ROMANS WALK AWAY WITH ANNUAL HARRISBURG ACADEMY INDOOR MEET--JOLT CENTRAL

ACADEMY FIVE BUMPS CENTRAL

Play All Around High School Boys in Fast Cage Game

Superior team work and better shooting on the part of the Harrisburg Academy team defeated Central last night, 42 to 32. Central was outscored and outplayed in every department. The Academy scored 12 goals from the field, while Central was only able to collect 7.

Goodiel was the only Central player to show any form at all. Frank and Fields played a good game but each of these boys lacked their usual form.

The game ran nip and tuck during the first half and this period ended 15-14 with the Academy leading. During the second half the Blue and Gold upheld a lead of three or four points for quite some time when they added a few fouls just before the whistle blew. Central was game and kept things interesting but could not overcome the lead.

ore the winste blew. Central was game and kept things interesting but could not overcome the lead.

The scoring began when Weigle dropped the first foul through the net for the Academy and repeated this feat a moment later. Frank and Weigle then each scored a foul for their teammates. Frank then chalked up five points for Central when he made two gals from the field and shot another foul. After two minutes of time out Weigle made the first field goal of the Academy and then took turns with Frank shooting fouls, Frank making 4 and Weigle 3. From then until the end of the half the Academy suddenly took on speed and netted eight points to Central's one, Weigle and DeVore making some pretty field goals.
