Guests at Bethlehem

Guests at Bethlehem d Following the Reading contest, the Tech squad will move on to n South Bethlehem, where they will be the guests of former Tech stu-dents now enrolled at Lehigh Uni-versity. They will spend the day at Lehigh Saturday. In the evening the college lads will help to root for Tech at Allentown. This contest should not be so difficult, although Tech won by a 34 to 16 score on the Hassett floor several weeks ago. To date Allentown has dropped five straight. The lineups for the two games at Allentown are: Reading. Tech. Nyquist (Capt.), f.Huston, (Capt.) f. Baumener, f. Lingle, (Miller), j Freidman, c. Wilsbach, c. Sailer, g. Beck, g. Krebs, g. Billy Clymer, of Louls-ormer New York State ner, and who is spending in Wilkes-Barre, is called e Peck bad boys of the Association in the 1917 c.e. The report issued re-President Mackey showing orse and players who were too! Donovan spent ten years in Detroit. He went there in 1902 and the managers and players who were played for both Ed Barrow, now manager of the Red Sox, and Hughey Jennings, the present Tiger Now, Sill developed a lot of good young pitchers while he was in New York. In fact, if he had been as successful with outfielders as he was with boxmen, he would still be there. He is a good judge of pitching talent and should be a big help to Jennings.
