mother will be 44 on January 25, 1918. The father is 48. Anderson has 237 acres of land, worth $100 an acre, and can do all his farming without help outside of the family circle.

Says Any Woman Can Dress on $300 a Year

Chicago.—"Same Dressy Statistics," issued by the Chicago Designers' Association, insist that "any woman can dress for any position in society on $300 a year." The article makes an allowance of $30 for furs, $5 for one corset, $30 for one party dress and $25 for "three or four hats."

Draws Lots in Camp to Go Home to Wed; Loses

Vineland, N. J.—When Earl Turner, son of Captain Walter E. Turner, and Miss Miriam Troost planned to be married on Christmas day, the young soldier understood that he was to have a leave of absence from Camp McClellan, Ala., but at the last minute was disappointed. There being several men in camp who wanted to go home to be married it was proposed to draw lots for the coveted privilege. Turner lost and it is probable that Miss Troost will go to Alabama and have a camp wedding.

SUFFERED WITH CONSTIPATION AND STOMACH TROUBLE

"Was Irritable---Eyes Burned --- Felt Sleepy"

Says Mr. R. French, 311 Adams St., Steelton, "after eating would fill up with gas and this caused pains about the heart, my stomach never felt right, I was troubled a lot with headaches. When I awoke in the morning I felt sore all over, my eyes burned and were swollen, I felt all trockered out and often during the day was sleepy and drowsy. "My head and throat were clogged up and I could not reason clearly. This made me irritable and every little task looked big. I tried all the advertised medicines, but nothing helped, I finally made up my mind to take one more chance, and to my surprise I was straightened out in quick time. Sanpan is the medicine that did it." Sanpan is being introduced at Keller's Drug Store, 405 Market St.
