HARRISBURG

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS TELL ENGAGEMENT REPEAT CANTATA Well-Known Nurse Stricken in Midst of Red Cross Work Marysville Lodges Ousted Social and Personal Items AT INFORMAL TEA TOMORROW NIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Stark Announce Choirs of Olivet and Imman-Engagement of Daughter, Miss Mary Stark

MISS. MARY STARK

and Mrs. Wilton A. Stark, of 236 Kelker street, announce the enagement of their daughter, Miss lary Stark, to John E. Carroll, of announcement was made at informal tea given this after noon om 2 until 5 o'clock, by Miss Stark nniss, of Dennoore Park, Baltimore, d.; Miss Jeannette Sherry, of nring City, Pa., and Miss Marie arroll, of Altoona. vas one of the prettiest of

The engagement of Miss Stark routh, assisted Miss Stark to pour. The engagement of Miss Stark or the wedding. oliday events, with attractive intments of the seasons' greens

Carroll, a son of Mr. and Mrs arroll, of Altoona, is a grad the 1915 class of Penn-Stat spector of material. The bridge-elect is the only daugh-r of Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Stark, of 6 Kelker street. She is a graduate the Central High school in the ass of 1915, and one of the most nular gris in school activities as

Sunday Musicales Begin

Frederick C. Martin will inaugu-tate the winter series of Sunday mu-icales to-morrow afternoon at his residence. Front and Lewis streets, Riverside, with the following de-ghtful Chopin program, beginning t 3.30 o'clock: Six Etudes Op. 10, 1 to 6, Arthur esbit; three songs from Op. 17, The Maiden's Wish," "Elegy," "My yys," Miss Mary Worley; six Etudes to 12, Op. 10, Arthur Nesbit; three ngs from Op 74, "My Beloved," Liltuanian Song," "The Homecom-ig." Miss Worley: concerts in F ss Worley; concerts in F Dp. 21, Arthur Nesbit; 2d F. C. Martin.

Miss Helen Irwin and Charles illiams, of Philadelphia, have re-rned home after visiting Mr. and rs. Charles Irwin, of 2128 Green

William Whitmeyer, of Renovo, is e guest of Jay Skinner, of 203 Kel-reet. s Katharine Martin, a trained of Frederick, Md., is spending time with her parents, Mr. and Chomas Martin, Colonial Acres. Mary Martin, a nurse in at the Providence Hospital, gton, D. C., has returned to duties after spending the Christ ays with her parents, Mr. Thomas Martin, Colonial and Mrs. Charles Harrison Ellsworth Parthemore Bai Parthemore, of Bethesda, visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. more, 1923 Derry street, oral Harry D. Wilson, son d Mrs. H. B. Wilson her house guest Miss Ivy Davis, of Trenton, N. J.

uel Churches to Again Sing "The Light Eternal"

Henry Petrie's beautiful cantata "The Light Eternal" sung so successlast Sunday evening to a fully last Sunday evening to a capacity audience in the Olivet Presbyterian Church will be repeated to-morrow evening at 7.30 o'clock in the Immanuel 'Church by the choirs of both churches directed by D. Hammond and R. B. Manley, Members of the Olivet choir singing are: Miss Miriam Himes, Mrs. J. Henry Steele, Mrs. Roscoe Bowman, Miss Gertrude Huber, Miss Effie Blouch, Miss Helen Gable, Miss Mary Huber, Carlton Donmover, Charles Hoover, Ralph B. Manley, Cameron Stamm, Miller Bricker, John Gates, J. A. McDonald. Those of the Immanuel choir are: Miss Lillian Speakman, Miss Agnes Miller, Mrs. H. D. Hammond, Mrs. George Vint, Mrs. Wosher, Mrs. Joseph Rehn, Mrs. Violet Bolan, Miss Elizabeth Workman, Mrs. John Myers, Miss Evelyn Speakman, Miss Clara Bitner, Frank Witherow, Douglas Andrews, George Wirt, cello, Dr. Strasbach; first violin, Dr. J. Moore Campbell; second violins, Paul Beck and Earl Unger. Carlton Donmover, tenor, songs: "It Speaks to the Workman sings with much expression the contralto solo, "The Dawning." Miss Miriam Himes takes the soprano solo, "Angel Voices," with great expression. The capacity audience in the Olivet Pres-

MRS. STANLEY BACKENSTOSS

Mrs. Stanley G. Backenstoss, of the Hillside Apartments, was operat ed upon yesterday for appendicitis at the Polyclinic Hospital, Front and Harris streets.

