CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA LEAGUE TOSSERS CONTINUE FAST PACE---WEEK'S SCHEDULE

Captain Huston Is Showing Cage Form; Averages to Date Machine Shop Team Is First

Steadily advancing each week until he now occupies fourth place in the Central Pennsylvania Scholastic basketball league, Captain Huston of the Tech basketball team, now bids fair to be a strong contender for first honors before the close of the season.

Huston has made wonderful progress during the last several weeks, and reached the climax of his chievements during the last two games at Reading and Allentown when he tallied a total of 50 points. At Allentown he made a high record of 32 tallies for the game, which is a high mark for the league. With the season half over, there is still abundant opportunity for him to reach the top.

For the third successive week, Captain Nyquist, of Reading, and clingerich, of York, has two less. There are now five players with 22. Gingerich has the lead in goals from the field with 25 for seven contests. Beech schother guard, playing for Tech, is second in field goals with 22. Gingerich has the lead in foul tossing stem who over the General Office, was a singular objective the seven foul tossers representing each of the seven teams are now at the head of the league, and the league places in the standing. These two lads have been alternating at second and third place, and at present only a fraction of a point separates them.

Three Players Tie

A singular coincidence in the averages is the fact that three players—Huston, Tech; Coleman, Steelton, and Wolfe, Lebanon, howeach scored 107 points. Huston has the advantage in the fact that he has played in one game less than the standard in the fact that he has played in one game less than the season of the seven for the yesterday. Harris and Walker, both local men, went into first place in the doubles on the first afternoon shift, with a score of 1,175. This supplanted Hoffel and Geisting, also local men, by one pin. On the last shift of doubles Ernstschwender and Mecklenburg rolled into third place, thereby ousting the Cleveland pair, Wismer and Tomasch, who had won third place honors temporarily but an hour before.

In the singles no change eccurred among the leaders as the result of the bowling yesterday, except that E. Schmeing, of Cincinnati, rolled 601 and went into third position. R. Michaelson with 628 and A. Hilton with 620 are the leaders in this event.

The bowling quality of the fivement teams appeared, and good scores are anticipated. No out-of-town howlers are scheduled to appear on the alleys until Tuesday, when the Neuberth Coits, of Newark, N. J., and the Cabanne five, of St. Louis, roll. "Sport" Feeney's Champs, of Covington, Ky., have the high score in the five-men team event, with 2,659
