papers, are well known to all the children. These boys are well known for the reason that in every picture depicting them they are doing something to cause a laugh.

For the latest edition of Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival, which comes to the Orpheum on Friday and Saturday.

An exceptionally good bill of vaudeville is being shown at the Majestic this week.

Goldwyn's widely-heralded comedy-drama, "Dodging a Million," starring Mabel Normand in her most dramatic role.

From the sun-beaten desert of Arizona to the snow-tipped mountains of California.

Those who believe in "seeing America first" will be more than satisfied with the scenery that makes it the most distinctive film of the season.

The exalted praise which greeted the premier showings of this photoplay this week in Philadelphia and New York was fully justified.

MAJESTIC HAS FINE PROGRAM

Two Acts on Bill Prove Big Success; "Jolly Tars" a Good Musical Offering

An exceptionally good program is presented at the Majestic for the last half of the week.

Turner and Grace are first on after the pictures. They have a juggling offering with no unusual feats.

Francis, xylophone soloist, has fine numbers, among them a catchy fox trot, and "Hoffman's Barcarolle."

"The Jolly Tars" have some fine musical numbers, including "Chimes of Normandy," "Night Time in Little Italy," "Are You From Heaven?"

Coal Distribution Up to Railroad Board

Washington, D. C., March 1.—Railroad operation, traffic and finance questions were discussed yesterday by Director-General McAdoo with his three regional directors.

An outline of the proposed zone system of distributing coal from mines, developed by officials of the railroad and fuel administrations, was laid before the directors and the Director-General's advisory board.

Curtailed of passenger train competition over parallel roads was discussed, with the view to eliminating some of the fast trains between New York and Chicago and Washington, Chicago and St. Louis, and between passenger centers in the South.

Other subjects discussed were the standardization of equipment; encouragement of terminal extensions by individual roads; re-routing of shortest routes, and elimination of various expenses required by the old competitive conditions.

Car Shortage Causes Drop in Coal Traffic

Washington, March 1.—Because of the car shortage and railroad congestion, bituminous coal production in January and February was some 3,000,000 tons below that in the corresponding months of 1917.

The National Coal Association announced to-night. The total lost output for the two months, the statement said, is estimated at 31,000,000 tons.

The entire country is still faced to face with a serious coal shortage, said the announcement.

Gov. Keyes Candidate for Senatorship
Concord, N. H., March 1.—Governor Henry W. Keyes to-day announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for United States senator at the primary in September.

Poor Showing For Pennsy Due to Winter Conditions
Owing to congestion, snow and high expenses, a very poor showing was made by the Pennsylvania Railroad system in January, according to the statement given out last night.