Mrs. Backenstoss, wn in this city, is an alumna of Methodist Episcopal Hospital, in adelphia, and is at present await an ardent worker of the le is an ardent worker of the il Red Cross Chapter. It was le in the midst of her duties for Red Cross that she was stricken a chronic attack of appendicitis, was at the time soliciting mem-s in the recent drive of the chapt as the chairman in charge of the b et able Deadline tetrico he soprano solo, "A with great expression. "Born in a Manger.

bass solo, "Born in a Manger," by Cameron Stamm deserves special mention, also the trio, "Star of Bethlehem," which will be sung by Miss Lillian Speakman, soprano, Carlton Donmoyer, tenor, H. D. Hammond, baritone. The cantata comes to a fitting finale by the won-derful chorus "Lead Me Eternal Light." booth at the Reading station.

Cupid Claims Sisters Just at Holiday Time

Yesterday J. Fred Bowers, of 1540 Derry street, announced the engage-

For Various Club Members

The largest dance of the holiday eason will be that of the Triangle bub to be given New Year's eve, The largest dance of the holiday season will be that of the Triangle Club, to be given New Year's eve, Channie P. Bowers, was married at balk onday, December 31, in Winter-dale hall. A large attendance is ex-pected judging from the number of acceptances received to date. This is an annual affair of the club and one of the most successful of their social doings. The Updegrove orches-tota has been engaged to play for the many dancers who will include many ne from the well as the regular mem holiday town after January 15

The stageneral involves allows the segure at the colonial country for the series of Sunday multes to make y low for the colonial Country to the winter series of Sunday multes to morrow afternoon at his dence, Front and Lewis streets, ensited to the updegrove orchestra plays dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery orchestra plays dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery or chestra plays dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery or chestra plays dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery or chestra plays dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery or chestra plays dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery or chestra plays dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery or chestra plays dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery dance has been atranged to New Year's dance has been atranged to New Year's dance has been atranged to New Year's night, January 1, for the discovery dance has been atranged to New Year's dance Hancock, Ga., spent Christmas with his wife, at 2118 Green street. Mr and Mrs. Walter Gordon and small daughter, Alice, of Lynch-burg, Va., are guests of their rela-tives, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Smith, of North Third street. Miss Ellen Kennedy has gone home to Pittsburgh, after a brief stay among relatives in the West End. on, Miss Helen Wallace, Miss a Segelbaum, Miss Katherine dleton, Robert Sites, Harry nard, William Eby, George hne, Richard Robinson, Harry Stubbs, Arch Botts, Dr. Harry M. tine, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Warry Robin rs. Arthur Harry Rol lbert Aller Delm d Mrs and Mrs. Alb Delmotte, Witman, iss Mary Fisher, of Steelton, is ding a week with friends in

, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Allen, Mr. 1 Mrs. Harry D. Delmoite, Mr. 1 Mrs. W. Frank Witman, Mr. 1 Mrs. Lewis F. Haehnlen, Mr. 1 Mrs. Anson P. Dare, Mr. and s. Rodsecker Brinser, Mr. and s. Roy G. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. W. rry Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bass, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Dompson, Mr. and Mrs. James C. ponpson, Mr. and Mrs. Jahr, of neannon; Mr. and Mrs. Hart, of neannon; Mr. and Mrs. Hart, Stream, Mrs. Charles S. Horannon; Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. A. M. Aurand, Jr., Beaver Springs, spending the weekend in Harris-irg. Mr. Aurand is editor of the byder county Herald. Spangler, Sunbury, visited here last week. Elizabeth F. Taylor, McCon-urg, is visiting Harrisburg s over the weekend.

r, Mr. and Mrs. Lane S. Hart, of heannon; Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. len, Dr. and Mrs. William J. Mid-ton, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Del-ater, Mr. and Mrs. William Dar-kery, Mr. and Mrs. William Dar-, Mr. and Mrs. Claud A. Binser, I Mr. and Mrs. William H. Nell, Steelton. iends over the weekend. The Misses Mary Fuhrman, Wil-imsport, and Bertha Douglas, auphin, are visiting Miss Goldie ouglas, 253 North Fourth street. Mrs. Laura Wolfinger Shannon, of Dauphin, Douglas, 2253 North Mrs. Laura Wolfinger Shan Altoona, a former resident city, arrived yesterday for an city, arrived yesterday for an city, arrived yesterday for ed visit with friends and reli-ed visit with friends and reli-ties city and vicinity. of this of Steelton and relatives in

Mrs. David Shelby and Miss Amalie Shelby, of Washington, D. C., are weekend guests of Mr. and Samuel Etter, of 1515 Derry street, as a recent visitor with relatives

From Quarters by Fire of Towns Along West Shore Marysville, Pa., Dec. 29.—Loss in the White store fire yesterday will not run as heavy as at first thought. While no accurate statement has yet been compiled, it is not believed that it will exceed $15,000. Most of this is covered by insurance. As a result of this fire, a number of secret orders will be obliged to Mr. and Mrs. John Spangler and son Curtis Spangler, of Wellsville, and Mrs. Emma Kessler, son, Wil-liam Kessler, of York, were enter-tained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Miller, at Shiremanstown.

