

Y. M. C. A. WORK IN WAR PLANNED AT STATE MEET

Pittsburgh Man Elected President at First Business Session

"Russia is going too fast. Our forefathers, for centuries, were in training; those who came over on the Mayflower, sang and learned the art of self-control, they knew their Bibles. That's why the American revolution succeeded. But Russia expects to transform an enslaved people to a free people in a night. They are going to do it."

So stated Dr. W. W. White, of New York city, in an address before the fifth annual convention of the Pennsylvania Young Men's Christian Associations, in Zion Lutheran Church this morning.

"We are living in an age of great unrest," he declared. "All over the rest is in line with what Jesus Christ planned." Dr. White's address was replete with practical advice for the religious and social workers.

"Christ did not preach so many new things; they were old things in a new way." "Study history, next to the Bible," he declared, saying that the soldiers in France are treading on the holy dust of the dead. Nine or ten of the world's decisive battles were fought on French soil.

Report on Work The convention opened with an inspiring song service. Following Dr. White's address, H. J. Schmidt gave a report of Pennsylvania's War-time Conference, and C. H. Dreshmann made a report of the commission in service for Y. M. C. A. men.

Following the reading of a telegram of regret from Walter M. Wood, Philadelphia, who was unable to be present at the convention, Charles M. Alexander spoke on "Pocket Testament League." Mr. Alexander organized the league some years ago, and from that time, thousands of members have been pledged.

Mr. Alexander distributed copies of the Gospel of St. John, which he is distributing among the soldiers. "Let's have an old-fashioned time," he said. He illustrated how his party led the men in the camps, in singing, and asked for volunteer soloists. Each of those who sang solos, was presented with a pocket Testament. The league is formed and to each soldier who signs a card, promising to read a chapter of the Bible each day a beautiful little Testament is given.

Among the signers of the card are President Wilson, Governor Brumbaugh, Secretary of War, Henry Ford. Mr. Alexander made an appeal for signers and several hundred men and women signed the cards.

Canada's Message After the lunch hour, J. H. Tory, R. C. Dingman and George A. Warburton spoke on "Canada's Message from Canada," telling of the work in the Dominion. The convention opened at 2 o'clock. In addition to the regular program, Joseph M. Steele, Philadelphia, read the report of the Pennsylvania War Work Council, telling of the work done by the council. Secretary of War, Wood, has raised $5,700,000 for war work of the Y. M. C. A. The state's quota, based on ten per cent of the national quota, was only $5,000,000. George A. Warburton will speak tonight on "Association of Foreign Missions." Bishop Luther B. Wilson, New York city, will talk on the subject, "The Church, the Red Triangle and the Soldier." The session will open at 7:30 o'clock with a song service.

Montana Ratifies Dry Amendment

Helena, Mont., Feb. 22. THE Montana Legislature has ratified the Federal prohibition amendment. Following is the list of states which have adopted the amendment:

- States. Ratified. 1. Mississippi January 3 2. Virginia January 11 3. Kentucky January 14 4. South Carolina January 23 5. North Dakota January 26 6. Maryland February 13 7. Montana February 19 Kentucky and Maryland are wet states and heavy producers of booze.

The amendment must be ratified by twenty-nine more states to become effective.

State Legislatures holding regular sessions this year include the following: Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island and South Carolina.

a spirit of civilization—not devil-tation. In the evening session held in the convention church, Dr. Robert Bagnell, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, spoke on "The Moral of the Various Camps and Cantonnments."

He asserted that it is morale of the allied army which will turn back any spring drive. The morale is mostly due to the splendid work of the Y. M. C. A. secretaries in the camps. Out of the present war is coming a broad democracy, he declared.

"The Program of Praise For Which Jerusalem Stands," was the subject of Dr. White's address. He showed that Christianity did not begin with the so-called Christian era, but had existed in all times.

Officers elected at the session last evening were as follows: President, L. J. Gillespie, Pittsburgh; vice-presidents, W. H. Ridge-way, Coatesville; Arthur Bacon, Harrisburg; secretary, Frank Getty, Carbondale.

The following committees were appointed: Business committee, Ben M. Lewis, Pottsville; Frank Keeler, Philadelphia; Daniel Slep, Pittsburgh. State report committee, F. A. Messley, Williamsport; W. J. Graef, Coatesville; C. Lowry, Butler; Joseph Essick, Reading; R. J. Eaton, Warren; I. A. Shaffer, Jr., Lock Haven. Committee on resolutions, H. H. Dent, Allentown, and E. M. Devendorf, Wilkes-Barre. The committee on permanent organization previously appointed consisted of H. H. Dent, Allentown; W. E. Gilbert, Pittston; I. H. Ross, Haverford; H. J. Aukerman, Altoona; A. H. Smith, Tusculum, and W. F. Carey, Lancaster.

