Felons Give Their Mite to the Men Who Fight in the Trenches

San Quentin, Cal., Jan. 1 .- Prisvoted to send one-half of tobacco allowance to men he American Expeditionary Forces in France, and the first ent, two fifty-gallon barrels filled with tobacco, are ready for Many hundreds of Americans have ent messages of love, with substan-tial evidences of tender solicitude, to the brave soldiers at the front, but no sacrifice or kindness is so signifiant and touching as this one. Here felons; burglars, highwaymen, nurderers, the very scum of humanmake this considerable sacrifice for the men who are defending their ation. A number of them will never again roam free over their native marked with the prison pallor for accades. And who would imagine that these enemies of law and humanity would be inspired to give eir very life substance.

Prison warden s have often told what a solace tobacco is to the longerm prisoner. It has even prevented many a man from going insane and yet these unfortunate men do the hesitate to give up one-half their lowance. Perhaps these men underand better than the average citim what it means to be incarcerated,

Japan Is Expected to Send New Envoy

Washington, Jan. 2.—A new Japanese ambassador to the United States is expected to be appointed soon after the arrival in Japan of Ambassador Sato, about the middle of February, it was learned to-day. Ambassador Sato will shortly leave Washington for Seattle, whence he will take a Japanese liner for Japan. Recalled by the Tokio Foreign Office, ostensibly to consult on foreign affairs, it was said by an authority today that it was improbable the ambassador would be returned to Washington.

Viscount Ishii, who headed the special mission to the United States and concluded the agreement with Secretary Lansing covering the Japanese rights in China, has been mentioned for the place in Tokio papers.

HAD KIDNEY TROUBLE

"Stomach Was Bad ---Head Stopped Up,"

Eays Mr. J. Swan, 254 Lincoln St., Steelton, Pa., "I suffered for a long time with my stomach and kidneys. I always felt tired out, at times would get feverish, my eyes would burn and become bloodshot. On getting up would feel sluggish.

"My head and throat were all klogged up. I caught a fresh cold mearly every night and had pains in my back. I tried all kinds of stuff but could not get well.

"I had been reading the Sanpan ads every day, and after a while sort of became convinced that it might help me.
