"Foolishly, I butted in and asked for further information. I got it, all right. With a lowering look which made me tremble, he roared.

"Go and dig up your own clues. What are you with the Intelligence Department for? Intelligence Department! It ought to be called the Brainless Department," if you two are a sample of the rest."

"Somehow or other we didn't stop to argue with 'Old Pepper.'

At this point Sailor Bill butted in:

Pepper.'
A chorus of, "Oh, shut up, you're n the Army now," cut off Bill's story. We knew Sailor Bill. If ever ne got started talking Navy, nothing short of a gas attack could stop glance around the circle, relapsed into silence.

Curly Wallace exclaimed:

"To 'ell with your Admiral: Do you want to hear this story? If you do, shut up and let me tell it."

"Go on, Curly, never mind; he's harmless," ejaculated Happy Houghton.

Curly carried on, with:

"Getting our packs and drawing three days' rations, we started hiking it for the village of Z—. We arrived there about four in the afternoon, and after putting our packs and rations in an old barn which we intended to use as our billet during our stay in the village, we left on a general tour of inspection.

"There were about three hundred civilians in the place, who preferred to brave the dangers of shell fire, as there was a rich harvest to be reaped from the sale of farm produce, beer and wines to the troops billeted all around. Two estaminets (French saloons) were still open and did a thriving business.

"Occasionally a shell would burst in the village, but the civilians did not seem to mind it; just carried on with their farming and business as usual.

The prevalence of smallpox in Harrisburg was blamed on the importation of the outhern negro and the Mexican at the discussian last night of the Dauphin County Medical Society. Dr. Hershey Farnsler related how this foreign labor arrives often with the pest and then makes no effort, to better conditions but continues lax hygienic habits. A topic of the evening which may surprise many a mother and father was the admission by a number of speakers that even physicans frequently mistake smallpox for chicken pox, thus helping to spread the disease.

"More children die from measles and whooping coug hthan from any other diseases" informed Dr. C. R. Phillips, Medical Inspector of Dauphin county, in his talk on the 4-titude of the inspector toward the county.

Weak Women, who are nervous, rundown, tired-out, worn-out and over-worked. need the blood-making, tissue-building and strengthening elements contained in Vinol. It is now recognized everywhere as the most efficient strength creator for women.

"I was over-worked, run down, nervous, could not eat or sleep. I felt like crying all the time. I tried different remedies without benefit. The doctor said it was a wonder I was alive, and when Vinol was given me I began to improve. I have taken eight bottles and am now strong and perfectly healthy in every respect, and have gained in weight. I cannot praise Vinol enough."—Mrs. Sarah A. Jones, 1025 Nevada St., Philadelphia, Pa.