To Argue Hardscrabble Cases Again Tomorrow City Solicitor John E. Fox and attorneys for the property owners on the west side of Front street from Herr to Calder street will argue before Judges Kunkel and McCarroll tomorrow morning the constitutionality of the act of 1871. This law provides that the city is not liable for damages for improvements to properties on public highways after that date, and Solicitor Fox will present the city's side of the case on this point. Counsel for the owners, however, contend the act is not constitutional.

State Did Its Duty In an inspiring address which followed a song service, Dr. W. W. White, of the Bible Teachers Training School, New York city, described Jerusalem as "the spiritual capital of the world." Speaking on "The Program of Prayer For Which Jerusalem Stands," he urged that Y. M. C. A.'s everywhere have more prayer. In order to arouse this, his plan is to have the secretaries get into the spirit of prayer, and to spread the spirit among the members of the associations. Christ in His work around Jerusalem emphasized the value of prayer and told of the wonders that could be accomplished with this essential. Dr. White's address was replete with patriotic duty in the Y. M. C. A. war work fund was shown by Charles L. Huston, chairman of the state executive committee, who, in an interesting report, showed that Pennsylvania had raised almost double the amount she was asked for. Call- ing upon to raise $5,500,000, the state raised $6,200,000 for the fund. Three military camps have been placed in Pennsylvania, and three of the best Y. M. C. A. posts have been established in these camps.

A rousing song service preluded the convention dinner, held in the Board of Trade auditorium at 6 o'clock. At least 400 visiting delegates were present. The dinner was served by the Ladies' Advisory Board of the Central Y. M. C. A., assisted by women of the Zion Lutheran Church and others. Mr. Alexander led the singing of "Revive Us Again," and the Rev. Winfield S. Herman, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, made the invocation. Charles A. Kunkel, president of the Central Y. M. C. A., welcomed the guests to Harrisburg, and introduced Bishop James H. Darlington, who read a letter of regret and best wishes from Governor Brumbaugh. The Governor stated that he had been unavoidably detained in Miami, Florida. The bishop gave some interesting reminiscences of the early days of the Y. M. C. A. telling of his own experiences. He urged his hearers to "conserve, consecrate and concentrate."

Wife No. 2 Pleads With Judge to Send Man Back to No. 1

Indianapolis, Ind.—Mrs. Robert Phillips No. 1, and Mrs. Robert Phillips No. 2 meet their husband, Robert Phillips, in criminal court. Mrs. Phillips No. 1 pleaded with Judge James A. Collins to release Phillips from jail, where he was held for the action of the Grand Jury on a bigamy charge, so that he could return to their home in Miamiburg, Ohio, and help support her and her four children. The children were in the courtroom and when Phillips was brought in his little girl ran to him and cried:

"Now, daddy is coming home with us, isn't you, daddy?" Then Mrs. Phillips No. 2 spoke: "Judge, she has four children, while I will only have one to care for, and I guess I can get along better than she can. Let him go and help take care of those children."

The Judge permitted Phillips to go on his own recognizance on his promise to return with his first wife to Ohio and take care of the children.

Mrs. Phillips No. 2, who was Miss Mary Simmons, met Phillips last summer. They were married June 26 and lived at 1514 East Sixteenth street. Mrs. Phillips No. 2 began receiving letters from Mrs. Phillips No. 1, and she reported the case to the police, who later arrested Phillips on a bigamy charge. He was bound over to the Grand Jury following a City Court hearing.

Terry McGovern Dies After Two Days' Illness; Loses Small Fortune

New York, Feb. 22.—Terry McGovern, former world featherweight champion, died at the Kings County Hospital at 3:25 this morning. He had been ill only two days. Pneumonia and kidney trouble, complicated with other ailments, brought on the boxer's end within forty-eight hours from the time he was removed in an ambulance from his Brooklyn home to the hospital. His wife was with him when he died. McGovern had one son, Joseph McGovern, aged 19.

McGovern was reputed to have earned several hundred thousand dollars during his fighting career. Joseph Terrence McGovern was born at Johnstown, Pa., March 9, 1880. His parents moved to Brooklyn a year later. When he was 15 years old McGovern took part in preliminary bouts at the old Greenwood Athletic Club. His rushing tactics and heavy hitting earned him the sobriquet of "Terrible Terry." His first losing fight was when he was disqualified for fouling "Tim" Callaghan, of Philadelphia, at the Bay Ridge A. C.

On September 12, 1899, McGovern won the world's featherweight honors by knocking out "Pedlar" Palmer, of England, in less than a round at Tuckahoe, N. Y. Two years later, on Thanksgiving Day, at Hartford, Conn., McGovern lost the title to Young Corbett, of Denver, who knocked the champion out in the second round.

