

Kreider Shoe Factory at Palmyra to Resume Work

Lebanon, Pa., Jan. 11.—Owing to the heavy demand for Army shoes, the A. S. Kreider Shoe Company, of Anville, of which Congressman A. S. Kreider is president, will reopen its factory at Palmyra. The establishment was closed two years ago when a monster building was erected in Lebanon and the machinery transferred here. The demand for shoes has grown to such proportions now that the Palmyra establishment will be reopened next week.

GET NEW KIDNEYS!

The kidneys are the most overworked organs of the human body, and when they fail in their work of filtering out and throwing off the poisons developed in the system, things begin to happen. One of the first warnings is pain or stiffness in the lower part of the back; highly colored urine; loss of appetite; indigestion; irritation, or even stone in the bladder. These symptoms indicate a condition that may lead to that dreaded and fatal malady, Bright's disease, for which there is said to be no cure. You can almost certainly find immediate relief in GOLD MEDAL, Harlem Oil Capsules. For more than 200 years this famous preparation has been an unfailing remedy for all kidney, bladder and urinary troubles. Get it at any drug store, and if it does not give you almost immediate relief, your money will be refunded. Be sure you get the GOLD MEDAL. None other genuine. In boxes, three sizes.—Advertisement.

Capt. H. M. M. Richards Elected Lebanon Treasurer

Lebanon, Pa., Jan. 11.—Captain H. M. M. Richards, a veteran of the United States Navy, and for many years treasurer of the American Iron and Steel Manufacturing Company, was elected last Wednesday evening as treasurer of the city of Lebanon, after a bitter fight in which the Council was deadlocked since Monday. The break came on the twenty-second ballot after thirteen different candidates had been nominated and balloted for. Captain Richards is a Republican and was elected by the three Republican members of the Council, the two Democrats sticking to the last for candidates of their own party.

Investigation of Campaign Account is Reopened

District Attorney Michael E. Stroup said this afternoon it had been reported to him that a private investigation is being made of a campaign expense account filed by an official after the general election in November. According to Mr. Stroup he had not been asked to act in the matter, but was told that if anything illegal was found in the return, proceedings would be instituted against the official in question. He declined to be quoted as to names.

Congressman A. S. Kreider Takes Up Aurand Case; Red Cross Aids Parents

Congressman A. S. Kreider has had the case of Earl Aurand's parents brought to his attention and these survivors of the first Harrisburg boy to fall in France are being given every consideration by the representative of this district at Washington. He writes the Telegraph that under the present war risk insurance law there appears to be no relief for the Aurands, inasmuch as the law provides only a pension for a wife, child or "widowed" mother. The pension laws passed out of existence with the enactment of the war risk law, but Congressman Kreider is going to make an effort to have Mrs. Aurand granted a pension by special act. He writes: "I do not know if I will be successful, but I am going to use every effort to get a bill through in her behalf."

Mesmerizing Mr. Aurand is ready and willing to do such work as he is physically able to do and the Telegraph will be glad to hear of any position that is open to him. Secretary McCandless, of the Associated Aid Societies, said to-day that the parents are being aided by the Civilian Relief of the Harrisburg Chapter of the Red Cross. The fund for the Aurands, which was started by contribution from F. H. Hantzman, now totals $32. Subscriptions reported by Clarence O. Backenstos, who is receiving contributions follow: Previously acknowledged, $17; Anna M. Collins, $1; H. S. Colpon, $5; Sympathizer, $1; H. M. Hoover, $1; total, $25.

HUN COMMENT ON WILSON IS BITTER

press on President Wilson's message declared to be unacceptable and one "more brutal still" than the recent statement of Premier Lloyd George. The President is accused of desiring to hinder the Brest-Litovsk negotiations and Vienna newspapers declare his peace conditions are such as could only be imposed on the completely defeated.

British troops in the Ypres area have executed successfully three into the German lines. Many casualties were inflicted and prisoners were taken. On the remainder of the front in France the artillery of the Allies is active, especially in Flanders, in the Arras-Cambrai area in Champagne and northeast of Verdun. The artillery fighting on the northern Italian front is less intense, being most marked east of the Brenna.

Discussion of the French government's diplomatic conduct of the war will be heard in the Chamber of Deputies to-day. The government has announced it will accept such discussion. Withdraw Peace Offer The central powers have withdrawn their "no forcible annexations or indemnities" peace offer of December 25, made during the progress of the negotiations with the Russians at Brest-Litovsk. The offer was conditioned upon its acceptance by all the powers hostile to the central empires and the former having failed to accept it as a whole it has become null and void, the German foreign minister announced at Brest-Litovsk yesterday.

