Central tossers will journey to Central tossers will journey to Steelton to-night where they will play the Steelton High five. It is expected to be a fast and interesting contest. The two teams are evenly matched. Owing to Dr. Garfield's fuel edict and also to the fact that the hall was being used this week, the Central team has been able to hold but one practice.

Frank in the Game

Frank will try hard to keep his place as highest scorer. During the last week he has been practising shooting fouls and has made a marked improvement. The remainder of the team will probably be the same as that which started against Lebanon last week. Wolfe and Fields will begin at 6 very last two guard positions, Frank at center, Wright and Goodiel at forwards. Coach Wallower may make some change at the last minute.

The preliminary contest will be tween the Freshmen and Sophs in an interclass affair. The teams are evenly matched and a close game should result. Dancing will feature at the close of the games. The first tilt will begin at 8 o'clock. The tams will line up as follows:

Railroad problems have entered largely into the discussions, however, and the committee is going a little slower for the reason that they want to be fortified for a letting down on the railroad efficiency of former seasons. Garry Herrmann, chairman of the National Commission, while not a member of the schedule committee, stayed over today, and will likely be a member of the party until the work is completed.

The Tech team will be without the services of Captain Ebner. It is likely that "Red" Huston will break linto the game with the locals, as he is a member of the Hassett team, and will be at home on that floor more than the other members of the squad.

The carcass weighed about 800 pounds, which is considerably below normal, indicating that the game suffered through lack of food during the severe winter. The other nine elks, all cows, are to be unmolested, but the shooting of the male animal prevent; any further attempt to propagate elk in this section. Omaha, Neb., Jan. 25. — Grover Cleveland Alexander, the pitcher for whom the Chicago Nationals paid the Phillies $50,000 along with his battery mate, Catcher Killifer, admitted that he had informed President Weeghman, of the Chicago Club, that he would not play ball next season unless given a part of the purchase price. Alexander contends that he cost the Philadelphia club only $750, that he served it faithfully and that he is entitled to part of the money the club received for his contract.

Weeghman, Alexander said, told him to make his demands to William F. Baker, president of the Philadelphia club. Although Alexander has declined to say what amount he had in the contends the conten
