

INTERESTING PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

COUNTRY CLUB'S ANNUAL MEETING

New Board of Governors to Organize Immediately After the Session

Members of the Country Club of Harrisburg were to-day urged by President John Fox Weiss to forget the cold and turn out for the annual meeting of the club to-night at 8 o'clock in the lower hall of the Board of Trade. The meeting will be the first under the new by-laws and fifteen members, the entire list, of the board of governors will be chosen. The officers of the club will make a complete financial statement, a report on the new property and building and of the plans for the coming summer.

The board of governors will organize immediately after the club meeting. Nominations are as follows:

To serve until February, 1919: Francis J. Hall, A. Boyd Hamilton, W. Orville Hickok, III, Fred B. Harry, Vance C. McCormick.

To serve until February, 1921: R. Boone Abbott, Quincy Bent, John C. Herman, Lesley McCreath, Edwin E. Klester.

Walter P. Maguire, B. Boyd Harrington, Frank Payne, William H. Neil, William P. Starkey.

YOUNG PORTRAIT PAINTER A BRIDE

MR. & MRS. COYD BICKLEY YOST

The marriage of Miss Anna Elizabeth Taylor, of York, a young portrait artist, to Coyd Bickley Yost, of Fairmount, West Virginia, took place to-day at the home of the bride's father, William L. Taylor, general manager of the York Dispatch and the York Daily, in the presence of a large gathering of friends.

Sourbier-Wolz Marriage Takes Place in Cathedral

The marriage of Miss Mary C. Wolz, daughter of Mrs. Nellie Wolz, 202 Harris street, to Edward V. Sourbier of this city, took place yesterday morning at 9 o'clock in St. Patrick's Cathedral with the Rev. Thomas E. Johnson officiating. The bride wore a stylish suit of gray cloth with hat of her color. Her corsage bouquet was of bride roses and valley lilies.

Miss Gertrude Dunn, the maid of honor, wore dark blue cloth with taupe hat and carried an arm bunch of pink roses. George Sourbier III was best man for his brother and John Elscheld played the wedding marches.

Wedding breakfast for the immediate families followed the service at the bride's home. Following an Eastern honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Sourbier will be "at home" at 292 Harris street.

The bride is a graduate of the Cathedral High school and a member of the Harrisburg Academy and the Eckels College of Embalming, Philadelphia. He is prominent in athletics, a member of the Hasketball team and the Harrisburg and Lewisburg professional teams. He is now in business with his father in this city.

Mrs. Lawrence Celebrates Her Sixtieth Birthday

Mrs. Jefferson Lawrence, of New Market, entertained pleasantly for a few days in honor of her sixtieth birthday. Music by Miss Alberta Crosby, Miss Sarah Kugel and Leo Robinson were enjoyed. The house decorations were roses, carnations, ferns and potted plants. Refreshments were served to the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Kugel and daughters, Sarah, Ruth and Helen, Mrs. Harry Brahm and children, Edgar, Ethel, Gertrude, Margaret, Jennie and Harry, Mrs. Anna Crosby and daughter, Albert, Carl Beck and Leo Robinson, of Harrisburg.

Mrs. Lawrence Celebrates Her Sixtieth Birthday

Mrs. Jefferson Lawrence, of New Market, entertained pleasantly for a few days in honor of her sixtieth birthday. Music by Miss Alberta Crosby, Miss Sarah Kugel and Leo Robinson were enjoyed. The house decorations were roses, carnations, ferns and potted plants. Refreshments were served to the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Kugel and daughters, Sarah, Ruth and Helen, Mrs. Harry Brahm and children, Edgar, Ethel, Gertrude, Margaret, Jennie and Harry, Mrs. Anna Crosby and daughter, Albert, Carl Beck and Leo Robinson, of Harrisburg.

Seiler School Students Form Red Cross Auxiliary

The students of the Seiler School met yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the organization of their Red Cross Auxiliary, such as is being formed in practically all schools throughout the country.

Plans for definite work were arranged and the officers elected. It was decided that the students would meet every Monday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at the school rooms for Red Cross work.

The officers elected for the auxiliary are: Chairman, Miss Eliza Kunkel; vice-chairman, Miss Mabel Wright; secretary, Miss Lydia Kunkel; treasurer, Miss Cecelia Kunkel.

Reunion of Children in National Service

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Storrs Bigelow, of Buffalo, former Harrisburgers, had a reunion of their children in the national service in Atlantic City, this week. Harris Storrs Bigelow is in the aviation branch at East Greenwich, Rhode Island. Allen Caryl Bigelow is in the transportation division of the quartermaster's department now stationed at Washington, D. C. and Lieutenant Karl E. Wilhelm, who recently married Miss Esther Bigelow, is serving with the Third Hundred and Eighth Infantry at Camp Upton, Yaphank, L. I.

