melodies and really beautiful stage effects, all parts and the chorus of twenty-five voices are of the class variety.

To-morrow, at the Orpheum Theater, the Cort Theater, New York, production of Victor Herbert and Henry Blossom's greatest musical play, "The Princess Pat," will be presented for a matinee and night.

Combined with a book that fairly simulates, are a score of numbers in Mr. Herbert's characteristically happy style. There is rather wide range of music going from the whistleable kind to that which borders very closely to his grand operas, "Natoma," and "Madelaine."

The announcement of the coming of the big New York and Boston musical "Furs and Frills," to the Orpheum, is a most interesting one.

Harvey D. Orr will offer the New York success, by Louis Wesley, "There She Goes," with Harvey and Harold Orr and the original New York cast and production, at the Orpheum Theater to-night.

The cast of the Adelina Amusement Company has assembled for the interpretation of the comedy includes a beautiful Long Island country club golf course, the second down in Honolulu.

The story is concerned with the complications resulting from the purchase of a sable coat at a party given by the wife of No. 1.