As a result of this fire, a number of secret orders will be obliged to find new quarters, temporarily at least. Included among these are: Blue Mountain Lodge No. 694, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; Lady Maccabees, Belle of Blue Mountain Lodge, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; Patriotic Order of Amer-icas, Patriotic Order Sons of Amer-icas, Modern Woodmen of America, Improved Order of Foresters and Improved Order of For the Odd Fellows. Some of the fra ernal orders will find temporary uarters in the castle of Buehler Lodge No. 269, Knights of Pythias.

ARRANGING FOR CHAUTAUQUA Marysville, Pa., Dec. 29.—The autauqua in Marysville this win-by the Swarthmore Winter Chau-iqua Association will be given on nuary 31 and February 1 and 2.

ld within a short time when ther arrangements for the event be made. This meeting will likely be held on Monday, January 7.

WEEK OF PRAYER SERVICES Marysville, Pa., Dec. 29.-Exten-sive arrangements are being made by the five Marysville churches for by the five Marysville churches for the usual week of prayer which will be hold alternately in the several churches next week. The services will open on Monday evening and continue until Friday evening. Mon-day evening's service will be held in Trinity Reformed Church, with the Rev. Wesley Wright, the new pastor of the Church of God, as the speaker.

SERIES OF MEETINGS Enola, Pa., Dec. 29.—The Rev. F. Grant Sleep, pastor of the Methodist Church, will open a series of evan-gelistic meetings in the church to-norrow evaning Services will be morrow evening. Services will be held Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Sunday evenings. The revival will continue for at least a month. The quarterly communion will also be observed at both serv-loss to a communication of the service of ment of his daughter, Miss Ellen F. Bowers, to D. H. Flanagan, of Beth-lehem, a graduate of Girard College, ices to-morrow. and an employe of the Bethlehem

DORCAS SOCIETY MASQUERADE Marysville, Pa., Dec. 29.—On Thursday evening members of the Dorcas Society of the local Lutheran Church attended a masquerade at teel Company. Later in the day Mr. Bowers ma Church attended a masquerade a the homes of Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bitting, in South Main street. Re-freshments were served.

Mrs. Claster Entertains

For New York Visitor of the prettiest of holiday was the tea given yesterday moon by Mrs. Joseph Claster, Sec-and Briggs streets, in compliment r houseguest, Mrs. Solomon, of York City. The tea was delight-informal and a goodly number rs. Claster's friends had the utiful roses of several varieties id the house in baskets and and graced the teatable where laster poured, assisted by Mrs. Shapiro, of L lle Claster and

Thrills Younger Soldiers

Forsier street, entertained at dinner on Christmas Day, in honor of their hephew, Corporal Fabian T. Bumgard-ner, Company B, 316th Infantry, Camp Meade, Md., who spent a four-days furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Humgardner. Among the Meade, Md., who spent a four-days' in g a ten-day furlough at his how furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Bumgardner. Among the bas returned to Camp Hanco Sheriff Hoover, of Locat Haven, a member of the famous Bucktail Regi-ne for the famous Bucktail Regi-ber of the famous Bucktail Regi-to Civil War fame. The sheriff wonderfully interesting stories of Civil War times.

Hetzel, of Lewisburg, and Miss Clive Barnett, of Markleton.

NEW YEAR'S AT MANSION NEW YEAR'S AT MANSION The Governor and Mrs. Martin Grove Brumbaugh will be "At Home" at the Executive Mansion Tuesday afternoon, January 1, from 4 to 6 o'clock, keeping the usual New Year's "open house." No invi-tations are issued and all reputable Pennsylvania citizens have the privi-lege of greeting the chief executive of the state at this time and meeting.

