The offer of the Steelton Water Department was made after a meeting of the Steelton water board, called by President T. J. Nelly, of the Borough Council. The plan which was worked out was suggested to city officials by Oliver P. Baskins, superintendent of the water department. It is planned to lay Baskins, superintendent of the water department. It is planned to lay two lines of firehose from the main at Front and Gibson streets, Steelton, to a plug near the Elliott-Fisher Company plant in South Cameron street. This will give the city about 500,000 gallons daily from the Steelton department, which furnishes filtered water. The supply will be used for the lower end of the city.

Exhibitions this year will be unusually attractive. There have been so many improvements in motor utility cars in the past twelve months that everybody, owners, prospective owners and citizens in general will find much that will interest them at the show this year. The show will be under the direction of Harrisburg Motor Dealers' Association of which George G. McFarland is president. This organization includes as members all dealers in utility cars.

cago, and bound for North Philadeiphia, where it was due at 7.19 o'clock yesterday morning. A broken brake rigging on the mail car of this train caused the wreck.

William A. Gawthrop, chief mail clerk, is reported to have told officials of the road that he had the roughest ride of his life" in the postal coach. He said that the jolting became so bad from Downingtown, Pa., that he complained to the conductor.

Arrangements were made to have the car examined at North Philadelphia station, but at the first arch of the tridge that spans the West Park drive leading to Sweet Briar Mairich, the broken rigging derailed the mailcan and threw on the brakes.

Mnil Coach Covers Track

The mail coach slued around in the path of train No. 230, an express which left Broad Street Station on schedule time. The local train sliced through the mail car lengthwise and halved it as clean as a razor cuts cleese. Jumes M. Ulsh, West Lemon street, Lancaster, Pa., who was busy sorting mail, was killed instantly, booths and sections in snape for the exhibits.

Special features will be introduced every day including concerts by the Updegrove orchestra. The show will start Saturday night and will be open each day except Tuesday from 10 a. m. until 10 p. m. There will be special days. Cumberland Valley folks are coming Wednesday and Thursday. Lebanon Valley visitors are due Thursday and those from the points north and west are expected Wednesday and Thursday. Lancaster promises a crowd on Friday.