Mrs. Covert's Party For Miss Jennie Cramer

Mrs. M. M. Covert entertained some young folks at her home, 277 Calder street, in honor of Miss Jennie Cramer, who has returned home after a two months' absence spent in visiting in various places.

Music, games and refreshments were enjoyed by: Mr. and Mrs. F. McFadden, and Mrs. J. A. Stephenson, Mrs. E. L. Marks, Mrs. H. English, Mrs. H. W. Wiche, Mrs. Mary Golden, Mrs. Bingham, Mrs. Deitzinger, the Misses Ella, Edith and Mary Bakam, Mrs. Hoar, John Golden, the Misses Annie, Grace and Fannie Woolf.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

The Laetus Club of the Y. W. C. A. were entertained last evening by Mrs. John W. Gorman, Jr., who gave a club supper in their honor. After the supper a business session was held and the following officers were elected: Miss Ruth Arnold, president; Miss Lillian Adams, secretary; and Miss Clara Houser, treasurer. Mrs. Paul Bostford, Miss Edna Kessler were elected club representatives to the Council of the Federation of Industrial Clubs, to present were: Mrs. Paul Bostford, Miss Bertha Adams, Miss Clara Houser, Miss Edna Kessler, Miss Lillian McClain, Miss Christine Miller, Mrs. Sarah E. Meyer, Miss Ella M. Stitt, Miss Scott and Mrs. German.

Industrial Survey to Be Taken

Through the efforts of the Industrial Committee of the Y. W. C. A. an industrial survey of Harrisburg is being taken in order that the needs of girls in various employments may be made known. The work of the local association is branching out in many new ways under the direction of the committee. Reports for the work of January were submitted by Miss Lois G. Scott. The following were appointed to serve on a work committee: Mrs. Mary Snyder Towland, Miss Doris Rothert, and Mrs. Henry Gross. The local association will be represented at the convention of industrial workers to be held in the Williams Building, Philadelphia, February 12. The principal speaker is to be Miss Florence Sarver, who is a member of the Pennsylvania committee on industry of the Council of National Defense.

Those who attended yesterday's meeting included: Mrs. J. B. Caruthers, Miss Marian Leib, Miss Catherine Kelly, Mrs. Helen Gross, Miss Frances Acuff, Miss Susanne Westbrook, Mrs. Harold H. Baldwin, Mrs. John W. Gorman, Mrs. Mary Snyder Towland, Mrs. George A. Matson, Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones, Miss Lois G. Scott and Miss Ella M. Stitt, general secretary.

222%

That represents our increase in business for January, 1918, over last January.

THE REASON? Plain as can be. Fresh cut flowers daily from our own greenhouses, courteous attention to our customer friends and LOW PRICES makes a combination hard to beat.

LET US PROVE IT.

Keeney's Flower Shop

810 N. 3rd

"Our Business Is Growing"

Member Reily Hose Co. Returns to Camp Hancock

Robert L. Gully, who visited his father, James R. Gully, at 135 Keller street, for the past week, has returned to Camp Hancock.

He enlisted in Company K, Eighth Regiment, of York, last year, but has since been transferred to Company A, One Hundred and Ninth Machine Gun Battalion.

He is a member of the Reily Hose Company and was employed in the cutting department of the Harrisburg Apparel Company before enlisting. "Bob" is well known as a basketball player and is going some on the diamond at camp. He likes Army life and is anxious to go over into the big game on the other side.

Wednesday Club Gives Annual Choral Concert

The annual choral concert of the Wednesday Club will be given Thursday evening at 8.15 o'clock in Fahnstock Hall, with a well-arranged program. Miss Wilbur F. Harris is the leader and Miss Mabel Wittmeyer the accompanist.

Beside the choral numbers, George Sutton will sing the "Good-bye Song" and "The Pauper's Daughter," with Bent L. Weaver at the piano. There will be several instrumental selections, including "The March of the Soldiers," by Albert Rinkbach, and the Misses LeNora Fry and Margaret Vaughn, harpists.

All classes of members are privileged to attend this concert on presentation of their regular tickets. All others may attend by the payment of the usual fee.

Rehearsals for the Wednesday Club Chorus, of which Mrs. Wilbur F. Harris is director, which were scheduled for this afternoon and to-morrow morning, will be held at 7 o'clock to-morrow evening at the home of Mrs. Harris, who has been called to Bellefonte by the death of her mother, Mrs. Henry B. Harris. The next rehearsal for the concert which will be given Thursday evening will take place to-morrow evening at 7.30 o'clock in Fahnstock Hall.

