BARE TRUTHS OF 'CASH AND CARRY' WAR TO BE TOLD PLAN FAVORED BY HARRISBURGERS ADMINISTRATOR

No Words to Be Minced in McCormick to Ask Grocers to Pointing Out Dangers Nation Faces Discount

The Time—To-night, 7.30. The Place—Chestnut Street Au-

The Event—A showdown on war conditions—with no "ace in the hole," no cards in the hold-out"—everything on the table. The Reason—Time for this showdown—time to know just where the United States is "head-lar is".

The Speakers—Howard Heinz, food administrator for Pennsylvania; George Wharton Pepper, chairman of the State Public Safety Committee; Lieutenant F. A. Sutton, who played baseball with bombs at Gallipoli; Judge George Kunkel; the Rev. Henry W. A. Hanson.

If there is a lingering doubt in the minds of the 3,000 Harrisburg people who go to Chestnut Street Auditorium to-night, after the meet-ing is over, that the European war is an opera bouffe war—that it is a "einch"—that it is won already— that food-saving is a press agent's

Plans for having all retail grocers in the city charge a uniform price for grocery staples sold on a "cash and carry" basis have been worked out by the county food administration and will be put before the re-tail grocers by Donald McCormick at a meeting called for to-morrow all grocers by bonata steemine at a meeting called for to-morrow aight.

Mr. McCormick completed these arrangements to-day after many conferences with leading grocers. The food administrator proposes that a discount be granted purchasers who take home their goods. This plan would eliminate to a large extent the necessity of keeping accounts.

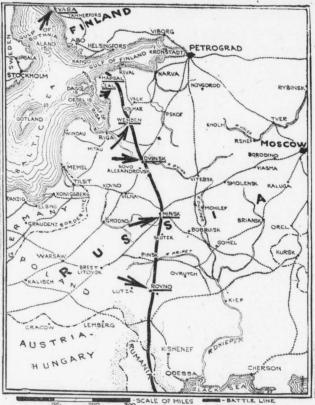

tent the necessity of keeping accounts.

At a meeting of all restaurant, hotel, eating house and lunch room proprietors of the city and county this afternoon, Mr. McCormick will compare the menus served by the proprietors on meatless and wheatless days in an effort to make the menus on these days allke among all the food dispensers, It is said that because restaurant proprietors are afraid they will lose trade by complying with the food regulations when other restaurant men ignore them, the regulations are not observed as closely as they should be. An agreement among all the restaurant men to serve the same menu on the taboo days will eliminate this obstacle to food conservation.

Keeping Parks and Streets Clean

WHEREAS. The people of Harrisburg regard with justifiable pride the fixed municipal policy of many years to maintain a clean and wholesome city, as manifested in a careful and constant sweeping of many miles of paved streets, the conservation of unusual natural advantages, the development of beautiful parks as the playgrounds and rest-places of the people; and, WHEREAS, An unprecedented winter aggravated intolerable conditions growing out of the breakdown of the system of ash collection by private contract, resulting in the cluttering of the streets with ugly and insanitary deposits of refuse and ashes, robbing the thoroughfares of their clean and wholesome appearance and endangering the health and lives of all the people; and, WHEREAS, A careful inspection of existing conditions has aroused the Councilmen of the city to the importance of immediate action to the end that a positive menace to the community may be removed as speedily as possible; therefore,

I. Daniel L. Keister, Mayor of the City of Harrisburg, realizing the urgent necessity of prompt and vigorous measures to abate this city-wide nuisance, do carnestly appeal to all 'good citizens to co-operate with the proper officials in restoring the highways of the city to that state of cleanliness which has given to Harrisburg its proud reputation as the "cleanest and best-paved city in the country."
