Investments Made This Week Run Up the Permanent Endowment of Education

The State's permanent school fund, which is under the authority of the State Board of Education, has gone over the $300,000 mark as the result of investments made in a few days ago by the Board in some bonds of Pennsylvania school districts. The fund is made up of escheated properties, income from the State forests and sales of State property of various sorts. It was established by the school code of 1911 and has been growing steadily. In time it will furnish revenue for the school system, according to the view of its founders.

IF BACK HURTS TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Says Backache is sure sign you have been eating too much meat

Uric Acid in meat clogs kidneys and irritates the bladder

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally. Also we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders. You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel a pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications. A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

GUFFEY SEEMS TO HAVE INSIDE

Pittsburgh Machine Boss Favored by Democratic Leaders For Governor

According to reports reaching Harrisburg from Philadelphia to-day National Committee man A. Mitchell Palmer, National Chairman Vance C. McCormick, Assistant Postmaster General James I. Blackie and Acting State Chairman and Petroleum Administrator Joseph F. Guffey, of Pittsburgh, have agreed upon Mr. Guffey to be the Democratic candidate for governor. They will so inform a gathering of prominent Democrats at the most expensive hotel in Philadelphia this afternoon and Mr. Guffey will be sent a blessing from the White House.

The bosses noticed the resentment caused by their plan for a meeting on the banks of the Potomac to frame a state ticket for Pennsylvania, and recalling what happened to that made four years ago determined to call a conference of party leaders. This was held to be a compromise to the demand for "an old-style Democratic convention to discuss the question of the party ticket, the primaries" as demanded by the Harrisburg Democratic Association.

But the habit of bossing things could not be avoided. The big chief picked on Guffey and told the rest to-day.

The Philadelphia Record says to-day: "Convinced that National Chairman Vance C. McCormick cannot be induced to seek the party nomination for governor, Democratic leaders from various sections of the state, who arrived here yesterday for a conference to-day in the Bellevue-Stratford on the gubernatorial situation, seemed to think that State Chairman Joseph F. Guffey, of Pittsburgh, would be the choice of the party leaders. A Mitchell Palmer, national committeeman from Pennsylvania, took himself and Mr. McCormick out of the list of probable candidates, and E. Lowry Humes, of Pittsburgh, United States attorney for the Western Pennsylvania district, removed fears of an attempt on his part to disregard the will of the leaders by announcing that he would not be a candidate under any circumstances was the announcement of Mr. Palmer when asked regarding the probable action at the conference to-day; and Mr. McCormick has told me that he is not an aspirant for the governorship. I am not committed to any candidate and I am not in a position at this time to discuss the likelihood of any particular man being the Democratic choice."

Mr. Humes said that a false impression had gotten abroad because of the use of his name in connection with the gubernatorial situation by some of his friends in Pittsburgh. Before he made his announcement that he would not become a candidate, he had luncheon with Mr. Guffey.

Men and Guns Germany Gains By Russia's Surrender

When the Russian Muzhik trades his machine-gun to the Germans for a drink of vodka, as many are doing, he comes near typifying the act of his Bolshevik superiors in giving up their military power for an intoxicating dream of anarchistic liberty. Like them too, he may hit off the transaction with some fine phrase that seems to sanctify his murderous bargain.

Declaring piously that they cannot continue a war with the German and Austrian workers, they release those unhappy workers for transfer to the Western front, where they may soon be thrown in masses at the Allied guns with far more disastrous results to themselves than if they had remained in the quiet trenches of Poland.

What is of most concern to the American people, however, is what gain Germany has made in men and guns by Russia's unconditional surrender, and in the leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for February 23d, there is a careful examination of this phase of developments on the Eastern front, and other contingencies that may arise in the near future.
