Butterine Fast Taking the Place of Butter

Because of the high cost of butter, oleomargarine is fast coming into prominence as butter's one big substitute. Very few people can really tell the difference between butterine and butter, especially if they buy it from L. G. Martin, 1828 North Fourth street, who sells only the best.

Mr. Martin conducts a first class grocery store, besides his butterine business. Special brands of coffee at from 20c up and staple and fancy groceries comprise, a large part of the stock.

A delivery service is maintained and special attention is given to phone orders. Your patronage is respectfully solicited.

Pipes Freeze and Burst in Cold Weather

Don't forget that if the temperature in your cellar is below 30° the water pipes are liable to freeze and possibly burst. This is had business as a good many people will say who have had the experience during the last cold spell.

But this will happen and when it does call R. M. Wagner & Son, 207 Locust street, or Boas street near Main, Penbrook. They conduct a sanitary plumbing, gas fitting and hot water heating business. Anything in this line is given strict attention and satisfaction is guaranteed.

Staple and Fancy Groceries

Meyer Marcus, the popular uptown grocer, who conducts a general grocery and meat shop at 2030 North Seventh street, says business was never better for the sale of staple and fancy groceries.

More people to-day are buying the necessary food products than ever before. People are beginning to realize that they must save in some way, so are cutting out amusements and so on and instead of skimping with their groceries are buying more instead.

Besides groceries, Mr. Marcus handles a full line of fresh and smoked meats. Both phones are installed and a delivery service maintained. Your patronage is solicited.

Milk Now 14 Cents a Quart

In Wilkes-Barre milk has now reached 14 cents a quart. This is a jump of two cents a quart. Because of increasing cost of production and delivering of milk these prices are a necessity in order that the milkman may live.

In Harrisburg milk is still delivered at 12 cents a quart. H. A. Ritter, 411 South Thirteenth street, who has one of the most up-to-the-minute creameries in Harrisburg, sells only the cleanest and best of milk and cream and hopes to maintain the present price as long as possible.

Fresh Fruits and Oysters

This is the season for oysters. But season or no season, a person should eat all the oysters they can in order to conserve the meat supply. Oysters and clams are as nutritious as meat and in comparison to quantity, are much cheaper than meat.

Charles A. Banks, Fourth and Boyd streets, makes a specialty of fresh oysters opened every day. Quality oysters is the only kind he handles. Besides oysters he has a full line of fresh fruits. A call will prove to you the quality of goods he handles.

January Sale of Men's Clothing

With the grand rush of the Christmas holidays over at last, we find that we have some odds and ends among our stock of men's furnishings that we will offer at greatly reduced prices. The quality of these goods are all A No. 1.

Besides your regular furnishing business don't forget that we make suits and overcoats at from $15 up. The Quality Shop at Front and Locust streets, Steelton, are offering these big sales. If you are thinking of outfitting yourself in any way it will pay to call and see the big values and small prices at the Quality Shop.

Dairy Service on the West Shore

The Lemoine Dairy, Walter Wood, proprietor, delivers milk to Camp Hill, Wormleysburg and Washington Heights. This said, and the reader has not heard half the facts of this large dairy.

Moderately equipped with the latest clarifying and pasteurizing equipment, this dairy supplies milk and cream that for purity and cleanliness is unequalled.

This, coupled with a splendid delivery service, fresh, pure milk and cream for breakfast; make the West Shore patrons of milk dealers seek Mr. Wood to serve them regularly with milk. If you are not already one of Mr. Wood's customers he will be glad to include you among the many.

General Merchandise

S. A. Fishburn, the Penbrook merchant needs no introduction to the public. For years he has been doing a general merchandise business. His stock includes most anything that is needed in the household in the grocery line, and also coal, grain, mill feed, cement and bricks.

Fresh and Smoked Meats

When you go to market to buy produce of any kind you always like to know if it is of good quality. In green goods and fruit you can readily tell by inspection.

But in meat it is a different proposition. You must almost take the word of the party from whom you should choose a good reliable man to buy meat from. Lafferty Bros. of Hummelstown, who conduct stall No. 59 in the Chestnut street market can be relied upon to handle only first class, fresh and smoked meats. Convince yourself of this fact by giving them a call next market day.

