

O'NEIL GIVEN BIG HOME GREETING

Attorney General Brown Out For Him in Ringing Speech at Pittsburgh

State Highway Commissioner J. Denny O'Neil's boom for the Republican nomination for governor was given big impetus in western Pennsylvania at a dinner tendered to the candidate by Allegheny county admirers in Pittsburgh last night. Attorney General Brown coming out for him as the man he considers eminently fitted to be governor, with a general lining up of state administration and

"dry" forces in western counties at a series of meetings held in the Smoky City. The dinner, however, was the leading feature of the series of events yesterday and Mr. O'Neil was given a most gratifying greeting. Among the prominent Republicans at the dinner were Attorney General Brown, Insurance Commissioner Ambler, Judge George A. Baldwin of Beaver county, District Attorney Harry A. Rowand; Dr. James A. Kerr, recent candidate for mayor; City Councilman W. J. Burke, W. Y. English and John S. Herron, was chairman, and the Kiker, Deputy Attorney General, Kun and Daugherty; W. D. Craig, Senator from Beaver county; Assemblymen Mearkic, Vickers and McVicar, Sheriff G. W. Richards, and Judge W. D. Wallace, of Lawrence county, and others. Hyatt M. Cribbs, former member of the Legislature, was chairman, and James A. Clark, who supported E. V. Eabcock for mayor, was toastmaster. In a letter to the secretary of the banquet committee, Governor Brumbaugh said, among other things: "I have known Mr. O'Neil for many years, and in every case he has made good in a commanding way. This is emphatically the day of reform and of support for men of the heroic mould of J. Denny O'Neil. I am proud of his record, and willingly join his many friends in wishing for him greater honors." After Prof. A. H. List, the blind musician, had spoken on "Denny as I Know Him," Attorney General Brown delivered the main address of the evening on "The Man and the Hour." In his address Mr. O'Neil referred to his candidacy in part as follows: "Now, on the threshold of what will be my greatest battle, I want to say in this presence that if it is necessary for me to recant one word or recede one iota from the stand I have taken on the great moral and economic problems of the day in order to win, I will refuse to compromise. I would rather go down to defeat. It is not necessary to win, but it is absolutely necessary that I stand true to my convictions. It matters little to me and less to you whether I ever hold office, but it is of vital importance to every man, woman and child in the state that the principles for which I stand shall win. "I stand four-square upon the great moral and economic problems of the day. I am for national prohibition and all other measures that will improve living conditions, make happier homes and give our boys and girls a better chance to make good. "Special privileges" must go. "The people are supreme. Let their will be known. I am going into this fight confident that right will triumph. Victory is ours if the men who stand for right and decency will register, enroll and vote." Attorney General Brown said the question to be determined at the November election is whether the government of the state for the next four years is to be one of special and privileged interests or of and for the people. He spoke of measures for the welfare of the people that have signalled the Brumbaugh administration and said only those committed to sustain them and add thereto others of kindred character should be sent to the legislative halls. Continuing, he said: "The Republican party will be invincible if it puts the banner of leadership in the hands of one whose political antecedents and associations are above reproach, whose attitude yesterday will be sufficient promise of his position to-morrow on the great questions touching and affecting the social and economic welfare of the masses. To select another is to invite disaster. "As chief executive of this state, no just interest would need have any fear; no unjust one will need expect any quarter. There would be no side-door keys to his executive favor. It would be a government in the daylight, open to the view and having in view the rightful interests of all the people, without distinction of class, creed or condition." CAMP CURTIN COMPANY OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY Celebration of their anniversary was observed in Maennerchor Hall, last night by the Camp Curtin Fire Company. Addresses by Mayor Keister, H. C. Demming, Augustus Wildman and William Strouse were features of the program. A large number of the members were present. The Veterans Volunteer Firemen's Association will hold election of officers in their rooms, 923 North Third street, this evening. All members are urged to be present. RUSH-DILLER WEDDING Marietta, Pa., Jan. 25.—Mrs. Harriet G. Diller, a daughter of the late Adam Geist, of Blue Ball, was married Wednesday night to Charles W. Rush, proprietor of the Brownville Hotel, by the Rev. S. M. Mountz, pastor of the New Holland Lutheran Church. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride.