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE WITH EMPEY WEST SHORE NEWS By Arthur Guy Empey

around his head. He had removed them upon reaching port. We felt a pang of regret as he faded out of next afternoon at eight bells I I in New York, free again. I

Mrs. Richard Baker, of York, vis-ited Mrs. R. E. Wolfe, at Shire-manstown, on Wednesday.

manstown, on Wednesday. Mrs. Isaac McKonly and daughter, Miss Eliza McKonly, of Shiremans-ited Mrs. R. E. Wolfe, at Shire-manstown, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Isaac McKonly and daughter, Miss Eliza McKonly, of Shiremans-town, spent Christmas with Mr, and Mrs. Delbert Meloy, at Boiling Springs.
Mrs. Scott Brinton son Charles, of Shiremanstown, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barlup, at Camp Hill, on Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Millam W. Braught in Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. J. Henderson, Stock of Shiremanstown, were en-tertained at dinner Christmas Dath Mrs. Mary Drawbaugh and son, Russell, have returned to their home at Trinile Spring, after visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Noah R. Heikes, at Shiremanstown.
Mrs. H. M. Rupp and Miss Jennie
Mrs. H. M. Rupp and view, spent Friday, at Harrisburg. Clyde Luse and son, Robert, of West Fairview, spent a day at Har-risburg. Kenneth Bidlack, of Marysville, and Mrs. Eli Ponesmith, at West Fairview. John Blair, of West Fairview, what as been the spent and son, of West Fairview, spent a day in Har-Mrs. George Rhiver and son, of West Fairview, spent a day in Har-again. Mrs. George Rhiver and son, of West Fairview ,spent a day in Harills Younger Soldiers With Civil War Tales and Mrs. E. L. Hoover, 1721 or street, entertained at dinner iristmas Day, in honor of their w, Corporal Fabian T. Bumgard-M. who spent a four-days M. who spent a four-days

ing a tert-day furlough at his home, in Fourth street, New Cumberland, has returned to Camp Hancock, Vork the witner-Boas weeking, Mon-evening, are: Pay Director of the l, of Washimeres Marks, John N. and Mrs. Richard M. Cha landed in New York, free again. I rough. In passing through City Hall Park, A short motor run from alls, barefooted, a Panama hat on my head, black as a negro from sun of the human race sitting on the burn, a red handkerchief around my benches. I sat down between two bers at Wormleysburg. Miss_Ida Sweger, of Wormleys-burg, has returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Sweger at Harris-burg. Mrs. R. E. Schrack and daughter

ing friends at Columbia. g Irlends at Columbia. Mrs. Samuel Barr and daughter ary, of Harrisburg, and Miss Doro Yetter, of Lebanon, were guests Mrs. George Hoover at Worm

$1 bit Aug. Mr. and Mrs. Fever Rhinehart, of Enola, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Rhinehart, at Wormleysburg on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Sweger, of Har-ris burg, and Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Lau, of Washington, D. C., were guests of Sweger at Worm-$1 $1

$

$1

$1 $1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1 $1 $1 $1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1 $1

d

(Continued) neck, and wearing a white negligee of these wrecks of humanity and en-shirt. On my left shoulder I had a gaged them in conservation, trying guano at Lobas, a wooden cage with a parrot in it. About ten minutes later a police-the Fourth Engl-iner had gone on a shooting trip and killed several huge pelicans. He Skinned these and gave me cage terra firma with the Stars and Stripes floating above me. I received a wonderful welcome at home, and was of the opinion that the hardships of my cruise were well worth enduring, in view of the recep-tion 1 was receiving. But of course all wonders die out in nine days, and mine sizzled out like a wet firecracker on the Fourth of July, and it was up to me to get busy and find something to do. This ended my First Real Adven-ture. It was in -1914, I ar young lady, but it soon died out

The state and more christmas Day Mitheward and the ventilous and while year of the province of th

THE SCHOOL OF S P A N I S H

5 F A N I 5 H will open the following classes fol-B E G I N N E R S' Spanish Graumar ... 6.45 Spanish Conversation. 7.30 SECOND AND STATE STREET: FRIDAY, JANUARY 4, 1018. Mrs. McVin Menges, Instructor

LAUREL HOUSE

LAKEWOOD, N. J.

First class American Plan Hote

short motor run from Camp D

$1 $1 $1 $1 $1 $1

$1 $1

$1 $1

$1

$1 $1 $1 $1 $1

$1 $1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1

$1 $1

$1 $1

$1

$1

lar young lady,

teen cents. At two o'clock I reported back and with seventy-two others wai herded like cattle, and in a long straggling line, flanked by three o the employees of the Agency, we marched to the ferry and lander. "somewhere in New Jersey." (Copyright, 1917, by The McClur-Newsmaner Syndicate) around his head. He had removed carefully all details as contained them upon reaching port. We felt therein. A pang of regret as he faded out of sight. After an uneventful trip we went into quarantine in New York Harbor. At the first sight of the Statue of Dational Statue of No — Greenwich Street. Ship as Liberty a rush of independence and patriotism surged through me, and i sat down on the hatchway and abso-lutely refused to work. The Captain our interview, making careful note threatened to put me in double irons, of all details immediately after hap-I told-him to go to hell, and do it; protection of the Stars and Stripes, and in accordance with my rights as a sailor. I demanded the foremast. Constructions and put on my oldest. [To be Continued.]

