Camp Funston, Kansas, Jan. 12.—Military police within the cantonment and officers of surrounding towns and cities to-day were searching for the men who last night killed with axes four men and seriously wounded another in the army bank on the reservation here, and obtained an amount of money as yet unascertained, and several Liberty Bonds. One of the robbers, it is stated, wore the uniform of a captain of the United States, but officers do not believe a soldier was involved in commission of the crime. The bodies of the dead men are said to have been literally hacked to pieces.

CHICAGO IS ISOLATED
Discomforts Due to Cold and Rain Reported From Camp Sheridan

Amsterdam, Jan. 12.—Leon Trotsky, the Bolsheviki foreign minister, at the conference at Brest-Litovsk yesterday, said that in order not to leave any possibility in the fight for peace unutilized the Russian delegation accepted the demand that negotiations be continued at Brest-Litovsk.

The Harrisburg Light and Power Company's plants are facing a serious curtailment and at the worst a shut-down if the shipment of bituminous coal that is now overdue does not arrive by the first of the week. The company, which generates power for city lighting, and most of the big industrial plants in the city now is using its last reserve.

yet been able to give a lucid story of the occurrence. The robbery and murders occurred, it is believed, shortly after 7:30 o'clock last night. A half hour later a sentry heard groans and investigated Mr. Wornall was still alive. He was removed to the camp hospital, where he died early to-day. Immediately a guard was thrown about the camp and all military passes were revoked. No one could go about the camp without being challenged and taken to the guard-house.

Only one bid for the collection and disposal of ashes after the present contract expires, was received to-day by Commissioner Hassler. The firm asked $7.00 a month, or $441,000 for a 63-month contract.

Atlanta, Jan. 12.—With the entire South in the grip of the worst snow and sleet storm of the winter to-day, early reports showed that tornadoes which swept through eastern Alabama and central Georgia had taken a toll of sixteen lives and injured more than one hundred persons. Wire communication over a great area was paralyzed, scores of small towns in the interior being isolated. Among the Savannah, Charleston, Jacksonville and other cities along the South Atlantic coast were cut off from outside communication.

Trotsky said he had noted the statement of the central powers that the basis of a general peace as formulated in their declaration of December 25, was null and void, and added:

C. M. Kaltwasser, manager of the communication with Washington and with several coal operators. Appeals have been sent of Dr. Garfield, national fuel administrator, to expedite shipments here.

It is probable that bids will be [Continued on Page 8.]
