party leaders present were jubilant at the outcome. The Indiana men credited Hays with winning the last election for the Republicans. His friends said he was in line for the next nomination for governor. Frank H. Hitchcock voiced the general feeling when he said:

"I am perfectly delighted. Hays is an exceptionally efficient man and there is no better organizer."

The sentiment of the National Committee was expressed by Senator Boies Penrose, who said:

"Republicans throughout the country will be sincerely gratified to learn that the National Committee adjourned with complete harmony prevailing on every side. The discussion relating to the various matters coming before the committee, and particularly to the question of the chairmannship, was conducted in an amicable spirit, without any factional division, and with the single view to party unity and party success.

"Mr. Hays has been chairman of the Republican state committee of Indiana in several hard-fought battles resulting in Republican successes and he has the reputation of being one of the best political organizers in the country. He seems to have the peculiar qualifications required at this time and he will have the full covereration of the National Committee of the National Committee of Indiana in several hard-fought battles resulting in Republican successes and he has the reputation of being one of the best political organizers in the country. National Chairman Hays Announces His Policy

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.-Will Hays, elected chairman of the Republican National Committee, at St. Louis last night, stated that he had made no plans, but expected sevmittee here to-day on their way East. Telegrams of congratulation began arriving yesterday and were stacked in heaps in Mr. Hays' room at the hotel.

Chairman Hays said the same get eral plan used in the campaign in Indiana would be carried out on a larger scale in the next national

The ruling of the Food Administration prohibiting the sale of hens from February 11 to April 1 does not include the sale by farmers direct to consumers of their poultry. This interpretation of the ruling has been anounced by local officials, Elimination of the middleman is provided for between the dates prescribed by the ruling. No dealer or farmer can purchase hens and sell them, but a farmer can sell his own poultry direct to the consumer.
