LENINE DEMANDS THAT RUMANIA RELEASE TROOPS

Council of National Commissioners Forwards Ultimatum Upon Arrest of Bolsheviki

Petrograd, Jan. 14.—An automobile carrying Nikolai Lenin, the Bolsheviki Premier, it is reported, was fired upon to-night when he was driving to a meeting of the Council of People's commissaries. Four shots were fired. Premier Lenin was not hurt.

Constantine Diamandi, Rumanian minister, who was arrested Sunday by the Bolsheviki government, will be released to-night. This decision, M. Zaleski, assistant to Foreign Minister Trotsky, informs the Associated Press was taken at a meeting of the Council of People's Commissaries and after the diplomatic corps had protested to Premier Lenin.

The diplomats went to the Smolyn Institute late this afternoon and were met at the entrance by the Premier's personal guard of soldiers, workmen and sailors. They were escorted to the Premier's private room, Ambassador Francis in the lead. Premier Lenin spoke to the diplomats in French. The conference lasted forty minutes and was carried on behind closed doors. The diplomats left the Smolyn Institute under the impression that nothing definite had been accomplished.

Was Breach of Law

Premier Lenin is said to have explained to the diplomatic corps that he realized the imprisonment of M. Diamandi was a breach of international law, but declared it was designed as a protest against a similar breach on the part of Rumania in arresting and disarming Bolsheviki troops. Lenin told the diplomats he himself could not order the release of the Rumanian minister, but would have to lay the matter before the Council of People's Commissaries.

The diplomatic missions representing the United States, Japan, France, Sweden, Norway, Switzerland, Denmark, Siam, China, Serbia, Portugal, Argentina, Greece, Brazil, Persia, Spain, The Netherlands, Italy and Great Britain. They affirmed the unanimity of their sentiment on the subject of the violation of diplomatic immunity respected throughout the ages by all governments.
