play of them, his genial interpreta-tion and the tasteful playing of the nfamiliar ballet music from the composer's opera, "Rosamunde," a rell as by his sympathetic accompanents for Mrs. Sanders.

The pathetic, gruesome and tragic were all tellingly interpreted through the medium of Mrs. Sanders, rich, long-range contraito, especially in "The Wanderer," "Death and the Maiden" and "The Phantom Double." Then, too, she gave a wonderfully dramatic singing of what proved to be the episode of the program—the two great arias from St. Saens', "Samson and Delilah," "The Love of Thy Light Let Me Borrow," receiv-Thy Light Let Me Borrow," receiving storms of applause. Arthur Nesbit distinguished himself in his brilliant playing of Tausig's arrange-ment of Schubert's "March Militaire" and afterward a few personal friends of Mr. and Mrs. Martin en-

RE NEWS

The WormLeysburg public schools opened this morning after being being closed down for a week on account of the exhaustion of the codal supply. Today is the first time for nearly two months that all West Shore schools opened their doors. Lemoyne opened last week after a close down of five weeks and Camp Hill and West Fairview had completely the sessions running. The situation on the West Shore is greatly improved.
