Pennsylvania Soldier Spent Furlough at Shiremanstown

Shiremanstown, Pa., Feb. 25.—Corporal Joseph H. Clouser, of the Headquarters Company of the One Hundred and Third Supply Train, stationed at Camp Hancock, Augusta, Ga., who enlisted in June, 1917, recently returned to camp after spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Clouser, here. Corporal Clouser is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Clouser and was entertained royally by his many friends during his short stay. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. George Sadler Rupp gave a dinner in his honor at their country residence.

SOME DEMOCRATS WON'T GO ALONG

Philadelphia Record Objects to Guffey as a Candidate For Governor and Kicks

Evidence that the Democratic conference on a state ticket, issues and party affairs at Philadelphia on Saturday was not as harmonious as pretended and that the liquor issue threatens to make the same old breach in the Democracy are piling up. Various newspapers hint at trouble inside of the organization and the Philadelphia Record, the big Democratic organ, says that some Democrats in Pennsylvania intend to go to the President and tell him a few things that reorganization bosses can hardly be expected to confess.

SAD NECESSARY CHURCH PAYMENT

Dr. Bagnell Praises the Stand Taken For Prohibition Amendment

The fact that churches of every denomination in Dauphin county have united in a prohibition campaign was cited by the Rev. Dr. Robert Bagnell in Grace Church last night as evidence that complete church unity is a possibility and a necessity.

Dr. Bagnell recently made a tour of the camps and the universal acclaiming in Y. M. C. A. shacks of men of almost all religions made a great impression on him. "We have been too much afraid of our carpets being trampled on," he said last night.

Dr. Bagnell emphatically advised that moving pictures should not be shown in church activities. At present, he pointed out, the industry is wholly in the hands of men who are out for profit and there is no reason why churches should not employ it for profit inasmuch as pictures can help in world salvation.

JUDGE PORTER TO GET BIG SUPPORT

Prominent Democrats Among Those Who Favor Renomination of Pittsburgher

Men of all political parties, especially attorneys, who have been in Philadelphia the last few days have been going over the superior court judgeship situation and judging from Philadelphia newspapers the consensus of opinion appears to be that Judge William D. Porter, of Pittsburgh, who is an aspirant to succeed himself, can count upon practically a unanimous bar endorsement and that his reelection is assured. Porter was agreed in Philadelphia no lawyer of prominence is likely to take the field against him and that it is quite likely that the vote at the primary will mean his election in November without opposition; that is, he will poll the more than 50 per cent vote required to assure his election.

MAY REIMBURSE CENTER COUNTY

Agreement With State to Secure Payment Withheld on Bounty Claims

Bellefonte, Pa., Feb. 25.—An echo of the old notorious bounty frauds in Center county as awakened during the past week when the initial step was taken whereby Center county expects to secure reimbursement on bounty claims aggregating perhaps $2,000.

Recently an agreement was effected whereby the Commonwealth has agreed to reimburse Center county for such of the bounty claims proffered by the former Squire Hayes Schenck, now serving a sentence in the Western Penitentiary at Rockview because of bounty frauds, as check beyond question be proved legal. It will be recalled that officers of the State Game Commission back in 1915 arrested Squires Schenck, of Howard, on the charge of fraudulently procuring bounties. Following his arrest the Commonwealth held up payment on all claims proffered by Schenck and paid out by Center County upon the bounty certificates submitted by the holders of probrates, the entire sum aggregating $2,871.

Schenck was indicted on some ten charges of bounty frauds in February term, 1916, before Judge Henry C. Quigley, and found guilty on one charge. An appeal was taken for a new trial. At the May term, 1916, Schenck entered a plea of guilty to certain of the indictments on the understanding that all further prosecutions in connection with the frauds be dropped. He was sentenced to a term of two to three years in the Western Penitentiary.

Following a recent understanding to the effect that the Commonwealth is willing to reimburse Center county for all claims legally proffered by Schenck, Game Protectors E. Woody Kelly, of DuBois, and Charles Batchelor, of Philipsburg, who handled the bounty claims during the Hayes Schenck trial, which was personally conducted by Elmer J. Shoyer, deputy attorney general of Pennsylvania, came to Bellefonte on Thursday, and with the county commissioners and District Attorney Furst, proceeded to the Rockview Penitentiary, where they interviewed the former judge of the peace. All the probrates were gone over carefully and Schenck, who, following his conviction was stripped of his office, checked up the entire list, designating just which probrates were legal and which fraudulent.

While the result of the interview was not made public, it is stated that the game commission officials as well as the county officials were satisfied Schenck was giving a true statement and the entire matter will be referred to Secretary Kabisus, of the State Game Commission. Upon his decision will depend the amount of money the Commonwealth will reimburse Center county, though it is expected that this county will receive something over $2,000 by the agreement, and thus will be called upon to stand the loss only of such bounties as were paid on fraudulent claims.
