BULLER BREAKS THE FISH RECORD

Millions of Adult Trout and Hundreds of Millions of Fry Distributed

Two and a half millions of trout, all over a year old, were distributed in the State of Pennsylvania in 1917 from the hatcheries of the State Department of Fisheries, according to Commissioner Nathan R. Buller, who says that it is a record.

DORSET HUNTS CORN FOR STATE

Chief of Markets Trying to Get a Supply For the Farmers to Plant

E. B. Dorsett, chief of the State Bureau of Markets in the Department of Agriculture, has cancelled all of his engagements to speak at farmers institutes and other agricultural gatherings the remainder of the month in order to devote his time to securing seed corn for the farmers who have been writing to the Capitol of the deplorable state into which the corn situation has gotten in the face of calls from Washington for increased production. The supply of seed corn is not short, but much of what is available is of inferior quality and the demand is tremendous, especially from counties which were hard hit by the September frosts and where shortage of labor prevented the corn from being gathered at the usual time.

Reports coming to the Department tell of wheat being found in excellent condition under the deep snows in many parts of the southern tier counties. The damage to fruit trees is feared to be extensive and it will be impossible to estimate it for some time.

WATER SUPPLY LOW Carlisle, Pa., Feb. 18.—With the main reservoir depleted to such a point that in order to maintain adequate pressure for fire needs, water is pumped direct without filtering; warnings have been issued by the Carlisle Gas and Water Company and local board of health to have all water for domestic uses boiled.
