Cash and Carry Plan Taking With the People

It is evident that the people everywhere are taking kindly to the "cash and carry plan" as inaugurated by several grocers in the city. Yet two or three years ago these same people looked with horror on the idea of carrying home their groceries. That necessitated large delivery facilities which as a matter of fact cost large sums of money yearly to the consumer, not the grocer, for he has to charge such things to expense. Progressive grocers have seen that with the advance of prices, something had to be done to hold prices down as much as possible so that the consumer would get as much for a dollar as was possible. One of these changes, that of taking off unnecessary overhead expenses has ushered in the "cash and carry plan."

One of these grocers, who has pushed this plan forward is S. S. Etter at 1515 Derry Street. Seeing the advantage for the consumer in this plan Mr. Etter has perfected it so that he can give the lowest possible prices for every commodity that he sells. Mr. Etter while long in the grocery business, has just recently opened this store at 1515 Derry street. The entire stock is absolutely fresh and the prices for quality are as low as the market will permit. This store is equipped with all the latest fixtures in the grocery line, a coffee mill of the latest type, a slicing machine, that is right up to date for slicing smoked meats, up to date scales and a good many other appliances for the betterment of the grocery trade.

Another word that is necessary in regard to the "cash and carry plan"; some people do not realize just what this means to them. By carrying home your groceries you save the expense of delivery and this is a big item, thereby lowering the price of the groceries that much. With competition as it is to-day the grocer has to make his prices as low as possible. If you are not entirely familiar with this plan see Mr. Etter who will gladly explain it to you and also the advantage of buying your stock for the larder under this plan.

Buy Your Automobile Before the Auto Show Rush

With the Auto Show just a short distance off and the opening up of spring not so very far away, people are beginning to get alive to the fact that they should have their order in for spring delivery. With traffic conditions on the railroad tied up in such a way that it is impossible to estimate the time of delivery of any article, it is imperative that your order should be placed at such a time that you will not feel almost certain that you will not be among those who will have to wait maybe weeks for their car.

There always are a large number of orders placed during the Auto Show for the Ford car and this year will be no exception to the rule. However the delivery question will no doubt disappoint a large number of people this year. The thing to do then is to beat the times, get ahead of the rest, place your order so as to give the local distributors a chance to get your car here by the time you want it.

The Ford car is as well known here as it is anywhere and needs no introduction to the users of this vicinity. The local distributors for this famous car are the Williams Motor Car Co., at 129 Market St. They have on hand at the present time a number of cars for immediate delivery. Don't forget that the time is now and the car is the Ford, the Place is 129 Market St., the Firm, Williams Motor Car Co.

Credit Store Big Help to the Workingman

That credit stores, which conduct their business in such a way that a person gets full value for every dollar expended, is a big help to the average working man, goes without saying. The unusual high prices that have to be maintained to-day because of conditions that cannot be helped, are a drag for the man who is working for a stipulated salary, inasmuch as he cannot pay the full amount for any article that goes over a certain limit and without credit stores he, no doubt, would have to deprive himself of necessary articles. As it is through the cooperation of credit stores, prominent among those of Harrisburg is the Gately-Fitzgerald Supply Co. a person can now get any article he desires.

The Gately-Fitzgerald Co. store is in South Second street, just below the Square, and they handle all articles for furnishing the person, the home and many other numerous articles of necessity and luxury. This big firm maintains stores in seventy-four cities of the United States. This in itself is a big thing, but what speaks louder than words, is the person who can realize big business, is the buying power that maintaining so many stores gives this big firm. And buying power of this magnitude is a large deduction from the selling price of an article, means lower prices than the small merchant can possibly equal. The Gately-Fitzgerald Co.'s retail prices are in accordance with their buying prices, low, to give their customers the advantage of the above-mentioned buying prices.

Any one who is in doubt about the quality of goods and the low prices that are maintained by this firm, are invited to come into the store and look over the values, the prices and compare them with any others maintained anywhere.

War-Time Pieces Popular With the Music Lovers

Since the advent of the United States into the world war, there have been quite a number of pieces on the market about Sammies at home and abroad. These pieces like those of Civil War days are fast in stilling themselves into the hearts of all Americans. There is nothing so thrilling or so quieting as a good old war piece when sung upon the hearthstone on an evening. Music brings back sweet memories of other days and instills patriotism. A good many families are turning to the son at the front fighting for his country and what is nicer than to bring back memories of him through song.

There are a good many people who are lovers of music and yet who have no musical instrument in their home with which to enjoy these beautiful war songs. There is no reason why this should be because today there are music firms that sell musical instruments on easy payment plans. This is a sure way to save money as well as get what you wish. By putting a few dollars a month into an instrument, it is surprising how soon you get it paid for. Then it is all yours and think of the many pleasant evenings that can be spent around the piano or phonograph.

