"Jack the Hugger" Is Scaring Millersburg Women

Millersburg, Pa., Feb. 21.—All the talk among the women here for the past ten days, especially those residing in East Main street district, is "Have you seen Jack the Hugger?" More than a score of women during the past ten days have been followed and accosted by a strange man and in several instances caught hold of. Burgess Fairchild several nights ago was watching in that district and is said to have had the man freed, but being alone he went to a nearby telephone to call for assistance. When he returned the man had fled. Policeman Baker is now on the job as a special officer. But until the culprit is apprehended the feminine sex will have a male escort in that section of the town.
