One-Act Play and Two Comedy Couples Furnish Most Fun

While the bill at the Majestic for the first half of the week is enter-thing in its way, there are some eak spots, and naturally the proram does not come up to the stan-ard of the past few weeks. The dard of the past few weeks. The dard of the show came in the fourth act when the audience applauded for almost four minutes compelling the lands of the past few weeks. The Honor."

To-morrow and Thursday — Harold Lockwood in "The Avenging Trail."
Friday and Saturday — Mabel Normand in "Dodging a Million." limax of the show came in the fourth of when the audience applauded for lmost four minutes compelling the air of instrumental comedians, who ad just been on, to give an encore. Joe Dealey and Sister do some good ovelty dancing, including the usual ceentric numbers, a clever waltz and cakewalk to the melody of Kerry fills' lively composition "At a Georgia mapmeeting."