WHOLE FAMILY ENLISTS Columbia, S. C., Feb. 22.—Just to keep his family together, Charles E. Dorn, of Milan, Tenn., brought his two sons, Charles, Jr., and Donald, here yesterday, and all three enlisted in the Three Hundred and Seventeenth Field Artillery to join another son, William.

MIDDLETOWN FATHER AND SON INJURED

Automobile Upsets on Street Car Track Throwing Both Out

H. P. Detweiler and son, John, of town, met with a serious accident while en route to Highspire Wednesday evening in an automobile. When the car neared the new overhead bridge, West Main street, it became unmanageable, darting from one side of the street to the other and finally upsetting on the trolley track. Mr. Detweiler and son managed to get out. The former sustained a wound in the head and an injured shoulder and the latter had his head injured. A trolley came along at the time of the accident and several of the passengers got out and helped him to replace the car which had broken windshield and the running board. He was able to return home in the machine.

The funeral of Mrs. Adeline Mansberger, who died in Shippenburg, was held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Mansberger, State street. The service was made in the Middletown cemetery.

Margaret Harper, aged 6 years, died at the Nursery Home, Harrisburg, Tuesday. Beside her mother, Mrs. Blanche Harper, she is survived by two sisters, Jessie and Matilda, and one brother, Harry, all of Harrisburg. The body was brought to town yesterday and taken to the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Borrell, East High street, where funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The Rev. O. M. Kraybill, pastor of the Church of God, will officiate. Burial will be made in the Middletown cemetery.

The moulting department of the Wincroft store works, is closed down for several days owing to being out of coke and pig iron.

Harry Countyman, a member of the Radio Signal Corps and stationed at Camp Upton, R. I., is spending some time in town.

Private Leroy Rehrer, of Company B, 216th Infantry, stationed at Camp Meade, Md., and who spent the past ten days in town visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Rehrer, Market street, returned to camp to-day.

Poketo Tribe, No. 315, I. O. R. M., will observe its twenty-fifth anniversary in the hall in Ann street, tomorrow evening and a program is being arranged for the occasion. Speakers from out of town will be present and several lodges have been sent invitations. A wedding reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Noll, at Hillsdale, Sunday, in honor of their daughter, Jennie, who was recently married to David Brinser, son of two sons, Charles, Jr., and Donald, here yesterday, and all three enlisted in the Three Hundred and Seventeenth Field Artillery to join another son, William.

GYPSIES WILL BOW TO WILSON

Assemble in California to Elect a King to Succeed Alexander

Berkeley, Cal.—The Gypsy world has a new potentate. He is President Woodrow Wilson. To him 1,500 representatives of the wandering tribes have pledged their fealty.

Assembled to elect a king, they have split up into factions and are wrangling over the candidate who shall succeed his late Majesty Alexander, who died several months ago at Sacramento. But while undecided as to whom they should choose to pledge their allegiance, the Gypsy delegates are united in the admission that no matter how strong may be their attachment to kingly rule, they and their sovereign must bow to the President of the United States. In automobiles, in Pullman palace cars, in buggies and wagons and old "Prairie Schooners," the Gypsies came from all parts of the country. For weeks they have been loitering in Northern California. DOCTOR FINDS A CURE FOR GROUCH, HE SAYS

Chicago.—Take comfort, all we who "fly to pieces" at the slightest provocation or are adjudged fidgety or cranky or irritable. Your friends and more especially your enemies, may say it is just "pure cussedness," or even worse, but Dr. Meyer Solomon, of Chicago, brings word to such sufferers that they are victims of a disease which may be cured.

"In common forms," Dr. Solomon says, "there is nothing more than a condition of uneasiness or unrest. The person is fidgety, ill at ease, cannot concentrate on the task before him and is so generally disturbed he does not know what to do with himself. "Many may find relief by going to a gymnasium, playing golf, tennis or the like; going to a baseball game, joining a card game; yes, even going to a prize fight, a wrestling match and similar methods of amusement. Others may find peace in intellectual pursuits—reading a novel—a scientific book or article, resorting to one of their hobbies."

King, objected to the balloting for his successor, claiming that she was entitled to rule. The necessity for having a male hand at the helm was pointed out. Then there arose Michael Adams, 16-year-old nephew of the deceased sovereign, but the leaders proclaimed him but a boy. "A man must rule," became their slogan. "Woman has the vote. Why should woman not reign?" cried the Queen. Agreement was impossible, and the election day was postponed. The Gypsies decided that there could be no lawful selection of a new ruler until the body of good King Alexander should repose in an appropriate mausoleum. A large delegation packed their tents, started their automobiles, "checked out" at their hotels and departed.