Stratford House East 22nd Street by 5th Avenue NEW YORK A new fireproof hotel, most onveniently located. Two ave-ue blocks from Pennsylvania nue blocks fro R. R. Terminal. Single Rooms and Suites Permanent-Transient also the new Goldfish Restaurant Smart and refined William S. O'Brien. Pres.

dividual efforts.

Prosperity.

1918

The Peace and Prosperity that we wish for our Nation during the coming year can only come through our in-

By helping the Government in saving food and money-or in any other way-we take steps to assure that Peace and Dauphin Deposit Trust Co.

 of Washington, D. C., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sweger at Worm-leysburg on Wednesday.
 Miss Frances Myers, of Harris-burg, visited Miss Ruth Myers at wormleysburg yesterday.
 Mrs. Frank Evans, of Harrisburg, was the guest of her sisters, Misses Elizabeth and Edna Eckert, at Wormleysburg, on Thursday.
 Mrs. Annie Knier, of Overview, and Mrs. Frank Korrett, of Harris-burg, were guests of Mrs. H. G.
 Knier, at Wormleysburg, yesterday.
 Miss Margaret Jenkins and Miss Margaret Schaffstall and Miss Margaret Schaffstall and Miss Margues at Canp Hill.
 Casius Kennedy has returned to his home at Marysville, et relatives at Canp Hill.
 Casius Kennedy has returned to his home an Marysville, at York.
 The Rev. Ralph E. Hartman, of at York. The Rev. Ralph E. Hartman, of the Marysville Trinity Reformed Church, visited relatives at Cave-town, Md.

HOME FROM HAMILTON Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Spangler, of Hamilton, Ontario, are spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Bright, 227 Hummel street. Mr. Spangler will leave for Camp Dix, Wrightstown, N. J., Sat. urday, January 5, where he has been assigned to the Officers Train-ing Camp. During his absence Mrs. Spangler will reside with her par-ents. VISITORS FROM BALTIMORE Herman Stein, of Baltimore, is spending the holidays among relatives at AF Writered at at Writered Bit cousia, Harry Witten, at 247 South Cameron street. Both young men leave for home to-morrow. ' Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Diekert and Miss Dor.

at 621 Herr street. Harry Witten, of Baltimore, is vis-titing his cousia, Harry Witten, at 247 South Cameron street. Both your men leave for home to-morrow. Mis. C. S. Dickert and Miss Dor-pthca Dickert, of 123 Sylvan Ter-race, are holiday guests of Prof. and Mrs. H. C. Menold, in Bellefont, Luther Reily Moffitt, of Grand Rapids, Mich., is spending a fort-night with his father, Dr. R. H. Moffitt, North Front streets. Wricht's Out

1832-1917 MARYSTAND, PR. MARYSTAND, PR. MARYSTAND, PR. of Columbus, Ohio, will play for ancing at Winterdale Saturday energy the really fat in the Sandy Hill at 25c and 50c.—Adv. Marystand are getting all they want, 307 Market St.

Astrich's

lior. I demanded the Consul's I went home and put on my oldest to be hoisted at the foremast, clothes; an old black suit, olive drab Captain gave me a hard look shirt, a heavy pair of army shoes silted. e next afternoon at eight bells I beard grow and certainly looked id in New York, free again. I rough.

A Sale of Silk, Velvet and Satin Hats Worth $3.00 and $4.00 at ONE DOLLAR

For This Monday-Sale Starts 9.30 A. M.

Sixty-five dozen of Hats were sent to us by one of New York's largest manufacturers with orders to sell them at a DOLLAR EACH.

The original wholesale prices at which these Hats were sold earlier in the season were two and three times the price we now offer them to you. So come expecting most extraordinary values. Your unrestricted choice of the lot at ONE DOLLAR.

We will have an extensive display of these wonderful Hats in all our Millinery display windows and on all the tables in the center of the Millinery Department.

> That this is the most Phenomenal Hat Sale we have ever had no one will question. No Hats sold before 9:30 A. M .- No phone orders-No approvals-None exchanged-No credit checks.

We Will Trim These Hats Free of Charge