Newspaper Views on Garfield's Decree

SERIOUS APPREHENSION [N. Y. Times.] The American public will be profoundly disquieted by the order. Its coincidence will be shaken. Apprehensions will be aroused. If such things are put upon us at this incipient stage of the war what will befall us when, at length, we really grapple with the foe?

ASKS PRESIDENT TO REVOKE [New York World.] The coal order issued by Fuel Administrator Garfield last night is the greatest disaster that has befallen the United States in this war.

SEES SOME GOOD IN ORDER [New York Sun.] Primarily the Fuel Administrator's order to shut down the greater part of the nation's industries, trades and businesses for a fortnight of working days all told is the fruit of the long industrial starvation of the railroads by the government for a generation.

CALLS IT A STAGGERING BLOW [Utica Press.] It strikes Utica and every other city within the designated territory a staggering blow by stopping the mills and factories here it throws thousands of people out of employment.

COAL IS RUSHED TO FAMILIES IN DISTRESS [Continued from First Page.] Dealers in the Hill district are not supplied with coal, and none has come from the Reading Coal and Iron Company for several days.

FUEL ORDERS CAUSE SEVERE REACTIONS

The Order of Fuel Administrator Garfield Directing Temporary Suspension of Industries Caused Reactions; Liberty Bonds Eased Slightly

NEW YORK STOCKS. Chandler Brothers and Company, members New York and Philadelphia Stock Exchanges, 1338 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, 21 Pine street, New York, furnish the following quotations:

WILL STARTLE AND ASTOUND [Baltimore American.] The order will startle and astound the country, and while there has been talk of the Monday holiday plan, no such extreme measure as this has ever dreamed of by the American people.

SAYS GARFIELD IS IN A PANIC [From the Tribune.] The Fuel Administrator has lost his head, Dr. Garfield is a panicker and acts in a headlong manner. Having failed to restore the natural rhythm of a colossal and wonderful industrial mechanism by poking priority orders into it, he proposed to make it run by beating it on the curbstone.