H. G. Day, who conducts a music house on the Hill, sells these instruments on the credit system. In fact a large part of his business is done in this way. Pianos, violins, phonographs, and other musical instruments are sold at prices and terms that can meet the requirements of most anyone. Mr. Day's store is at 1421 Derry street, and he extends a cordial invitation to everyone to come and see his new store and the large line of instruments which he handles.

NO DISTINCTION MADE. Gettysburg, Pa., Jan. 24.—President McDonnell, of the Borough Council, has announced the appointment of committees and in making these appointments has made no distinction between Democrats and Republicans, giving each one of the eight men in the Council one chairmanship.

Specialties in Groceries Aid Consumer

It is becoming more and more apparent that specialties are fast becoming the rule in the grocery business. With the serious conditions facing us, with the heavy snows of the last two weeks tying up transportation facilities, many staple articles are very hard to get if they can be gotten at all. This makes it very hard for the housewife to prepare meals with the same amount of thought as before. With prices as high as possible and some even higher, it is nip and tuck to figure out the menu for dinner, and here is where the specialties come in.

Egg-Sub is a specialty that is fast becoming a reality. For the benefit of the many who do not know the wonderful nutritious value of this product let us say that it is a very good substitute for eggs. With eggs at seventy cents a dozen, they are far beyond the reach of a good many people. Never-the-less eggs are a necessary article for many household uses and a substitute of this time is indeed welcome. Egg-Sub is a pure food product of the highest order. A 4 oz. package is equivalent to four fresh eggs and will accomplish as much in almost any kind of baking and cooking. It makes a fine cake and is equally as good in soups, salad dressings, muffins, puddings, ice cream or any kind of baking or cooking. This product is handled by Hoy's Grocery Stores at 412 Woodbine street and 1741 Locust street, both wholesale and retail. If you are not already acquainted with it try them at once. Besides these specialties Mr. Hoy handles a full line of staple and fancy groceries, fruits and vegetables.

Fresh-Roaster Coffee Has Stronger Flavor

It is a well-known fact that coffee that has just been roasted is much stronger in flavor than coffee that has been sitting on a shelf for a couple of weeks. One big advantage gained from roasting coffee every day, beside the stronger flavor, is the fact that it is not so subject to mold and does not stand around and absorb the flavors of anything that has been sitting on a shelf for a couple of weeks. A few but not so many. They don't look into the reason for the poor coffee they are drinking and are content to take advantage of this fact? A few but not so many. They don't look into the reason for the poor coffee they are drinking and are content to take advantage of this fact? A few but not so many. Steelton Drug Store Sells Cut Rate Drugs

Paul P. Ziegler, the Steelton druggist, with a store at Front and Conestoga streets, has started the popular plan to sell drugs at cut rate prices. This step is in line with the movement to conserve at every possible angle. Drugs as a matter of fact are an expensive item. However with colds and grip and sickness of all kinds, drugs are as essential as food. All patent medicines handled by Mr. Ziegler have come under the hammer, prices being cut down as much as possible to give the customer as big a value as possible. Mr. Ziegler uses his display windows to show the passing public the wonderful bargains he has on certain days. It will pay you to watch his windows.

Besides patent medicines, prescriptions are very carefully compounded. Mr. Ziegler, who is a graduate of the best Pharmaceutical School in the country, makes a special study of this end of the business. Each and every prescription is given the utmost attention to have the right drug and the necessary amount as prescribed by the doctor.

Piano Polishing An Art That Is Not Well Known

Many people who pride themselves in the brightness of the polish on their piano or other high polished furniture are at a loss what to do when the polish begins to lose its gloss. This is an every-day occurrence, for will the use of different furniture polishes and constant use, the polish is bound to wear off. There is a man now in Harrisburg who has had twenty years experience in the polishing and refinishing of pianos, high-grade and antique furniture, who announces that he will be open to do all kinds of work along this line. This man is Mr. William Brown, of the Sigler Piano House, on north Second street. For the last three years Mr. Brown has been head polisher of the Famous Sigler Pianos at the Sigler factory on Eighteenth street. With all this valuable experience and backed by the name of the famous Sigler factory, Mr. Brown is a very satisfied job of any line of refinishing work is assured.

Mr. Brown also repairs broken pianos in high grade furniture and pianos that have been broken out or has been badly marred by severe use. This work is all done so neatly and carefully that it is difficult to distinguish it from new work. Mr. Brown, while not as yet definitely located, can be found at the Sigler Music House at 30 N. Second street. He can do certain kinds of the coffee they use. The roaster is mechanically perfect and roasts coffee and peanuts as well and in fact better than the large roasters used by large coffee concerns.
