Dining Car Waiter Injured in Crash on Middle Division

Dining car No. 4413, attached to train No. 40, eastbound, this morning was sent to shops for repairs. William Green, colored, a waiter, also went to the hospital at Philadelphia to be fixed up when his train reached that city. En route to this city from Altoona an application of the emergency breaks caused a big crash in dishes and glassware. Green was cut on the wrist by broken glass.

Boards Become Runners For Big Steel Coal Car

Lewistown, Jan. 17.—An arch frame gave way on a big "battle-ship" car loaded with coal and part of a freight train on the Pennsy, Sunday night. The broken truck picked up the crossing planks from a road crossing at Newton Hamilton, the boards acted as the runners for the big sled. The truck skidded along for a mile without cutting off a bolt or spike.
