

NAME MONDAY LEGAL HOLIDAY IF WILSON APPROVES

As Means of Conserving Fuel Administrative Action Is Urged

New York, Jan. 15.—As a means of conserving fuel throughout the eastern states which have been vitally affected by the coal shortage, it was announced today that fuel administrators have recommended that President Wilson declare Monday a legal holiday throughout this territory for the next eight or ten weeks.

It was stated that this decision was reached at a meeting last night attended by P. B. Noyes, representing Fuel Administrator Garfield, Arthur Wiggin, fuel administrator for New York State, Reeve Schley county fuel administrator and J. J. Storrow, fuel administrator for New England.

The declaration of one legal holiday weekly was unanimously agreed upon as the best means of conserving fuel and affording a general relief from hardships incidental to the coal situation.

Another of the family had used Doan's Kidney Pills with such good results, I took them. I can certainly recommend them not only because of what they did for me, but because of the good they did others in the family, as well."

HOMES, SHIPS, FACTORIES GET COAL IN ORDER

Garfield Lays Stress on Munition Vessels Detained by Lack of Fuel

Washington, Jan. 15.—All of the eastern states are to be grouped and coal is to be distributed among them on the basis of actual needs, every city being treated alike and none to be given preference on account of proximity to the Pennsylvania coal fields, Fuel Administrator Garfield announced today.

Details of the general plan of coal distribution in the East during the impending emergency will be announced to-morrow upon the return to Washington of P. B. Noyes, chief of the division of conservation, who has been in New York and Boston. It was stated today, however, that Doctor Garfield has decided definitely on the three major categories in his plan of emergency distribution. Domestic consumers will be supplied first and public utilities furnishing light, heat and power to homes will be treated on the same basis.

Secondary consideration will be given to bunkering of the supply ships, numbering between 125 and 150, tied up at ports for lack of coal. These ships carry war food and munitions for Pershing's men and the Allies, and have been unable to sail for "too long a time already," according to Doctor Garfield. He tonight added them to the list of essential that must be supplied with coal. They were put ahead even of war industries after reports came to the fuel administrator that a million tons of shipping is held up for lack of bunkers.

W. G. McAdoe, director general of railroads, last night approved Doctor Garfield's priority scheme by ordering preference of movement as follows: First, Coal for domestic use and vital public utilities. Second, Food. Third, Coal for bunkering the ships in harbor which are loaded for American armies abroad and for the Allies. As soon as normal weather is restored the priority order will be withdrawn. Mr. McAdoe expressed the hope "that it will not materially affect industrial activity."

Some War Plants May Close Industries, including munitions and other war agencies, will receive coal when ships have been supplied, and it is entirely probable that Valley plants may be forced to close down if weather conditions continue to hamper coal movement. It is the position of the fuel administration that as long as ships are tied up at ports unable to sail because of lack of coal it is useless for factories to have preference in order to turn out supplies which cannot be transported.

Doctor Garfield plans to provide a uniform system of the shut-down of places of amusement or nonessentials, but he declined today to indicate what is to be done in preference to a general order to cover all states would be issued with the details of enforcement left to the discretion of state administrators.

The fuel administration will instruct its representatives and the railroad operatives to take coal to its consignees without regard to its destination or consignee. In this manner the coal will be rushed to meet emergency conditions by the quickest manner possible, but a check will be kept of all coal so diverted so that no section will receive more than its share and the original consignees will receive fuel later.

REPRESENTATIVE WOULD INVESTIGATE CHARGES Washington, Jan. 15.—Congressional investigation of "slandering charges" against the character of American troops abroad, alleged to have been circulated by the Anti-Saloon League, was proposed in a resolution today by Representative Carey, of Wisconsin.

MCADOO WILL EXTEND GOVERNMENT INSURANCE Washington, Jan. 15.—Because of the extension of the submarine war zone, Secretary McAdoe today ordered government life insurance in force for officers and crews on American merchantmen traveling between American ports and the Cape Verde Islands, and points on the west coast of Africa north of Sierra Leone. Sailing vessels will not be insured.

City Planning Commission Considers Park Changes Much of the time at the meeting of the City Planning Commission last night was devoted to a discussion of the proposed Capitol Park development and the co-operation of the city in bringing about the improvement. Members of the commission favored a plan for city officials to confer with state representatives so that definite arrangements could be made and some of the preliminary work started. The work for the present year will include preparation of maps of development of the Fourteenth ward and Italian park. Recently a drawing was made showing how this park could be developed into one of the finest in the city with a lake and driveways. Streets extending to the section of the Fourteenth ward already developed have been laid out on tentative plans and the lines will probably be established later.

