> WHEN CHRISTIANITY BECAME ORGANIZED

The International Sunday School Lesson For January 13 Is "Jesus Begins His Work."-Mark 1:12-20

no mere theological term; it is a fact of life. A successful businessman sat op-posite me and said, "I tell you, I know men and I know myself and it is only the grace of God that keeps me from tumbling over into the vol-cano." That man was not talking about any metaphysical or subjec-tive errors; he meant gross sins, such as the law of the land recog-nizes as crime. Yet he is a good man, made such, he avows, only by the religion of the tempted Christ. No Sham Fight Into stch battles as this—the kind which most upright men know as more real experiences than any struggle in business—Jesus went. He fought the fight that no good man can escape; and He fought it with no weapons that may not be ours. It was no sham battle that Jesus with no weapons that may not be purs. It was no sham battle that Jesus vaged. He could have fallen even is we may fall. It was possible for tim to sin; otherwise the experience of the Temptation would have been 'as idle as a painted ship upon a painted ocean." Sturdy words need to be spoken in this point, to meet the miscon-ception of those who would amas-ulate the Temptation; and Rev. Dr. f. H. Jowett has spoken them: 'Whatever else my Lord shall be to ne, He shall not be a counterfeit man, exposed to counterfeit fire, a never moving amid the dread bolts and forked flame. His shall not be he sham fight and mine the read could not see ahead. But they were willing to follow the best that beck-oned. They put religion above rev-enue, belief above business, the Prophet above profits. They saw a sleam of new life, and by following it they became transformed and transformers. Christians to-day are being confronted with a crisis which means as much to them as the call means to the Galllean fishermien. New summonses to new service in new ways are being sounded 'by Providence. The man who lets his cwn material entanglements Lold now is deaf to the higher call of the hour. Many a man of affairs drops his business and puts him-self at the disposal of the Y. M. C. A. for service at home or abroad. Thousands of young men are turn-ing away from office and farm and fuctory and college life to lay down their lives in defense of righteous-ness.