German Hangs Self Rather Than Register

Shamokin, Pa., Jan. 5.—Having voted in this county for the past thirty years without having been naturalized, Frank Vaaslow, a German, committed suicide early to-day rather than reveal his duplicity. It was brought out by the coroner's investigation. He hanged himself to a bedpost, over which he had draped an American flag.

Vaaslow, who was formerly at a big packing plant here, would have been forced to register under the federal enemy alien order, effective to-day. He was 55 years old.

Fire Destroys Buildings Valued at $100,000 at Aberdeen, Maryland

Aberdeen, Md., Feb. 5.—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed eight business buildings here early to-day entailing losses which totalled about $100,000. The wreckage was piled from one and one-half to three stories in height and included the post office building and the general store, Tarrington's hardware store and Irvin's drug store. A detachment of soldiers and fire apparatus from the new army providing grounds, rendered effective assistance in extinguishing the blaze, which at one time threatened to destroy the town. Below zero weather and frozen hydrants hampered the fire fighters.

John Philip Sousa Offers His Baton at Auction

Chicago, Feb. 5.—Lieutenant John Philip Sousa, bandmaster at the Great Lakes naval training station, offered his historic baton at auction for the benefit of the fund which is being raised to obtain baseball equipment for the jacks and it was sold for $120 it became known to-day. The wand had been in the possession of the noted bandmaster for forty-eight years, having been presented to him in 1870 by members of the band of which he was then leader.

SIX DAYS LEFT FOR U. S. SOLDIER TO INSURE

Relatives of boys in the service were reminded to-day by the Home Service Section of the local Red Cross chapter that only six days now remain in which they may apply for government insurance. To secure this insurance it is only necessary to get in touch with headquarters, now located in the old Fager school building, in Washington, where Mrs. William Laubenstein, chairman, has her office. Here blanks may be had, signed by relatives of soldiers and forwarded to them, and the chairman is always ready to confer with any one.

According to the statement issued, the vast majority of local soldier boys come within the class from which applications for wartime insurance will not be received after next week.

FEDERAL AID FOR FARMERS

Washington, Feb. 4.—Federal aid for Montana farmers, threatened with a complex season through a seed grain shortage, was urged upon the House Agricultural Committee to-day by Representative Rankin. Because of recent crop failures, Miss Rankin said, sixty per cent. of the farmers cannot pay for their seed.

Mrs. Floyd Appleton Giving a Red Cross Tea

Mrs. Charles C. Miller, of Brooklyn, is expected in the city to-morrow for a visit with her cousin Mrs. Floyd Appleton, Second and Emerald streets. Mrs. Miller who has a son holding a lieutenant in the Army, has recently originated a gauze folder, adopted by the Brooklyn Red Cross and Thursday afternoon she will demonstrate the device, arranged on the principal of a curtain stretcher, at the local Red Cross rooms.

Saturday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock, Mrs. Appleton will give a Red Cross tea at her home in honor of Mrs. Miller. It will be an informal affair and the guests are asked to bring their knitting. All women of the neighborhood as well as any one interested in the Red Cross are cordially invited to come.

MISS GROVE ENTERTAINS

Miss Charlotte Grove, 648 Schuylkill street, entertained a number of friends at a "Baby Party" last evening. Dancing and games were held during the evening. Refreshments were served to Miss Eleanor Eby, Miss Nancy McCullough, Miss Mildred DeShong, Miss Frances Grove, Miss Margaret Good, Miss Hazel Collier and Miss Charlotte Grove. Edwin Rockerfeller, Albert Rinkbach, Fred Wright, William McBride, Robert Crist, Kenneth Winger, Seymour Nisley and Ross Hoffman.

Mrs. Charles E. Covert, of 202 West State street, is spending a few days at Atlantic City.

Hammer, of 1109 North Second street.

Missionary Auxiliary Hears Inspiring Talks

Inspiring talks were given yesterday afternoon before the Harrisburg center of the Woman's Auxiliary, held in the Parish House of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, with Miss Anna Watts of Mechanicsburg, presiding. The Rev. Rollin Alger Sawyer led the devotional exercises and after the service tea was served.

Mrs. Frances Brown, of Yonkers, N. Y., who was born in China while her parents were missionaries there gave personal reminiscences of the life in the "Flowery Kingdom" and Miss Florence Lukens Newbold, teacher of expression at Irving college read in Chinese costume, the story of a little Chinese girl who wanted to enter a Christian school in which there was no room for her and Mrs. Brown showed that the gates are wide open for the establishing of Christianity but workers and funds are sorely needed to meet the opportunity.

Miss Flora Bentzel and Miss Edith Bentzel, of 1006 North Second street, were called to Philadelphia for the funeral of their uncle, Dr. Elmer E. Bentzel, yesterday.

Miss Laura Bishop and her brother, Paul F. Bishop, of Corning, N. Y., were recent guests of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Young, of Green street.

