

UNION REVIVAL TO OPEN TOMORROW--CHURCHES TO RAISE BIG EDUCATIONAL FUND

TO BEGIN NEW SERMON SERIES

Dr. Bagnell of Grace M. E. to Preach Series for Young People

Dr. Robert Bagnell, Pastor of Grace Methodist Church, has announced a series of sermons for young people during Sunday evenings in January. The topic and dates for the sermons are as follows: Tomorrow, "The Success That Fails," January 13, "The Double Life," January 20, "The Safe Marriage," January 27, "Playing the Game."

Dr. Bagnell feels that the young people should be more vitally interested in the affairs of the church. This is the first series of sermons for young people that Dr. Bagnell has preached since his coming to Grace church and it is anticipated that it will be most helpful and interesting, not only to the young people but all those who are interested in young people.

A committee of ninety-seven young people was called together last Sunday evening to assist Dr. Bagnell in the work. The following officers and chairmen of the various committees were elected: Charles W. Bell, general chairman; Miss Mary Mitchell, secretary; Miss Mary Mitchell, assistant secretary; Miss Catherine Dubbs, chairman of High school committee; John Paul, chairman of High School; Miss Wharton, chairman of Epworth; B. Ralph Neumann, chairman of office and store committee; Ehrman, chairman of Harrisburg academy committee; Miss Lang, chairman of Capital Hill committee; Spencer Ross, chairman of Harrisburg academy committee.

It is the intention of these committees, if possible, to bring to the attention of all the young people of Harrisburg who are interested in the other church affiliations, the knowledge that these series of sermons are to be preached and to bring as many of the young people to the services as possible. A general invitation to attend these services will be given in the form of a letter to all the young people of Grace church to attend every one of these special services, and as many non-church-going young people as possible.

Tomorrow morning at 10.30 o'clock Communion will be observed. The services throughout the day will be observed, no matter what the weather, so that all who are interested in the chapel and it is anticipated that the auditorium and Sunday school rooms will also be heated this Sunday. If conditions should make the auditorium and Sunday school rooms impossible to hold services, the services will be held in the chapel.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOURERS ARE PLANNING FOR NEW YEAR

Christian Endeavorers are moving forward into greater religious work at the very beginning of the new year of 1918. Many opportunities await the boys and girls, young men and women and even those persons who have joined the Veterans' Association. The constant training of Endeavorers in the work for "Christ and the Church" qualifies them for any emergency that may offer itself in church work.

Leaders in religious work are about ready to establish some sort of selective draft in church work. The calls of war upon church workers have been so heavy that many churches are crippled, and volunteers to take the place of those who have gone into the United States Army are few. If the men at the front are doing their bit for the country, also in the Young Men's Christian Association and Christian Endeavor work it is very important that the church people at home, at much less cost and discomfort, should have their bit in the various religious organizations.

A record is kept by the state officers of the Endeavorers of the Keosauqua state who have gone into training camps and to France and the breach will be covered by other Endeavorers who will step into active service.

C. E. NOTES Pennsylvania Endeavorers have been very much alerted ever since the Rev. R. G. Bannan, D. D. of South Lancaster, former state president, stepped into active service for the success of the young people's movement.

He has served in many capacities and always puts considerable "pep" into anything he undertakes to do. He was one of the high lights who arranged for the successful state convention held in Altoona several years ago. He is at present one of the vice-presidents of the Veterans' Association.

"Christian Duty and Privilege," "Becoming a Christian," will be the topics for study in the C. E. meeting on Sunday evening. A consecration service will be the program in many societies.

Vincent Walkendier will conduct the service at the Second Reformed Society to-morrow evening. Endeavorers, who entered so heartily into the campaign for producing food, will note with particular interest that the number of hundred gardens was from two hundred to three hundred per cent. larger than in any previous year.

At Park Street Keystone League of Christian Endeavor service, Mrs. Merkle and Miss Margaret Zeiders will have charge on Sunday evenings. Representatives of the United Brethren, including the Rev. D. A. Poling, clety, including the Rev. A. J. Shurtle, treasurer, and the Rev. R. P. Anderson, editorial secretary, and representatives from the various denominations, including the Baptist Young People's Union and the Epworth League met recently in New York and selected a series of strong topics and selected a series of strong topics and selected a series of strong topics.

LORD'S SUPPER AT MARKET SQ.

Big Gain in Membership During Present Pastorate; No Steam Shortage

To-morrow morning the Market Square congregation observes the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. At this time a number of new members will be publicly received. The membership of the church continues to climb consistently and rapidly. In the brief pastorate of Dr. Hawes more than 400 new members have been added to the congregation, making it one of the largest congregations in the denomination. At to-morrow's service a large attendance is confidently expected. The church building is one of the few structures which have had an ample supply of steam from the public plant during the winter term. The fact, being known the membership is expected to be present.

The evening service will be one worth attending also, since it is intended to help those who wish to make the year 1918 their best year. A fine musical program, a cheery church interior, a timely topic for discussion, all conspire to make Market Square Church a good place to spend Sabbath evening. Plan to Organize Red Cross at Pine Street

At the morning service of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning Dr. Mudge will preach from the subject, "The Highest Mathematics." In the evening the theme will be "The Voice to Heed." On Sunday a definite announcement will be made regarding the organizing of a Red Cross Auxiliary in connection with the church. At the close of the evening service there will be held in the Boyd church interior, a timely topic for discussion, all conspire to make Market Square Church a good place to spend Sabbath evening.
