Ordinance Being Drawn Up

Which Provides Admission of Kelker Extension

According to a borough Councilman, an ordinance providing for the admission of the Kelker extension in the vicinity of Pine street will be brought up before Council in monthly session on Monday night.

Council has been considering this move for more than a year. A survey has been taken of the plot, which will include a large amount of ground. Figures which have been compiled by Borough Engineer Callaghan will be submitted to Council on Monday if the ordinance is in shape to be brought up, the Councilman said.

on Monday if the ordinance is in shape to be brought up, the Councilman said.

The territory to be taken into the borough is splendid for building purposes and will be laid off in building lots. For the present time at least, the Councilman said, building will not be encouraged on the lots. Residents will be urged to purchase them and cultivate them during the summer.

According to present indications, the budget for 1918 will be presented to Council by the finance committee. This committee has been working hard and probably will complete its work at a meeting to be held the latter part of this week.

At this meeting bids for the disposal of garbage will be opened and the matter of adding patrolmen to the present police force will be taken up.

Cary Admits Shooting Watts During Fight

Andrew Cary, 254 Lincoln street, held on a charge of murdering Arthur Watts, 126 Adams street, on Monday, made a statement yesterday afternoon to District Attorney Michael E. Stroup, admitting that he had shot the other colored man. Cary declared however, Watts had threatened his life on Monday and several times before that. The story told by Cary and the one by Mrs. Watts wife of the murdered man, conflict in many respects it was said. The principal fact that Cary first shot Watts while the latter was standing in the kitchen of his home, then followed him into the next room and fired again, was corroborated by Mrs. Watts. No date has been set for the inquest or for the preliminary hearing of Cary.

Board of Health Elects Lewis Plumbing Inspector

The borough board of health in session in the Council chamber Monday night, elected Edward Lewis plumbing inspector at the salary of $60 per month. Lewis who for several years was secretary and plumbing inspector was not re-elected at a recent meeting of the health board. Charles P. Feidt, borough secretary was elected secretary of the health board while the inspector position remained vacant. The reason for not electing Lewis was not given by members of the health board but it is said that members of the board of health thought he was not efficient. Lewis will assume his new duties on March 1.
