

FAST BIRDS FOR STATE SHOOTERS WHO ENTER CHAMPIONSHIP EVENT TOMORROW

FAST BIRDS FOR STATE SHOOTERS Annual Championship Event to Be Held Here Tomorrow

Fast birds have been secured for the livebird shoot to be held at Second and Division streets tomorrow. Members of the Harrisburg Sportsmen's Association have been securing the country and expect to have at least 2,000 flyers ready. This shoot is the Thirty-first Annual Pennsylvania Livebird Championship race.

Old War Horse Knows All About Baseball; Irwin's Long Career

Arthur Irwin, who has been identified in an active capacity with baseball for a longer period than any other man now in the game, celebrated the anniversary of his birth last Friday, but just what anniversary it was Arthur could not be induced to tell. The veteran, who is known to baseball men all over the country, has had a remarkable career, and is at present business manager of the Toronto Club of the International League.

TECH TOSSERS PLAY TONIGHT Meet Lebanon Valley Reserves in This City; Central at York

Teams playing this week in Central Pennsylvania Scholastic Basketball League series, have an important part to finish the final standings. Central plays York to-night. The local tossers will be stronger contenders by winning. To-morrow night Reading plays Central here, and Lebanon meets Allentown on the latter's floor.

Steelton will entertain Reading at Felton hall Saturday night. Tech High does not have a game but will play Lebanon Valley College Reserves to-night at Chestnut street auditorium.

Class Game First A preliminary game will be staged before the Tech varsity game, at which time the Juniors will meet the Sophomores in the last game of the Interclass League series.

On Champion Team Irwin played on the champion team in the National League at Providence, 1884, world's champions that year. Other championship clubs with which Irwin has been connected in various capacities are: Boston, Brotherhood, champions 1890; Boston, American, champions 1891; Toronto, winners Steiner cup, 1897; Toronto, International League, 1917.

ANGLO-AMERICAN LEAGUE PLANS; AFTER PLAYERS

New York, Feb. 21.—An overseas professional baseball organization to be composed of six clubs and to be known as the Anglo-American League has been launched; according to W. A. Parsons, who was in this city on a hunt for players. H. E. Booker, of San Francisco, who has been active on the British turf for the last ten years, has received permission from the British War Office to start the league in England. London, Paris and Brighton are certain of membership in the league.

WELLY'S CORNER

Motive Power athletes who have been in training for boxing honors will be in evidence to-night. The entertainment committee has arranged an interesting bill. There is considerable rivalry among the entrants as to their boxing ability, and these weekly contests offer an opportunity to pick champions. Members only get a chance at the prize money. It pays to belong to the Motive Power Athletic Association.

SPORT WRITERS' ECONOMY DINNER UP TO GOVERNOR HOLDS CAPITOL

Philadelphia Scribes Help Baseball Equipment Fund; George Graham Talks People on the Hill Look to Him to Decide About Extra Session Next Week

Philadelphia, Feb. 21.—About one hundred members and guests attended the fourteenth annual dinner of the Philadelphia Sportswriters Association held last night at Bookbinders. Owing to the war the association eliminated its usual big banquet and held a war economy dinner. President Alexander H. Brooke acted as toastmaster.

Pennsylvania Wins in Slow Game With Lafayette; Anderson Is Big Star

If Lafayette had any reputation as a winning basketball team she certainly did not live up to it in her engagement with the University of Pennsylvania passers at Weightman Hall last night. While the score of 30 to 24 shows that the Red and Blue was superior to the Eastonians, it does not begin to convey an idea of how decisively the Quakers defeated their opponents.

CANCEL GAME AT CAMP HILL Three Players on Sick List; Not Afraid of Big Five

Inability of three regulars to play on account of illness has forced Professor Fred Rocky to cancel the Camp Hill Big Five game with the Camp Hill Big Five scheduled for the Camp Hill road to-morrow night. Professor Rocky said the game was cancelled because of the illness of three regulars.

Fairview Lads Show Form in Indoor Sports

Fairview lads yesterday afternoon made a strong showing in the try-outs for the interschool athletic meet which will be held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Tomorrow will represent the school in the big meet are: Captain Strickler, Books, H. Nutting, R. Froste, Kreider and Soltz. Books, Strickler and Trostler are showing splendid form.

BOWLING

Table with columns for Academy League (Academy Alleys), Taylor-Kennedy League (Taylor Alleys), Steel Company League (Richards and Brashers Alleys), and Central Iron and Steel (Casino Alleys). Lists names and scores for various bowlers.