CAILLAUX ARREST DUE TO A MESSAGE FROM SEC. LANSING

Discussed Peace at Any Price With Berlin Foreign Office, Is Charge

Paris, Jan. 15.—The arrest yesterday of former Premier Caillaux was due principally to a cablegram from Secretary Lansing at Washington saying that in 1915 M. Caillaux had been in communication with the Berlin Foreign Office. Secretary Lansing's cablegram stated that the American representative at Buenos Aires had been able to establish that M. Caillaux, during his visit to Argentina in 1915, had been in communication with the Berlin Foreign Office through Count Von Luxburg, then German minister to Argentina, with the object of concluding peace with Germany at any price, so as to permit the resumption of business. It is understood this evidence will be published in America immediately. The investigation of the Italian connections of the former Premier is said by the Matin to have resulted in the discovery of important military and political papers in the safe of the bank at Florence which was rented under the maiden name of Madame Caillaux and used by the former premier during his visit to Italy in December 1916. Papers Found in Safe Among the political papers found in the safe, the newspaper asserts, were a number of notes in which M. Caillaux, in the expectation of gaining office as premier, drafted a cabinet, designated a generalissimo and sketched various "exceptional" measures. These measures included the arrest of certain politicians and generals, among whom Premier Clemenceau is said to have been one, and the dismissal of a number of officials. In addition to these, says the Matin, there were documents of a military character which by their very nature seem to constitute the strongest evidence against M. Caillaux.

Newsletters Approve Action The Paris press generally takes the view the government would not have decided on the former premier's arrest if it had not obtained evidence of the great character. Most of the newspapers welcome the action. Even organs like the Humanite and the Radical, which are inclined to sympathize with M. Caillaux, do not openly condemn his arrest, declaring the government must have overwhelming proofs to justify it but demanding this evidence be produced.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Secretary Lansing today refused to affirm or deny or comment upon the foregoing dispatch from Paris. There seems to be no doubt, however, that some such dispatch is contained in the captured Luxburg correspondence. Early to-day there was no immediate prospect of its being given out for publication here.

SEEK RECRUITS The campaign of recruiting officers at the Harrisburg Recruiting Station, 325 Market street, to recruit young men under 21 and men over 31, for service in the Aviation section of the Signal Corps, is under way, and has already begun to show results. Sergeant William I. Laubenstien, working in Adams county, yesterday reported the first recruit in his county, an undergraduate at Gettysburg College, who enlisted in the Aviation section. Sergeant Laubenstien spoke at the college and preparatory school, and will try to organize a unit.

I felt so tired and lazy that work was a labor for me and some constant irritation of my bladder made life almost unbearable. Tanlac is now being introduced here at the George Gorgas Drug Store.

"I Had No Gumption At All" He Exclaims FELT TIRED AND LAZY ALL THE TIME AND HAD NO PEP "I don't know just how to describe my trouble, but the doctors said I had catarrh of the bladder," says Robert E. Miller, a steel worker, of Haddonfield, Pa., "but I do know that I had no enough gumption to lick a postage stamp. I felt so tired and lazy that work was a labor for me and some constant irritation of my bladder made life almost unbearable. I doctored for a long time without getting any satisfaction until some of the boys in the mill told me about Tanlac and urged me to try it. Well I was ready to try anything. I felt that bad, so I started in. Why it wasn't any time at all, it seemed to me before I began feeling some better; then I felt a whole lot better and now, whatever my trouble was it's gone and I feel as fine as silk. I eat and sleep fine and my work goes as easy as anybody could wish. Tanlac sure is a great and good medicine and I'm going to pass the word along."

Tanlac is now being introduced here at the George Gorgas Drug Store.

NEWSPAPERS APPROVE ACTION The Paris press generally takes the view the government would not have decided on the former premier's arrest if it had not obtained evidence of the great character. Most of the newspapers welcome the action. Even organs like the Humanite and the Radical, which are inclined to sympathize with M. Caillaux, do not openly condemn his arrest, declaring the government must have overwhelming proofs to justify it but demanding this evidence be produced.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Secretary Lansing today refused to affirm or deny or comment upon the foregoing dispatch from Paris. There seems to be no doubt, however, that some such dispatch is contained in the captured Luxburg correspondence. Early to-day there was no immediate prospect of its being given out for publication here.

SEEK RECRUITS The campaign of recruiting officers at the Harrisburg Recruiting Station, 325 Market street, to recruit young men under 21 and men over 31, for service in the Aviation section of the Signal Corps, is under way, and has already begun to show results. Sergeant William I. Laubenstien, working in Adams county, yesterday reported the first recruit in his county, an undergraduate at Gettysburg College, who enlisted in the Aviation section. Sergeant Laubenstien spoke at the college and preparatory school, and will try to organize a unit.
