SURVEY TO START WITHIN A WEEK

Labor and Industry and Industrial Board Will Cooperate in the Study

First moves in the survey of the colored population of the state will probably be taken on Washington's birthday as a series of conferences to complete the preliminary work.

Board to Meet--A meeting of members of the State Board of Education will be held late this month to determine upon plans for extension of vocational education in schools of the state during the summer.

Sell Corn by Mail--Hundreds of bushels of seed corn have been sold to farmers of the state for planting this spring by the State Bureau of Markets, branch of the State Department of Agriculture.

Butler to Speak--Commissioner of Fisheries Nathan E. Butler will be the speaker at the meeting of the Canadian fishermen at St. Thomas, Ontario, this week.

Binder Recommended--Charles K. Binder, of York, a member of the Capitol police, has been recommended for the place of chief made vacant by the resignation of John Buttorf, of York.

Board Meets To-morrow--The State Board of Pardons will have its monthly meeting to-morrow. Three members will attend, Secretary of the Commonwealth Woods being in Florida.

States Will Cooperate--State authorities have sent word that they will co-operate to the fullest extent in the movement to make sure of the supply of labor which is about to be undertaken by the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Committee of Public Safety.

After Council--People at the Capitol were much interested today in a report from Scranton that action may be started by the several candidates for appointment for registration commission to determine whether Mayor Connell can hold the two offices. City Controller Charles Savage holds that the offices of Commission and Mayor are not incompatible, and on this account has signed Mr. Connell's warrant for salary as Commissioner, but there are others who claim the law is being violated.

Three Pennsylvanians With Pershing Killed

Washington, Feb. 19.--The deaths of four privates as the result of explosions: the killing of Cadet Lindley H. de Garme, Ridgewood, N. J., in an airplane accident last Saturday, and the suicide of Lieutenant Gordon Loring Rand, Lawrence, R. I., attached to the aviation section of the Signal Corps, were reported to the War Department yesterday by General Pershing.

The privates killed in the explosions were: Herbert E. Koch, infantry, Ashley, Pa.; Mike Duda, infantry, Saint Clair, Pa.; Paul H. Herrick, infantry, Dunlop, Pa.; Joseph J. Chorba, infantry, whose mother lives in Kehlrahe, Austria.

Koch and Chorba died last Saturday, and Duda and Herrick Sunday. No details were given, but it is assumed the explosions were of hand grenades.

These deaths from natural causes also were reported: Private Charles C. Wright, pneumonia, Pittstown, N. J.; Private Gardner H. Bennett, pneumonia, Sutton, Vt.; Private Stephen Svek, pneumonia, Bruceton, Pa.

PASS BILLION DEFICIENCY

Congressmen Vote $500,000,000 For Immediate War Needs

Washington, Feb. 19.--The billion-dollar urgent deficiency appropriation bill, carrying half a billion for the military establishment and large sums for the Navy and other branches of the Government was passed yesterday by the House without a record vote.

In direct appropriations and in authorization for obligations during the remainder of this fiscal year, the total of the measure is $1,167,220,000. It now goes to the Senate, where it will be given prompt consideration.

INSTITUTE ASKS CHARTER

Sunbury, Pa., Feb. 19.--A court charter was asked to-day for a proposed corporation to be called the "Bethel Institute." It will be located at Milton. According to the paper filed its object will be "To give educational training in all of the English branches and the Bible and in such other studies as are preliminary to missionary work."

HOLD PATRIOTIC RALLY

At a patriotic meeting held last night in the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, W. Frank James was the speaker. The meeting was held by the Alricks Association. A large number of ladies were present.

SCHUMANN-HEINK IS HEARTBROKEN

Four Sons in U. S. Army, One in U-Boat, Daughter Writes She is Starving

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 19.--Moth-ers, if your hearts ache and your eyes cloud with tears for your boys "over there," read what Madame Schumann-Heink has had to suffer and the message of optimism she brings. What would you do if you had four sons fighting for Uncle Sam and one son with the enemy?

"My heart is broken," said Madame Schumann-Heink the other night at the Hotel Muehlebach. "My boys, Oh, how I love them, every one! My Henry, the eldest, is a petty officer in the navy stationed at San Pedro, Cal. Ferdinand is a sergeant in the 340th Field Artillery at Camp Funston. He was ill with pneumonia and I had to take him to Arizona with me. But he would not stay. He said, 'Mother, let me go back, and I had to let him go. He is dear to me, but my country is dearer.'"

"I am an American through and through. I have a son, my poor August, who was on a German submarine when I last heard of him. He joined the German navy in 1914, for he thought his duty lay to the country of his birth. I have not had a line from him since we declared war last April. I hope and pray he may not be dead. Is this un-American? Would I be loyal if I forgot my own flesh and blood?"

"I have a daughter in Germany also. She writes, 'For mercy's sake mother, help us. We are starving, and we need you. But how can I help?' I have four sons in the service here and I must be loyal to them. Oh at times my heart is breaking for my poor boy in that filthy submarine. He needs my love more than the others. But I must smile and be cheerful. Mothers, you must not let your sons see the misery in your hearts. You must send them away with a smile on your lips and words of love on your tongue."

Youngest Son Fights For U. S.

"I had to let my youngest son go. He was just nineteen, and I hoped he would stay with me. He was big and strong and could have passed easily for twenty-one. But he would not go in under false pretenses. He wrote and asked my permission and I told him to go and God bless him. I am proud of all of them, my wonderful boys. And I am proud of all my other boys--those fine, manly men that make up our army. Out in California they call me 'Mother Schumann'." The twenty-first infantry is carrying the regimental flag I gave it.

"But I am not satisfied. I must do something myself for my country. In May I am going to France and sing and do whatever else I can to bring the atmosphere of home to my soldiers. I am not too old to do my bit."

One cannot doubt Madame Schumann-Heink's sincerity. She breathes a spirit of patriotism and loyalty.

WIFE THREW THINGS

Sunbury, Pa., Feb. 19.--A divorce was recommended to Ralph S. Tweed, of Sunbury, on the grounds of cruelty. According to the master's findings the wife stayed out late used vile and indecent language and threw dishes and knives and forks at her husband. The couple have several children and recently the court ordered that Tweed pay $10 a week for their support. He is a brother of Miss Maude Tweed, who recently figured as plaintiff in a sensational breach-of-promise suit at Philadelphia.

WILL GO TO CHINA

Sunbury, Pa., Feb. 19.--Robert Lang, of Shamokin, was at the prothonotary's office yesterday setting papers ready preparatory to asking for passports for a trip to China he will soon take in the interests of J. H. and C. K. Eagle, Inc., Shamokin silk manufacturers.

BEST FOR LIVER, BOWELS, STOMACH, HEADACHE, COLDS

They live the liver and bowels and straighten you right up

Dont be bilious, constipated, sick, with breath bad and stomach sour

To-night sure! Take Cascarats and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Wake up with your head clear, stomach sweet, breath right and feeling fine. Get rid of sick headache, biliousness, constipation, furred tongue, sour stomach, bad colds. Clean your skin, brighten your eyes, quicken your step and feel like doing a full day's work. Cascarats are better than salts, pills or cathartics because they don't shock the liver or gripe the bowels or cause inconvenience all the next day. Mothers should give cross, sick, bilious, feverish children whole Cascarats anytime as they can not injure the thirty feet of tender bowels.

For Burning Eczema
