

JAPAN WILL TAKE ADEQUATE STEPS IN SLAV COUNTRY

A Full Understanding With England and America, Motono Tells Diet

London, March 4.—In his speech in the Diet at Tokio February 24 in reply to interpellations of representatives, Viscount Motono, the Japanese Foreign Minister, is reported by Reuter's Tokio correspondent as saying that some discrepancies were to be found in the various reports of the Russo-German peace negotiations. It was therefore difficult at that time, he pointed out, to form a definite idea concerning the actual conclusion of peace by the two countries.

"Should peace be actually concluded," he continued, "it goes without saying that Japan will take steps of the most decided and adequate character to meet the occasion. The withdrawal of Ambassador Uchida from Petrograd is due to the unsettled and dangerous conditions prevailing there. It does not mean a rupture with Russia.

"Regarding the question of Russia's separate peace, the fullest understanding exists with Great Britain, America and the other allies. The consul general at Moscow will represent Japan after Ambassador Uchida's withdrawal.

"The foregoing is the first excerpt from Viscount Motono's speech to reach this country. London dispatches last week dealing with the Siberian question made reference to a declaration on Japan's attitude toward Russia by the Foreign Minister, but gave no indication of the character of the declaration.

Rome, March 4.—"The government at Tokio will act energetically, but it is impossible to say in what way, it not being desired to have the enemy know anything of its plan," General Semba, of the Japanese army, is quoted here as saying in an interview regarding the situation in the Far East.

Japan's attitude, continued the General in the interview, depends upon the enemy's action—whether the Germans enter Petrograd and should they do so, whether they will stop there or invade, even without military action, the remainder of Eastern Russia under the pretext of re-establishing order and organizing supplies and thus reach Siberia, Japan, the General declared, was ready for any eventuality.

SOLOMON'S TEMPLE Pictured in a Wilton Rug THE Assyrian Temple Rug—that's its name. And its description is in the Bible (see Ezekiel, chapter 41), which tells all about the design of the interior of the Temple. This wonder-Wilton is the latest product of the famous Oriental house, KARAGHEUSIAN of NEW YORK, and the surprise is that it can be purchased at the price of an ordinary good Wilton. Not only is the design an authentic copy of the great original, but the colors are worthy of the subject, rich and tasteful and yet sufficiently subdued to fit in ideally with modern schemes of home decoration. High grade Wiltons which are considered among America's finest rug weaves may be counted on the fingers of one hand, so if you admire beautiful floor coverings you will not miss this great treat.
