In Seventy-Eighth Year. Knits Steadily For Soldiers

One woman in Harrisburg is doing her best to help the Red Cross branch in the city make a record. She is Mrs. Julia A. Keim, of 11 South Eighteenth street.

Mrs. Keim is in her seventy-eighth year, but takes much pleasure in knitting. When she came to Harrisburg from Newport, October 25, last year, she at once made inquiries about the Red Cross work to be done in the city. She soon obtained yarn and has been working ever since. Her record of articles which have been turned into the chapter follows: Two scarfs, one sweater, one pair wristlets, twenty-one helmets, twenty-two pair of socks.

Mrs. Keim is residing with her daughter, Mrs. Frank N. Templar, of this city. She is widely known in Newport, her former home.
