METHODIST CONGREGATION TO CELEBRATE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY ON SUNDAY Ushers Association to

The First Methodist congregation, the oldest in the borough, will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of its organization with special services in the church at Fourth and Pine streets, Sunday, February 17. The congregation was organized in 1888, with a membership of about thirty, and a year later a church was built where the electric light plant of the steed plant now stands in Locust street.

Most of the patches were made by children born in Russia, Rumania, Austria-Hungary, Italy and Germany. These youngsters are only too anxious to do everything they can for America. The knitting on this blanket is so clever that every one comments on the workmanship. Besides the blanket, the Penn building has sent to the Red Cross seven scarfs, seven sweaters, four pairs of wristlets and one pair of socks, and other articles.

URGED TO OPEN GUTTERS
Mayor Keister to-day urged all residents of the city to open gutters along the curbing in front of their homes so the water from melting snow and ice will not back up and run into the cellars or over the pavements and then freeze. The Mayor also stated he is investigating legislation in other cities which regulates the size of overhanging electric signs and requires owners to pay a tax on them.

Control, Germany's Need

That Germany needs a church free from state control, was the declaration made by Dr. William F. Weir, Worcester, Ohio, who addressed the men's mass meeting in Fahnestock Hall, yesterday afternoon, on the subject, "Is the Church Becoming an Obsolete Institution?" Dr. Weir, who is general secretary of the committee on men's work of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, told his audiences that we are living in a new life and experience and that it is up