James Richardson went home to Buffalo to-day after a week's stay among old friends in the city.

Sergeant Richard Hamer has returned to Camp Hancock, Georgia, after a several days' furlough, spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hamer, of 1109 North Second street.

Richard Rauch Enters Officers' Reserve Camp

Richard Harvey Rauch left last night for Watertown, Mass., where he will enter the Ordnance Officers Reserve Camp at the Watertown Arsenal, with the State College unit, composed of fifty-eight college men. They have just completed a special ordnance course at State College and have been ordered by the War Department to Watertown for a six weeks' course there. After finishing this course they will be assigned for duty.

"Dick" Rauch is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rauch, of 130 South street. He is a graduate of Tech and Bethlehem Preparatory School. He was captain of State's freshman football team of 1916 and played left end on the varsity squad last season.

Miss Elizabeth Hurlock, a student of Bryn Mawr College, is with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Hurlock, North Front street, for the midyear holidays.

Mrs. William H. Wilson, of 525 Maclay street, was in Carlisle yesterday attending the funeral of an old friend.

Walter S. Randolph and Miss Marie Randolph, of Richmond, Va., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harper Thompson, of Green street.

Miss Kathleen Westbrook, of Melrose, is spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ruhl, in Reading.

Miss Charlotte Weston and Miss Beatrice Weston have gone to Baltimore, after a week's visit among relatives in this vicinity.

Carl B. Ely, of 305 North Front street, spent yesterday in Washington.

Beautiful Furnishings

require an appropriate frame. Just as you give care to the framing of a valued picture or painting, so the furnishings of your home should be framed in an attractive setting of wall paper selected with thought to the lighting arrangement, color value and artistic appeal.

Our choice wall papers differ from the ordinary commercial selection because we are specialists in making homes beautiful, and give careful thought to the artistic fitness of color and design.

The Blake Shop

Interior Decorations
225 North Second St.

Linen and Leisure

Send your laundry to the CITY STAR. We will wash it carefully with pure soaps and filtered water, and return it promptly—fresh, clean and sweet.

You will then have more leisure for pleasant things. Phone us to call for your laundry. One of our eleven wagons will come immediately.

City Star Laundry

(Harrisburg's Largest Laundry)
1005 North Sixth Street
Both Phones

Two Rich, Tasty Coffees

Those who like GOOD coffee should buy a pound of both these two rich, tasty coffees.

Well blended and fresh roasted daily, they have a fragrance and flavor that make them popular with particular housewives. Try a pound of both. Then see which has just the flavor you like.

Golden Roast Coffee 30c Pound
Old Favorite Coffee 25c Pound

is blended from the very finest beans. Fresh roasted and packaged in moisture-proof packages. It is as good as most 35c coffees.

is popular for its fine flavor and economical price. Four cents is saved by packaging it in stout moisture-proof bags lined with glassine. As good as most 30c coffees.

LYONS' Golden Roast Coffee

Take this advertisement to your grocer. Get a pound of both these good coffees. Then see which you like best.

R. H. LYON

Importer
Harrisburg, Pa.

OLD FAVORITE COFFEE

R. H. LYON, HARRISBURG, PA.

These Good Foods Combine to Make Another Food—"Purity" Margarine

PHILADELPHIA BRANCH:
40 South Delaware Avenue.

THERE is nothing in "Purity" Margarine that you do not eat with relish at your dinner table and use every day in your cooking.

"Purity" Margarine looks, tastes, smells, and is so much like butter that it takes an expert chemist to tell the difference.

Buy "Purity" Margarine because it is "Purity" Margarine—a pure, wholesome, and energy-yielding food.

"Purity" Margarine costs much less than butter. Indeed, its use will save you at least 15 cents on every pound you buy, compared with the price of butter. "Purity" Margarine is Government-inspected.

CAPITAL CITY DAIRY CO.
Columbus, Ohio

"The Test of Taste Will Save You The Price of Prejudice"

AN EXAMPLE—Solid Mahogany Cane Wing Chairs and Rockers (exactly as illustrated) regular $15.00 values. February Furniture Sale Price, each $10.95.

The Difference in the Goldsmith February Furniture Sale Is That THE VALUES ARE GREATER

"Thrif" is in the air! Upon everybody's lips! And for that reason people are buying Furniture here wisely and well—taking greater interest in the worthwhile kinds of Furniture—the sort of Furniture upon which the GOLDSMITH store built its reputation for sterling quality and true worth at prices within reach of all.

Regardless of whether you are going to buy good modest Furniture or the more elaborate period styles—both are here—you owe it to yourself to find out that your money will buy more real, true value here.

Come in—look around—make comparisons—you'll not be importuned to buy.

Harrisburg's Best Furniture Store

GOLDSMITH'S

North Market Square