The drifts are the biggest even The drifts are the biggest ever known in the history of the road. The car is an electric one, but yes-terday on account of the snow, steam vas substituted. When the attempt to get through the cut was made two of the engines pulled while the other two pushed. The car at one time was buried in snow to the passengers that the frail wooden car would be crushed by the great force exerted. After a twenty-one hour fight, with the passengers without food for that length of time, the task was given up. as given up.

people is much more serious because Governor Brumbaugh's successor next January will have nothing whatever to do with the prohibition amendment. It is simply a matter of ratification by the Legislature and under no circumstances—approved or rejected—will it go to the gov-ernor for his action. Should Senator W. C. Sproul hap-pen to declare in favor of prohibi-tion or even indicate affirmative ac-tion on such a proposition Highway Commissioner O'Neil would not have a leg to stand on. So that any en-dorsement of O'Neil at this time by the organized temperance forces simply because he happens to be a trustee of the Anti-Saloon League, is regarded as camouflage and a pal-pable attempt to deceive the fair-minded temperance element of the state.

"Mr. O'Neil's friends have made a serious mistake," said a prominent Republican to-day. "I have felt somewhat interested in his contest, but manifestly he is plunging for a fail when he assumes to ride the prohibition horse exclusively, know-ing that he will have nothing what-ever to do with the amendment even should he be elected." So it ap-pears that unless the Anti-Saloon managers get awake they will again waste their ammunition in a fight for governor when they should be using all their energy to elect mem-bers of the Senate and House fa-vorable to the amendment and with-out regard to party affiliations. Senator Beidleman, of Dauphin, is looked upon with favor in some quar-ters because of his strength with the workingmen of Pennsylvania, and the name of James Scarlet, the brilliant Bloomsburg lawyer, is also mentioned. Whether he would con-sider the nomination does not ap-pear to have been discussed, but it is conceded that he would be a strong factor in any campaign. The fact that he is an up-state man is also one of the reasons given by those who have mentioned his name for suggesting Scarlet.
