FIRE DAMAGES WHITE'S STORE

Big Blage in Diamond Square at Marysville Early This Morning; This City Aids

Marysville, Pa., Dec. 28.—Fire, starting in the elevator shaft near the third floor of J. E. White's store, in Diamond square, early this morning completely gutted the building.

In the left above the third floor of the building was stored a large quantity of tobacco, matches, mattresses and other articles. When the flames reached this part of the building it blazed fiercely.

Soon after the local firemen arrived, which was about 1 o'clock, an appeal for help was sent to Harrisburg. The Friendship and Washington chemical trucks, in charge of Assistant Chief Marion Verbeke, responded.

The loss to building and stock is placed by Mr. White at $20,000.

NEWS AND NOTES OF BOY SCOUTS

AN ALL STAR FOOTBALL TEAM

Two Scout Organizations Are Picked by Athletic Committee For Good Players

By the Games Committee, Troop 6

It is an extremely hard task to pick an all star football team from the troops of the city, as only three troops have played games, and some of these boys who played were not registered scouts, and can't be chosen for the team.

Everyone has their favorite, and in the face of this, the team may not seem just to everyone.

We picked for Right End, Seighman, of Troop 11. He is the smallest player on the team but stands out in any end in defensive work.

For a mate to Seighman we have chosen Seigel of Troop 6, for Left End. He is only a shade poorer than Seighman in defensive work and is the best offensive end in scout ranks.

We choose Eric of Troop 19 for Left Guard. He is very heavy, being close to 200 pounds and it is his reason when a play gains through him.

For Right Guard we choose Underover of Troop 6. He is another heavy boy and also a runner. He is quick to make a hole in a line and is always through and breaking up the other side's plays.

At Quarterback we place Zimmerman, of Troop 6. He is the largest back in the field general and also a good open field runner, and a sure tackler.

For Right Halfback we picked Hamer of Troop 13. He is a good line plunker, and a good man on the defense.

At Left Halfback we placed Gault of Troop 6. He is the largest back in the field man and is a fine line plunker and is good on receiving forward passes.

For Fullback we choose Haehnlen of Troop 6. He is a good line plunker and an open field runner, and would handle the kicking and forward passing. He is in every play and is a sure tackler.

Emmanuel W. Weidman, who played with Troop 2, would be picked for the team, but they are not registered scouts.

We must not forget to call attention to the members of the second team. All of whom have played excellent ball, and deserve credit for their work.

Use McNeil's Pain Exterminator—Ad. "It Helped Me So Much" She Exclaims. Miss Laura Kinsey, Our Popular Dressmaker, Tells How Health Was Restored.

SAYS TANLAC IS WONDERFUL. "I can't begin to tell you how miserable I was before I began taking that wonderful medicine, Tanlac," says Miss Laura Kinsey, the well-known dressmaker, of London street, Reading, Pa. "I was pretty much run down, though I don't show it much because I would build, and I used to give me all kinds of trouble. I was continually bloated with gas and my food didn't seem to nourish me at all. I suffered a great deal of distress."

"I read in the papers about a number of people who had been relieved by Tanlac and that led me to try it, and I must say that now I am proud to recommend it, for it helped me right off. "I am better now in every way than I have been for a long time, even my nerves seem stronger and I give all the credit for my recovery to Tanlac." Tanlac, the famous reconstructive tonic, is now being introduced here at Gorgas Drug Store, where the Tanlac man is meeting the people and explaining the merits of this master medicine.

Tanlac is also sold at the Gorgas Drug Store in the P. R. R. Station; in Carlisle at W. G. Stephens' Pharmacy; Elizabethtown, Albert W. Cain; Greencastle, Charles B. Carl; Middletown, Colin S. Frew's Pharmacy; Warfordsburg, Clarence Croft's Pharmacy; Mechanicsburg, H. F. Brunhouse.—Advt.

Scouting Notes

By J. H. STINE

We now welcome into our midst another troop of Scouts. They hail from the Ridge Avenue Methodist Church and will be known by the title of Troop Twenty-One. The church has given the boys access to one of the finest rooms for scout meetings that there is in Harrisburg; the scout leaders are capable and efficient; the boys are a fine lot; and from all appearances will make one of the crack troops of Harrisburg in a short time.

Two more of our scout leaders have gone to the war. They are C. B. Romig and J. H. Keller, assistant scoutmasters of Troop 18, and they leave in a few days for Columbus Barracks (Ohio), where they will join a detachment of the signal corps of the United States Regular Army. Scoutmaster Garfield McAllister, who left last week to enter Army Y. M. C. A. work is now located at Camp Sevier, Greenville, South Carolina, where the National Guard troops of Tennessee, the Carolinas, and part of the District of Columbia are encamped.

The scouts who have been serving as assistants to the Red Cross Motor Messengers put in a busy time during recently given headquarters by Mrs. Hummel, Captain of the Messengers. More than a hundred parcels and packages were collected and delivered from all parts of the city. The boys have worked about thirty hours on this assignment.

The next indoor rally for all of the scouts of the city is scheduled for January 14th. The program will be shaped up in a few days and will be announced in advance so that troops may be practicing some of the stunts. It is quite likely that the "Over the Top" relay race will be one of the many events. This is said to be a very lively stunt.

Weather Conditions Keep Troop Tightly Housed. Owing to weather conditions, Troop 2 has had no outdoor work. Monday's meeting was very successful, having a full turnout. After the meeting a small rally was held and a good many scout games were played. The troop has not succeeded in getting a floor for the basketball team to practice on and has therefore been unable to pick the team. The troop has progressed so rapidly that the meeting nights have been changed from Monday, Wednesday and Friday to Monday and Wednesday.

The troop passed a motion that the scribe should write a letter of thanks to former Scoutmaster Rockman for his work in organizing the troop, and that report of the troop's activities be sent to him every month. He is now at Camp Johnson, Jacksonville, Fla. Every scout must know the knots and the two-arm semaphore code at the next meeting. F. Fishman, Scribe.

Troop 4 Hard Hit by War Demand For Men

Several weeks ago Troop 4's assistant scoutmaster took up work for the Government, also our scoutmaster left us on account of taking up Y. M. C. A. work at Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. A. This is rather discouraging, as it leaves us without a leader, but Troop 4 will not give up.

Several of the patrol leaders have had patrol meetings to carry on the troop's business. We expect to have another assistant scoutmaster soon.

We are holding Mr. McAllister's place open until his return. Troop 4 has a box with a slot in the top. In this box all the fines for being disorderly at meetings are kept. The box is opened at the meeting before Xmas and the money divided between the four patrol leaders. These scouts go to the Associated Aids Society and get the name of some poor boy. Then they buy suitable things, such as clothing, mittens, toys, candy and fruit. On Xmas eve the patrols meet and take around the presents.

Troop 4 expects to hold soon their seventh anniversary banquet of the organization of the troop. Henry E. Klugh, Jr., Scout Scribe.
