NEW SERIES AT GRACE M. E.

Dr. Bagnell Will Have Charge of Services in Drive For the Kingdom

Dr. Robert Bagnell, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, has announced the Grace Church Drive For the Kingdom from February 10 to March 3. Services will be held every night except Saturday, beginning at 7.45 o'clock and ending shortly after 9 o'clock. The Sunday evening service will start at 7.30 and will be a series of "Is Christianity Facing a World Crisis?" and Dr. Bagnell, in these sermons, will discuss the "Outlook For Religion When the War is Over."

The Sunday afternoon mass meetings have been very well attended. Robert B. Reeves, general secretary of the association, is responsible for the quality of the speakers and musical ensembles presented, because his good judgment has been used in the selection. A number of speakers are being booked for the Sunday meetings to follow, which promise to be instructive and entertaining. There is no charge for admission to the mass meetings.

The Epworth League will hold an especially important meeting at 6.30 o'clock in the lecture room of the church tomorrow evening. The Rev. W. Boll, president of the Harrisburg District Epworth League, will have charge of the meeting and will make an address on "What will the Epworthians gain in the Grace Church Drive For the Kingdom?" Special solos will be a feature of the service.

IS THE CHURCH OBSOLETE?

Dr. Weir Will Discuss This Topic at Y. M. C. A. Mass Meeting

The question, "Is the Church Becoming an Obsolete Institution?" will be the subject of an address before the men's mass meeting in Fahnstok Hall at 3.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Dr. Weir, who will address the meeting, is general secretary of the Presbyterian Committee on Men's Work For the United States. He is a very prominent men's worker, and his timely, eloquent addresses have a universal appeal.

Dr. Weir is very capable of discussing the subject, "Is the Church an Obsolete Institution?" He has had years of association with religious leaders and the nation's best thinkers. He will discuss this question because it is one frequently asked in these stirring war times.

MUSIC BY GLEE CLUB Special music will be given by the A. M. L. S. Ladies' Glee Club, a singing aggregation which is rated as one of the best in the city. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Central Y. M. C. A.

The Sunday afternoon men's mass meetings have been very well attended. Robert B. Reeves, general secretary of the association, is responsible for the quality of the speakers and musical ensembles presented, because his good judgment has been used in the selection.

MISCELLANEOUS Associated Bible Students—One of the local elders will preach, 3.15, "The Good Shepherd"; 1.45, "The New Creation."

TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Harris Street U. E. Congregation Will Remember Dedication of New Building

The seventh anniversary of the dedication of the new church will be observed by the Harris Street United Evangelical congregation tomorrow. During the pastorate of the Rev. A. R. Saylor a substantial and attractive brownstone church was erected at the corner of Harris and Susquehanna streets, costing $49,000. Through the efforts of the Rev. Mr. Saylor and the Rev. G. F. Schaum, the present pastor, the indebtedness has been reduced materially. Cash contributions will be received on Sunday toward the further reduction of the debt. The congregation has had a steady growth and is in a healthy condition.

The Rev. A. A. Winter, superintendent of the Evangelical Home, will be the anniversary preacher. He will preach at the morning and evening services and will address the Sunday school at 2. Dr. Winter was formerly president of Dallas College, of the United Evangelical Church, Dallas, Ore. The Rev. Dan A. Poling, associate to President Clark of the Christian Endeavor movement, is a graduate of this college.

The new-organized choir under the direction of Will Bailey, will sing at both services. The Ladies' Quartet will sing at the afternoon and evening services. Mrs. Gus M. Steinmetz will sing a solo in connection with the afternoon program.

UNITED EVANGELICAL Park Street—The Rev. A. E. Hagen, 10.45, "The God-Sealed Church"; 7.30, "The Choice of Faith"; 9.30, Sunday school. Harris Street—The Rev. George F. Schaum, 10.30, anniversary sermon, Rev. A. A. Winter, of Lewisburg, Pa.; 2.00, Sunday school; 7.30, sermon, Rev. A. A. Winter.

PLAN TO RAISE BIG CHURCH SUM

Lutherans From Central and Eastern Synods to Meet in Zion Church

On Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock there will be representative Lutherans from the Central and Eastern districts of Pennsylvania present to consummate the plans for the drive for $175,000 to be raised by the Lutherans of Pennsylvania to equip our chaplains and to provide camp pastors at home and abroad. The pastor, the Rev. S. Winfield Herman, will preach at both services tomorrow. The morning theme will be "The Spiritual Victory," and the evening theme, "The Christian's Best Service."
