 Woman."

The Majestic stage the last half of this week looks like a young Paris since Catherine Crawford's new Fashion Review. Her Fashion Girls arrived in town. With a setting appropriate for the occasion, a heavy attractive models promenade about the stage, displaying the latest in wearing apparel. The act is built along musical comedy lines, with several interpolated song and dance numbers, all of which are rendered in a pleasing manner. A comedy feature of the bill is the sketch presented by Arthur Pickens and his company, entitled "The Wedding Day." The playlet is replete with funny situations and keeps the audience in constant laughter.

 The Van Brothers are scoring a hit with their comedy songs and nonsense. Both are clever and put their songs and comedy over in excellent style. Dougherty and Scully have a bright song and patter skit of the flirtation variety that is pleasing, while Reno, the pantomime bicyclist, rounds out the bill. His work is a continual laugh and called forth enthusiastic applause.

At the Orpheum to-morrow, matinee and night, will be presented the delightful and entertaining musical comedy,
 "Furs and Frills," the only original production of the day.
 Another well-known and popular production of the day is "The Auction Block," which is being presented at the Orpheum to-morrow and night.

Wallace Field, who has recently created notable success with Gerardine Farrar in "The Devil Stone," will be seen to-morrow at the Regent in his latest Paramount Western Drama, "The Devil Stone." This is a western drama, being the thrilling tale of a man who started out to revenge his father's murder.
 How he is turned from his purpose by the love of a woman is the story heart through the love of Nan (Anne Little) makes a photoplay that is interesting as well as picturesque. The scene is laid in the Rockies, and besides the gripping story, the picture achieves a high degree of artistic photography. It is seldom, indeed, that a motion picture cast actually achieves as well as pictures that but such is the cast which was chosen to support the popular story. Raymond Hatton, Ann Little, James Cruze, Horace E. Carpenter, Henry Woodward, Guy Oliver, Charles Ogilvie and Ernest Joy are among the well-known players appearing in this production, which was adapted from Frank Spearman's popular serial.

Annual experience now leads the patrons of the Al. G. Field Greater Minstrels to look out for a new thing original and modish, too.
 The program this season has the characteristics of such an exceptional degree that it will meet all expectations. Prominent among the special hits is a clog dance done by the "Santa Claus at Home." Clog dancing is not attempted very often as a chorus number because of the difficulty in getting a large group to execute it in perfect unison.
 The slightest variation on the part of one dancer would, because of the sound of the clogs, be aptly heard to the audience and spoil the effect.
 The perfection of the number given by the dancing chorus creates much enthusiasm. The "toys" are represented by Henri Neiser, Garner Newton, Harry Young, John Means, W. O'Brien, Phil Harris, Ed. Ewalt, Frank Miller, Leo Doran, Billy Bur-hold, Bob Mar, and Harry White.
 These accomplished artists likewise give a travesty on the fango of exceptional cleverness. Henri Neiser, the Harrisburg Chapter Red Cross. Accompanying her contribution was this letter: "I saw what splendid work the Knights of Columbus organization was doing at Camp Lee, on my recent visit to my old home, Petersburg, Virginia, and I am glad to have the privilege of making a contribution to it." Mrs. Gilbert has volunteered to give more money to the cause if Harrisburg does not contribute its quota. Miss Margaret M. ## SHORTAGE OF TRAINED MEN CAUSE OF TIEUP

ly being remedied under the government operation. Wage questions also were taken up by Mr. McAdoo, who arranged to confer again to-day with heads of the four railway brotherhoods. Shortage of Repairmen Working under the direction of Interstate Commerce Commissioner C. C. McChord, a corps of inspectors has found that scores of locomotives, the lack of which is largely responsible for the slow movement of freight in the east, have been allowed to freeze during the last few days through negligence and improper attention. Shortage of repairmen and machinists was reported from many localities. In Conway yard, west of Pittsburgh, on the Pennsylvania, 1,747 cars needing repairing were found and less than half the number of repairmen available a year ago now are employed there. "On the morning of January 1," said the report, "in the territory east of Charleston, Parkersburg and Wheeling, W. V., and Connellsville, Pa., and north of Roanoke, Va., and west of Baltimore and Harrisburg, Ohio held 12,000 of these loaded cars, including 7,000 cars of coal, which was far above its normal capacity. This overload had been ordered moved by the Western Maryland road, whose conditions is more normal. "On the Baltimore and Ohio, at Philadelphia at 4 p. m., January 1," says the report, "there were ten trains made up ready for westbound movement with only four engines to move them. "No Engines Available "On the Philadelphia and Reading at Philadelphia, the same date, there were six trains ready to move east with no engines to move them. On the same place seventeen engines were out of service awaiting repairs. "On the Baltimore and Ohio, east side of Philadelphia, forty-eight engines on account of lack of proper attention, were disabled by freezing up between December 29 and December 31. "The Central Railroad of New Jersey is suffering for power, due to lack of labor and material. At Elizabeth, N. J., December 28, twenty-six engines froze up, and at Connetquot, on December 31, seventeen engines were disabled.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 4.—Nebraska Exemption Boards reported yesterday that answers to draft questionnaires show thousands of Germans, who have taken out their first papers, and under the Nebraska laws, have been voting for years, are claiming exemption from Army service on the ground that they are enemy aliens. From one small county alone 736 such answers have been received from men who have been voting regularly. Frank A. Kennedy, chairman of the First District Exemption Board, declared that "literally thousands of first paper voters are now claiming to be enemy aliens and exempt from military service."