German Society Holds Meeting at Reading

Reading, Pa., Jan. 11.—The executive committee of the Pennsylvania German Society held a meeting here to-day with the Rev. Dr. Theodore I. Schmauck, of Lebanon, presiding. Representatives from various parts of the state were present. Owing to the strong anti-German feeling, the annual meeting was omitted last year, but the membership decided to hold the meeting this year, as the organization dates back to the Germans who came to this country long before the Revolution, and it is in no respect whatever a pro-German patriotic.

Ill With Smallpox, Rides Into City in Trolley Car

City and state health authorities were kept busy this morning when Martin Eslinger, of Stony Creek Valley, near Dauphin, came to the city, and was found to be suffering from smallpox. Eslinger came to Harrisburg from Rockville by trolley to see a physician. He was sent to Health Officer Raunick, who at once diagnosed the case and notified the Harrisburg Railways Company to have them fumigated. Eslinger told the health officials his wife and two children are ill. It is believed they may be suffering from the disease also. Dr. Raunick urged persons who were on Rockville cars between 9 and 11 o'clock this morning to be vaccinated in order to prevent an epidemic. The offices of the health bureau were fumigated after Eslinger was taken away at noon.

Heavy Snowstorm and Zero Weather Again Forecast

A heavy snowstorm and zero weather are coming for the week-end, Weather Forecaster Deman said to-day. Snow is expected to fall to-night and continue all day to-morrow. The fall probably will be one of the heaviest of the year, said Mr. Deman. Slightly warmer weather will accompany the snow for a short time. This is to be followed by a cold wave of extreme severity. The lowest temperature Sunday is expected to send the mercury down to the zero mark.

teen small automobiles, used as jitneys about the Du Pont Powder Works, were destroyed this morning in a fire which consumed the company's garage at plant No. 1 at Garner's Point, N. J. The fire spread rapidly and it was impossible to save the garage. Hard work prevented further advance of the flames.

Council to Open Bids For Ash Collections Tomorrow

Bids for private collection of ashes for periods of 15-27-39-51 or 63 months will be opened at noon to-morrow by the Board of Public Works. The specifications were approved at the Council session on Tuesday. City officials anticipate a slight delay in the opening of bids, but contractor can start work and do not believe collections will be started until late in February. The present contracts expire in February. Ash collections by Hagy Brothers, the new contracting firm, will be started on that date.

RUSSIA TO FIGHT IF GERMANY BALKS

would have to be made for hostilities.

Difficulties Not Enough to Cause Failure of Peace, Says Von Kuehlmann

Amsterdam, Jan. 11.—A Brest-Litovsk dispatch giving an account of the session yesterday, says it was opened at 11 o'clock, all the delegations, including Dr. Von Kuehlmann, participating. Talaat Pasha, the Turkish Grand Vizier, called the meeting to order and turned over the chair to Dr. Von Kuehlmann, who said: "Inasmuch as changes have occurred in the composition of some of the delegations, it will not be out of place to give a short summary of the history of the course of the negotiations." After a lengthy review of the proceedings to date, Dr. Von Kuehlmann said he hoped they would lead to a salutary result. His hope was based on knowledge gained during the course of the negotiations and on the expression by the Russian delegation of the Russian people's wish for secure and lasting peace. He continued: "I consider the difficulties met with up to the time the negotiations were interrupted were not great enough to cause the failure of the peace work and, presumably, resumption of war in the east, with its unforeseen consequences."

Bolshevik Preparing to Establish Fighting Power Against Possible Break

London, Jan. 11.—Confirming previous reports that the Bolsheviks are preparing to re-establish the fighting power of the army against a possible final break in the negotiations with the central powers, a Communist correspondent of the Daily News says they are not attempting to reanimate the old worn-out army, but to create a new and more efficient one. Concerning this new army Foreign Minister Trotsky is reported to have said: "It will wage not war, but revolution. Its front trenches will be barricades against oppressors." The Bolsheviks doubt if the German soldiers will advance, but if they do and take more territory they would be no nearer an end of the war. The correspondent says the greatest difficulty of the Bolsheviks in these preparations are transport and supply, of which the former is the less hopeful question. Ensign Krylenko, Bolshevik commander-in-chief, is reported to be organizing a volunteer army and has ordered all officers to return to the post they held before the Bolshevik revolution. In reference to the civil war in different parts of Russia, the correspondent says they are not warring by one part of Russia against another, but attempts to spread in class warfare in those parts where the proletariat has not yet obtained the upper hand. Thus the Bolsheviks are not warring against the Ukraine, but against the Bourgeois Ukrainian Rada; not with Cossack country, but with the military government of the Cossacks. The Petrograd correspondent says the anti-Bolshevik newspapers daily record Bolshevik defeats but declares it is curious that after each defeat the Bolsheviks advanced instead of retired. The map, he says, shows each reported defeat takes the Bolsheviks further into enemy country. He mentions some of these advances and adds the Black Sea fleet is now controlled by the Bolsheviks. The Petrograd correspondent of the Times says enormous sums have been taken from the State bank.
