Great credit was given Major C.
J. Marshall for his voluntary services in bringing our war department to realize the necessity and desirate.

Major Marshall visited the European battlefield in 1916 and at the time the U. S. entered the war was the only man in this country who had expert knowledge of the requirements of a veterinary service under present war conditions.

Colonel Aitken and Major White exhibited the chests of supplies and instruments furnished the Army veterinarians for field use. They are remarkable examples of compact efficiency and are designed to last one month, when new ones are issued.

HERE'S CHANCE TO HELP THE POSTAL EMPLOYES

Below is a blank which when filled out according to instructions given in it, and mailed to Congressman A. S. Kreider will be of great aid to the employes of the postoffice department in their efforts to secure a readjustment of salarles.

Postal employes have had no increase in salaries in the last ten salaries.

FILL IN THIS BLANK AND MAIL TO YOUR CONGRESSMAN

House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

Help the Postal Employes

Dear Sir:—As one who appreciates the justice of the plan of the letter carriers and postal clerks for a 25 per cent, increase in salary I ask you to support, with voice and vote, the bill that will give these deserving employes an immediate increase in pay. No class of men of whom such special training, intelligence and loyalty is required, is so poorly paid, and in justice, to them, as well as to maintain the ligh standard of the postal service, the immediate passage of an emergency measure to meet present conditions due to the high cost of living, is requested; with further action later to place them on the permanent basis of remuneration that equity demands.

Very Truly Yours,

Name

Note—By clipping the blank form printed above and mailing to your representative in Congress and to the chairman of the House and Senate Committee on Post Offices and Postroads, you can give aid in securing for the postal employes the salaries you know they deserve. The Congressman representing Dauphin, Lebanon and Cumberland counties is A. S. Kreider. John M. Bankhead of Alabama, is chairman of the Senate Post Office Committee and John A. Moon, of Tennessee is chairman of the House Post Office Committee. All may be addressed to Washington, D. C. Help your friends, the postal employes, by sending in your petition.

Purdy Tells Delegates
at Labor Conference

Nottingham, Eng., Jan. 23.—At the opening to-day of the annual labor conference Frank Purdy, the president, said that if Germany would not accept the terms of President Wilson, Premier Lloyd George and the labor party had laid down as the minimum, "we must fight on."

President xurdy said that in view of the declarations of President wilson and Premier Lloyd George, Germany could claim no longer that she was fighting at defensive war.

"We see no signs yet," he added, "that Germany and her allies are willing to accept the principles enunciated by Lloyd George, Mr. Wilson and the labor party."

Mr. Purdy said peace by negotiation while Germany was occupying territory of other countries would be a victory for Germany.
