

Bomb in Federal Building Mystifies Chicago Police

Chicago, March 1.—Discovery of a bomb in the Federal building has furnished a mystery on which a number of government agents are working to-day. The bomb was found yesterday partly hidden under a pile of rubbish in one of the rooms occupied by lawyers in charge of the I. W. W. prosecution.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! A SMALL BOTTLE STOPS DANDRUFF

Every Bit of Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out

Try This! Your Hair Appears Glossy, Abundant, Wavy and Beautiful

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge.

TOBACCO IS A GOOD ANGEL TO A FIGHTING MAN

Smoking Deemed Necessary by Men Who Battle in All Kinds of Weather

You've heard of my daddy, of course! He files Right up in the blue of the far-away skies!

The Red Cross nurses are of the same opinion. Hear this one: "Checkers is a favorite game with our soldiers. But the greatest joys are cigarettes and maybe hand-mirrors.

Girl Named County Treasurer in Oregon

Patriotic League to Be Organized at Y. W. C. A.; Pledged to Work For U. S.

Plans for the promotion and organization of a Patriotic League were discussed in a meeting held at the Y. W. C. A. building this morning.

"I pledge to express my patriotism by doing better than ever before whatever work I have to do by rendering whatever special service I can to my community and country; by living up to the highest standards of character and honor and helping others to do the same."

Asks Old Kid Gloves For Soldiers' Vests

"Wanted—All the old kid gloves in the country. Soldiers need them." This appeal is issued by the Overseas Committee of the Emergency Aid and illustrates how one of the byproducts of civilization may be utilized for the benefit of the American soldiers.

Plans to Drop His Bombs Near Father's Old Home

INSURANCE MEN SELL WAR STAMPS

Metropolitan Agent Disposes of $2,000 Worth, Another $350 Worth in One Day

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company agents of Harrisburg and Lebanon are doing more than their "bit" in the sale of Thrift Stamps.

London People Over Suspicious

London.—We are all apt to be over-suspicious just now, of everything and everybody. An instance of this regrettable tendency is furnished by an edifying food "queue" story which is going the rounds here.

Plans to Drop His Bombs Near Father's Old Home

Madison, Wis.—"I'm going to fly back to Berlin where you came from, dad, and drop a bomb somewhere near your old home."

KREIDER TO HAVE NO OPPOSITION

Congressman to Be Renominated by Republicans; Has Splendid Record

CONGRESSMAN A. S. KREIDER

Petitions will be circulated in a day or two for the renomination of Congressman Aaron S. Kreider. Mr. Kreider was in Harrisburg yesterday on business for the United Brethren Church, with which he is prominently identified, and discussed the matter with friends who approached him on the subject.

Plenty of Ashes but No Collections For New Ash Inspector to Inspect

Harry F. Sheesley, chief inspector of the Bureau of Garbage and Ash Inspection, began his duties to-day, George J. Hutton, who was appointed as an assistant, will begin his work on Monday.

Hagy Brothers, contractors for garbage removal, reported to-day they are on schedule with all collections and will complete work in the upper end of the city shortly after noon to-morrow.

Glenart Castle Sunk in Free Area in Breach of Recent Hun Pledge

London, March 1.—Sworn statements made independently by two survivors of the British hospital ship, Glenart Castle, sunk Tuesday in the Bristol channel, make clear that she was destroyed by an enemy submarine sighted in halting distance within ten minutes of the time the ship was struck, an official announcement says.

Fort Hunter Hotel Without License, Closes Its Bar

All liquor licenses granted in the city and county have been lifted, proprietors of hotels, bars, breweries and bottling establishments paying into the county treasury $53,300. Last year licenses netted $53,300 for the county.

Body of Reading Man Recovered Following Loss of the Cherokee

Philadelphia, March 1.—Signals from ships have been received at Lewes, Delaware, near the scene of the foundering of the naval tug Cherokee, on Wednesday, that bodies of victims of the disaster have been picked up in the ocean.

STERN'S CUT RATE SHOES. Early Spring Shoe Bargains. Ladies' Dark Brown Calf English Lace Boots. NEW MILITARY HEELS. $5.00 Quality. On Sale To-morrow at $3.95.

BOOKS REAL SHOE MAKERS. AN EXTRAORDINARY Shoe Sale. Notable Reductions on Women's Boots. WOMEN'S $4 BOOTS—$2.95. $5 MILITARY BOOTS—$3.95. ADVANCE STYLES LADIES' BOOTS—$4.85. Children's Footwear. Girls' Tan Shoes, Misses' Vici Button Shoes, Little Boys' Shoes, Boys' School Shoes, Boys' Fine Dress Shoes, Men's Dress Shoes, Men's $4 Work Shoes.

Runs Up Prussian Flag and Is in Custody

Renov. Nev.—Herman Frederick Wilhelm Babel, an alien enemy, was arrested in Salt Lake City on instructions from Washington and interned at Fort Douglas for the duration of the war.

Negress Known as "Cheery" Dies at 108

Los Angeles, Cal.—"Cheery" Anderson, negress, native of Louisiana, died at the Home for the Aged of the Little Sisters of the Poor, on Boyle Heights, at the alleged age of 108 years.

Wants 20,000 British Soldiers From America

Brig-Gen. W. A. WHITE. Within the next two months 20,000 Britishers in the United States must enlist in the British army, says General W. A. White of the British and Canadian Recruiting Mission.

NEW VICTOR RECORDS For March On Sale Now at Troup's. Among the new March Records out to-day here are eleven that are worthy of a place in your library. Victor Opera Co. J. H. Troup Music House.