HERTLING SEEKS TO DRIVE WEDGE BETWEEN ALLIES

Endeavors to Show Difference Between American and British Policies

Washington, Feb. 27.—The significant fact about the speech which Count von Hertling, the German Chancellor, delivered before the Reichstag Monday is unquestionably the conciliatory tone in which it was uttered.

There seems to be no disposition on the part of the government to make any concession to the eastern front by turning the country's eyes toward America and making a grandstand play for liberalism in that direction.