RUSSIA IS NOT HOPELESSLY OUT, SHEPHERD SAYS

Correspondent Tells Chamber of Commerce Bolshevism May Overthrow Kaiserism

"Don't count Russia out of the war. Russia is not hopeless. I happen to know that there are eight great Siberian armies thoroughly loyal to Russia and they will not see the Germans over-running their country without an accounting."

WAR WORK FIRST ON Y. M. C. A. PROGRAM

ing's session of his work at the camp. The experience gained by Y. M. C. A. workers in the war work activities will be of immeasurable value to them in broadening the scope of the Y. M. C. A. during and after the war.

EXTENDING POWER LINE

Newport, Pa., Feb. 21.—The Juniata Public Service Company, which supplies electrical power to Juniata, Perry and upper Dauphin counties, is rapidly improving its line that better service may be given to its patrons. A score of men are now engaged in finishing the construction of the line from Montgomerly's Ferry to Liverpool, which had been held up by the severe weather this winter. This will be the first electric line to enter Liverpool.

MARIETTA BOYS IN FRANCE

Marietta, Pa., Feb. 21.—Word reached Marietta to-day that two more Marietta boys are in France—Charles Hostick and Christian Kulp, of the Marine Corps. This makes seven Marietta lads in France.

HOME DAMAGED BY FIRE

Munitions town, Pa., Feb. 21.—The Crater home, across the creek on the Commons, caught fire Tuesday night about 11 o'clock and the rear of the house was burned before the fire was extinguished. The origin is unknown.

TO ELIMINATE FAST TRAIN COMPETITION VERY SOON

Washington, Feb. 21.—Fast passenger train competition between New York and Chicago, Chicago and St. Louis, Washington and Southern points, and other important passenger terminals will be eliminated soon, the railroad administration announced to-day. Certain roads will be selected for fast passenger trains and other lines devoted more extensively to freight traffic.

Academy Sprinters Given Cross-Country Run Medals

Three more medals were awarded at the Harrisburg Academy yesterday. These were the gold, silver and bronze medals for the winners of the cross country run last fall.

Eleventh Ward Republican Club Endorses Unity

Opposition to Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh's plan to call an extra session of the Legislature, was expressed early in the evening by the Eleventh Ward Republican Club, of the Eleventh Ward. The recent appointment of Hiram McGowan Simpson to a position in the State Highway Department was criticised.

Hutcherson Refuses to Sign Wage Agreement

Washington, Feb. 21.—William L. Hutcherson, president of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, to-day declined again to sign the memorandum already signed by the seven other shipworkers' unions giving the shipbuilding wage adjustment board full authority to settle all differences.

I BECAME DESPONDENT

Was Dizzy—Would Shake and Tremble says Mrs. C. Forman, 130 Liberty street, Harrisburg. I was alling with nervousness and indigestion. After eating I would be seized with cramps, bloating, and now my troubles are gone. My stomach is perfect, my nerves are quiet. I don't worry about a thing. Sapanin is being introduced at Keller's Drug Store, 405 Market street, Harrisburg.—Adv.

BOYD MEMORIAL LEAGUE

In Boyd Memorial League series last night the Apollos won over the Trojans, score 32 to 26. The Achilles defeated the Spartans, score 32 to 29.

STANDING OF BOYD LEAGUE

Table with columns for Team, W., L., Pct. Achilles 8 3 .727, Spartans 8 3 .727, Apollos 4 7 .364, Trojans 3 8 .273

BOYER MEMORIAL AT HALIFAX

Halifax, Pa., Feb. 21.—To-morrow evening the public schools of Halifax will pay tribute to the town's benefactor and friend of George W. Melchey, who was to-day given the privilege of being notary at the automobile division at the State Highway Department. The place is not an appointive one, only an accommodation. Fred Steever was asked to give to Cassell.

FOOD WILL WIN THE WAR

—Don't Waste It— Likewise conserve gasoline and oil—own and drive a Model, 'R' Hupmobile—the War Time Miser—rightly named "The Comfort Car." We invite any one interested for practical demonstration—without incurring any obligation to purchase.

Hupmobile Sales Corporation 103 Market Street R. J. Church, Manager. Advertisement for Hupmobile cars.

Get it from your dealer or from us. Every reader of this paper may secure $5.00 DURHAM DUPLEX DOMINORAZOR FOR $1.00. Advertisement for razors.

If you are not taking advantage of the unusual value which KING OSCAR CIGARS. Advertisement for King Oscar Cigars.

offer to you as a smoker, it is time for you to get awake. Many things have been changed by war conditions but the quality of this old favorite goes on just the same. Try it out at your dealer's. John C. Herman & Co. MAKERS. Advertisement for John C. Herman & Co.

Automobile Chains Repaired Federal Machine Shop Cranberry Street Near Court. Advertisement for Federal Machine Shop.