Low Prices Every Day

The Allison Hill Provision Company, dealers in meats, groceries, fruits and vegetables, maintain low prices, not one day a week or every couple of weeks, but every day.

Quality products in their entire line are offered at surprisingly low prices. Staple and fancy groceries of all kinds and varieties, suitable to every taste; meats of all kinds, fruit and vegetables, fresh daily are displayed for sale in this big store, located in the Flat Iron building, at 1903 Derry street.

West Shore Bakery Doing Large Business

Needless to say, the West Shore Bakery conducted by L. M. Bricker in Lemoine is gaining new patrons daily. Since the new plant has been in operation, with all its modern and up-to-the minute appliances, which tend to produce only the cleanest and best bread.

O. K. that popular brand, has found its way into more homes than ever before. Every one wants O. K. not only because of its popularity but because it is the best and best value bread sold in Harrisburg or vicinity.

Mechanicsburg Restaurant Serves Pure Foods Only

The C. V. Restaurant, just opposite the station in Mechanicsburg has been wonderfully improved since E. C. Nissley, proprietor, has taken charge, and present respect of cleanliness, quality and service. From a second rate restaurant, it has become a first class place.

The prices maintained, for the quality of meals are surprisingly low. Full course meals as well as short orders are served.

Milks Question Is Still Unsatisfactory

The milk question, ever since it started an upward climb some months ago from seven cents a quart until the present time when it has acquired the price of an even dollar a quart, is still hovering in the background of the average housekeeper's mind.

But like everything else, we must of necessity use it. It appears that we will have to pay the fiddler; so while doing that, why not get the most for your money?

M. Nissley conducts a modern creamery where milk and cream, handled exclusively by modern scientific methods, is served to the customer at full value. While paying the high price for products use good care in selecting the merchant who will give full value.

The Crisfield Cafe

The Crisfield Cafe, at 213 Chestnut street, is always open to welcome everyone who is looking for a good, clean, homelike place to eat and where quality foods count more than quantity.

The dining room and restaurant is suitable alike for ladies and gentlemen. The food served is cooked clean and served clean. All the modern appliances known to the restaurant business to produce food under the most sanitary conditions are used.

The Excellent Grocery

One of the most modern, sanitary, up-to-the-minute grocery stores in the city, the Excellent Grocery, is located at Sixth and Boas streets.

H. J. Bracony, the proprietor, has a long experience in the grocery business and knows how best to please his customers in both quality of goods and quantity of service.

Chicken Meat Mash Make Hens Lay

A big specialty seller is the chicken meat mash sold by O. S. Ebersole, the Penbrook flour, feed and grain man. This meat mash is a special preparation, put up by Mr. Ebersole, and especially during this time of year, when cold weather has its usual effects in causing a dropping off in laying, is a very good feed for the chickens. It not only helps in the production of more eggs, but makes healthier, better chickens.

Mr. Ebersole also does a large business in flour, grain and corn. During these strenuous times when all feed of any kind is so high, it is a very hard matter to even secure these products at almost any price. However, Mr. Ebersole has a goodly stock on hand and those who have been dealing with him know the quality of goods he handles and the business integrity used in conducting one of the largest flour and feed businesses in Dauphin county.

Ford Cars Keep Going in Spite of Snow

"The little old Ford rambles right along," no matter whether there is a foot or a 45 per cent. grade or whether there is one of the most perfect stretches of macadam roads you ever saw. "Conditions" make no difference to this little buzz wagon. It goes and goes and the upkeep! Not to be mentioned. But why waste mere words. All the qualities of a Ford? Everyone knows about them.

The New Cumberland Auto and Supply Company, are the dealers for this car on the West Shore. While the supply is limited, they are always glad to see prospective buyers.

Perfection in Bread Baking

Bread baking is an art that is only acquired, like most other art, only through years of experience and keeping abreast with the steady march of modern science.

In the past decades bread baking methods have so changed that a person familiar with them then would find himself very much at a loss now if you should step into a modern bakery.

Ruhl's Bakery, at Penbrook, is just such a modern bakery. All the modern equipment known to the baking trade is installed in this model bakery. Every loaf of bread that is delivered to you from this bakery is protected from dirt and dust from the time it is only four until it comes to your door, the finished product.
